RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT FOR ATTORNEYS; CANONS OF JUDICIAL ETHICS.

The Chickasaw Nation Supreme Court shall, within ninety (90) days of the passage of this Section, promulgate rules for the professional conduct of attorneys practicing law before the courts of the Chickasaw Nation and canons of judicial ethics which shall apply to all Judges and Justices of the Chickasaw Nation and other court personnel as designated by the Supreme Court. The Rules of Professional Conduct for Attorneys and Canons of Judicial Ethics shall be codified as Appendixes “A” and “B” respectively at the end of this Title 5, Chapter 1, Article A. (PR20-017, 6/20/03)

“APPENDIX “A”
RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT FOR ATTORNEYS

SCOPE

A. These Rules of Professional Conduct for Attorneys shall be rules of reason. They should be interpreted with reference to the purposes of legal representation and of the law itself. Some of the rules shall be imperatives, cast in the terms "shall" or "shall not." Such Rules define proper conduct for purposes of professional discipline. Others, generally cast in the term "may," are permissive and define areas under the Rules in which the lawyer has professional discretion. No disciplinary action should be taken when the lawyer chooses not to act or acts within the bounds of such discretion. Other Rules define the nature of relationships between the lawyer and others. The Rules are thus partly obligatory and disciplinary and partly constitutive and descriptive in that they define a lawyer's professional role.

B. The Rules presuppose a larger legal context shaping the lawyer's role. That context includes court rules and statutes relating to matters of licensure and laws defining specific obligations of lawyers and substantive and procedural law in general. Compliance with the Rules, as with all law in an open society, depends primarily upon understanding and voluntary compliance, secondarily upon reinforcement by peer and public opinion and finally, when necessary, upon enforcement through disciplinary proceedings. The Rules do not, however, exhaust the moral and ethical considerations that should inform a lawyer, for no worthwhile human activity can be completely defined by legal rules. The Rules simply provide a framework for the ethical practice of law.

C. Furthermore, for purposes of determining the lawyer's authority and responsibility, principles of substantive law external to these Rules determine whether a client-lawyer relationship exists. Most of the duties flowing from the client-lawyer relationship attach only after the client has requested the lawyer to render legal services and the lawyer has agreed to do so. But there are some duties, such as that of confidentiality under Rule 1.6, that may attach when the lawyer agrees to consider whether a client-lawyer relationship shall be established. Whether a client-lawyer relationship exists for any specific purpose can depend on the circumstances and may be a question of fact.

D. Under various legal provisions, including constitutional, statutory and common law, the responsibilities of government lawyers may include authority concerning legal matters that ordinarily reposes in the client in private client-lawyer relationships. For example, a lawyer for a government agency may have authority on behalf of the government to decide upon settlement or whether to appeal from an adverse judgment. Also, government lawyers may be authorized to represent several government agencies in intra governmental legal controversies in circumstances where a private lawyer could not represent multiple private clients. They also may have authority to represent the "public interest" in circumstances where a private lawyer would not be authorized to do so. These Rules do not abrogate any such authority.

E. Failure to comply with an obligation or prohibition imposed by a Rule is a basis for invoking the disciplinary process. The Rules presuppose that disciplinary assessment of a lawyer's conduct will be made on the basis of the facts and circumstances as they existed at the time of the conduct in question and in recognition of the fact that a lawyer often has to act upon uncertain or incomplete evidence of the situation. Moreover, the Rules presuppose that whether or not discipline should be imposed for a violation, and the severity of a sanction, depend on all the circumstances, such as the willfulness and seriousness of the violation, extenuating factors and whether there have been previous violations.

F. Violation of a Rule should not give rise to a cause of action nor should it create presumption that a legal duty has been breached. The Rules are designed to provide guidance to lawyers and to provide a structure for regulating conduct through disciplinary agencies. They are not designed to be a basis for civil liability. Furthermore, the purpose of the Rules can be subverted when they are invoked by opposing parties as procedural weapons. The fact that a Rule is a just basis for a lawyer's self-assessment, or for sanctioning a lawyer under the administration of a disciplinary authority, does not imply that an antagonist in a collateral proceeding or transaction has standing to seek enforcement of the Rule. Accordingly, nothing in the Rules should be deemed to augment any substantive legal duty of lawyers or the extra-disciplinary consequences of violating such a duty.

G. Moreover, these Rules are not intended to govern or affect judicial application of either the attorney-client or work product privilege. Those privileges were developed to promote compliance with law and fairness in litigation. In reliance on the attorney-client privilege, clients are entitled to expect that communications within the scope of the privilege will be protected against compelled disclosure. The attorney-client privilege is that of the client and not of the lawyer. The fact that in exceptional situations the lawyer under the Rules has limited discretion to disclose a client confidence does not vitiate the proposition that, as a general matter, the client has a Reasonable expectation that information relating to the client will not be voluntarily disclosed and that disclosure of such information may be judicially compelled only in accordance with recognized exceptions to the attorney-client and work product privileges.

H. The lawyer's exercise of discretion not to disclose information under Rule 1.6 should not be subject to reexamination. Permitting such reexamination would be incompatible with the general policy of promoting compliance with law through assurances that communications will be protected against disclosure.

I. This Section on Scope provides general orientation to the Rules, but the text of each Rule is authoritative.

In doing so the Court shall:

1. Be responsible for creating and maintaining rules of the Court, not in conflict with the Chickasaw Nation Code or the Rules of the Supreme Court regulating conduct in the District Court, for the orderly and efficient administration of justice. Such rules must be filed in the office of the District Court Clerk before becoming effective.
2. Hold Court regularly at a designated time and place.
3. Have the power to administer oaths, conduct hearings, and otherwise undertake all duties and exercise all authority of a judicial officer under the law.
4. Hear and decide all cases properly brought before the Court.

Court and Procedures

5. Enter all appropriate orders and judgments.
6. Issue all appropriate warrants and subpoenas.

SECTION 5-202.8

SPECIAL APPOINTMENTS.

A. In the event of vacancies in office, disqualification of Judges, or other cause, the Supreme Court may designate by Court Order one or more special appointment magistrates. The Court shall make such special appointments from among the members of the Bar of the Court or the members of the Supreme Court. Upon special appointment, the magistrate shall preside as Judge over specific named cases or court dockets until such time as a regular Judge can be convened or the vacancy is filled in accord with this chapter. Whenever a Justice of the Supreme Court sits as special appointment magistrate, that Justice may not participate in any appeal to the Supreme Court of any matter over which he or she presided.

B. No special procedure need be followed in making such appointments, but the Supreme Court's special appointments of magistrates under this section shall be subject to Chickasaw Nation Code, Title 5, Chapter 1, Articles A and C. Once made, an appointment shall establish an at will employment relationship between the Judicial Department and the magistrate for all purposes relating to the appointment.

C. Special appointment magistrates may be compensated from the Court fund in such reasonable amounts as the Supreme Court shall order.

D. Any judge in office acting upon an appointment ordered by the Court prior to the enactment of this section shall continue to act under the terms and conditions of their appointment.

(PR18-044, 10/19/01; PR38-014, 02/22/2021)

COMPENSATION OF JUDGES.

Court and Procedures

A. The compensation of all Judges of the Court shall be set by the Supreme Court. No Judge shall have his compensation reduced during his term of office.

B. Nothing in this Section shall prohibit the Chickasaw Nation from contracting or agreeing with the Bureau of Indian Affairs or any other government, agency, or organization that such government, agency, or organization shall provide all or part of the compensation of a Judge of the District Court, and shall in return have control over the compensation of such Judges. In such situations the appropriate body of the Chickasaw Nation shall recommend to the funding party the compensation of District Judges.

SECTION 5-202.10 REMOVAL OF JUDGES.

A Judge of the District Court shall be removed only for cause by the Supreme Court. The term "cause" shall include any reason sufficient for disbarment of an Attorney from any Bar that licenses such Judge as an Attorney, or a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct found in Appendix "B" of Article A of Title 5 of the Chickasaw Code. (PR18-044, 10/19/01; PR38-014, 02/22/2021)

SECTION 5-202.11 DISQUALIFICATIONS, CONFLICT OF INTEREST.

A. No District Court Judge shall hear any case when he has a direct financial, personal or other interest in the outcome of such case. Judges should attempt to prevent even the appearance of partiality or impropriety.

B. Either party of interest in such case or the Judge may raise the question of conflict of interest. Upon decision by the Judge concerned or the Supreme Court that disqualification is appropriate, another Judge shall be assigned to hear the matter before the Court.

C. Any Judge otherwise disqualified because he is related within the third (3rd) degree to one or more of the parties of this Section, may hear a case if all parties are informed of the blood or marriage relationship on the record in open Court and of their right to have a different Judge hear the case, and consent to further action by that Judge in the case in open Court upon the record, or in a writing filed in the record, in spite of the conflict of interest.
(PR18-044, 10/19/01)

SECTION 5-202.12 DECISIONS.

Court and Procedures

A. Each final decision of the District Court at trial shall be recorded in writing. The written final decision shall include the date of the decision, the case number, the names of all parties, the substance of the complaint, the relevant facts found by the Court to be true, the Court's decision, and the conclusions of law supporting the Court's decision.

B. The written final shall be placed in the case file as an official document of the case.

(PR18-044, 10/19/01; PR38-014, 02/22/2021)

SECTION 5-202.13

RECORDS.

The District Court shall be a court of record. To preserve such records:

1. In all Court proceedings, the court reporter, which may be the Clerk in the absence of an official court reporter, shall record the proceedings of the Court by electronic or stenographic means. The Clerk shall maintain a record of all criminal proceedings, including making and preserving an audio or other recording of the trial proceeding. The recording shall be identified by case number and kept for five (5) years for use in appeals or collateral proceedings in which the events of the hearing are in issue. At the close of each hearing, or as otherwise specified, the reporter shall cause a transcript to be made of the recording upon the request of any party or the Court as a permanent part of the case record. Court reporters may be licensed by the Supreme Court, and shall be allowed such fees from the parties for their services as shall be set by Rule of the Supreme Court.

2. To preserve the integrity of the electronic record, the reporter shall store the recording in a safe place and release it only to the relevant Court or pursuant to an Order of a Tribal Judge or Justice.

3. The Clerk shall keep in a file, bearing the case name and number, every written document filed in the case.

4. All Court records shall be public records except as otherwise provided by law.

5. After five (5) years, Court records except Judgments, appearance, and other dockets may be reproduced in digital format, on computer tape or disk, microfilm, or microfiche or similar space saving record keeping methods, provided, that at least one

Court and Procedures

(1) hard copy, including microfilm or microfiche, of electronically stored data shall be kept at all times.

6. The Supreme Court shall provide for the publication in books or similar reporters of all of its decisions and opinions in cases before it, and the opinions and decisions of the District Court which would be useful to the Bar of the Court and the public.

SECTION 5-202.14 FILES.

A. Except as otherwise provided by law, such as in juvenile cases, Court files on a particular case are generally open to the public. Any person may inspect the records of a case and obtain copies of documents contained therein during normal business hours.

B. Any persons desiring to inspect the records of a case or obtain copies thereof may inspect such files only during the ordinary working hours of the Clerk, or a Judge and in their presence to insure the integrity of Court records. Under no circumstances shall anyone, except a Judge or a licensed advocate, attorney or the Clerk taking a file to a Judge in his chambers or a courtroom, take a file from the Clerk's office.

C. A copy of any document contained in such a file may be obtained from the Clerk by any person for a reasonable copy fee, to be set by rule of the Supreme Court. The Clerk is hereby authorized to certify under the seal of his office that such copies are accurate reproductions of those documents on file in his office. The Supreme Court by rule may provide for such certification.

SECTION 5-202.15 MOTION DAY.

Unless conditions make it impractical, the District Court shall establish regular times and places, at intervals sufficiently frequent for the prompt dispatch of business, at which motions requiring notice and hearing may be heard and disposed of; but the Judge at any time or place, and on such notice, if any, as he considers reasonable, may make orders for the advancement, conduct, and hearing of actions, or, the Court may make provision by rule or order for the submission and determination of motions without oral hearing upon brief written statements of reasons in support and opposition. (PR18-044, 10/19/01)

SECTION 5-202.16 SERVICE OF PROCESS; PROOF OF SERVICE;

RESPONSIVE PLEADINGS.

A. Service of Process and Proof of Service of Process.

Service of process and proof of service of process shall be made in accordance with Chapter 2, Article D of this Title 5.

B. Responsive Pleadings; Service; Time.

1. Defendants, third-party defendants and persons who are joined as parties to an action shall file their responsive pleadings with the Court Clerk and serve copies on all opposing parties within twenty (20) days after being served with process unless the time is extended by the service and filing of a motion or by the entry of an appearance, and they shall serve copies of their responsive pleading promptly thereafter on all other parties to the action. When a summons and petition are served by mail, a defendant shall serve his responsive pleadings within twenty (20) days after the date of receipt or, if service has been refused, then within twenty (20) days after the date acceptance was refused.

2. Except as otherwise provided by statute or an order of the Court, subsequent pleadings and all motions and other instruments shall be served on the opposing party within the prescribed time, and either before or promptly thereafter copies of the pleading shall be filed with the Court Clerk and served on all other parties to the action. This provision applies to amended pleadings except that an amendment that is made because a pleading failed to show a right to relief shall be filed with the Court Clerk within the time prescribed by the Court, and either before or promptly thereafter copies of the amended pleading shall be served on all parties to the action.

3. Except where a pleading is served with a summons, service of a pleading, motion or other instrument on a party shall be made by service on his attorney of record where there is one or on the party himself should the party be representing himself (pro se).

(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.17

OBJECTIONS TO SERVICE AND VENUE.

Objections to the jurisdiction of the Court over the person, to the issuance or service of the summons or to the venue of the action are waived and a party submits himself to the jurisdiction of the Court if he asks for affirmative relief on a claim which is asserted in a permissive counter-claim, in a cross-claim, or in a third-party Petition. The assertion of a compulsory counter-claim against a plaintiff does not waive any of the above objections. (PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.18

MOTIONS.

A. Where various objections and defenses have been consolidated pursuant to Subsection 5-209.11.G, the Court should hear jurisdictional objections and defenses first. If the Court grants a motion on one of the grounds stated therein, the Court may pass over other grounds. If an amendment is filed, the adverse party may renew any ground that was passed over and may object to defects in the amended pleading which did not exist in the initial pleading.

B. In a motion a party must specifically state the grounds therefor and the relief or order sought even where the party relies on defects or deficiencies apparent on the face of the pleading, motion or other instrument.

C. Motions raising fact issues shall be verified by a person having knowledge of the facts, if possible; otherwise, a verified statement by counsel of what the proof will show will suffice until a hearing or stipulation can be provided. Every motion shall be accompanied by a concise brief or a list of authorities upon which movant relies. Unless the Court directs otherwise, neither a brief nor a list of authorities shall be required with respect to any of the following:

1. motions for extensions of time, if the request is made before expiration of the time period originally prescribed, or as extended by previous orders;
2. motions to continue a hearing, pretrial conference or trial;
3. motions to amend pleadings or file supplemental pleadings;
4. motions to appoint a guardian ad litem;
5. motions for physical or mental examinations;
6. motions to add or substitute parties;

Court and Procedures

7. motions to enter or vacate default judgments;
8. motions to confirm sales;
9. motions to stay proceedings to enforce judgments;
10. motions to shorten a prescribed time period; and
11. motions for scheduling conferences and other settings.

D. If the motion does not comply with the requirements of Subsections B and C above, the motion may be denied without a hearing, and if a responsive pleading is required, the moving party shall serve such responsive pleading as provided in Subsection 5-202.16.B. Motions not requiring briefs shall state whether opposing parties agree or object to the request and shall be accompanied by a proposed order granting the relief requested. If there are no opposing parties, or if they cannot be reached, the movant shall so state with particularity. The proposed order shall be served together with the motion upon all parties in the matter. Objections to motions not requiring briefs shall be served and filed within fifteen (15) days after service of the motion or the motion may be deemed confessed.

E. Any party opposing a motion, except those enumerated in Subsection C above, shall serve and file a brief or a list of authorities in opposition within fifteen (15) days after service of the motion, or the motion may be deemed confessed.

F. If the grounds supporting a motion are not presented for hearing when called, the Court, in its discretion, may continue the hearing, rule on the motion or declare the motion as having been withdrawn or abandoned. Where a party consents to the denial of his motion, the motion shall be deemed to have been withdrawn. Motions that are not contested may be disposed of by the announcement of one party without the necessity of all counsel appearing.

Where a motion is denied for failure to present or is declared to have been withdrawn or abandoned, the party asserting the motion waives the objection, and if a responsive pleading is required, the moving party shall be required to serve it within twenty (20) days after notice of the Court's action. The ruling of the Court on a motion shall be memorialized by an order prepared by the moving party, or as directed by the Court, and shall be filed in the case.

G. Except with the permission of the Court after good cause has been shown, a party cannot present any defect or deficiency at the hearing on his motion which was not specifically stated therein, but if the Court permits other grounds to be presented, the motion shall be amended in writing, by interlineation if possible, to include the new grounds. This Subsection G is not applicable to hearings on new trial motions which are subject to Section 5-202.28.

Court and Procedures

H. Motions may be decided by the Court without a hearing, and where there is none, the Court shall notify the parties of its ruling by mail.

I. The denial of a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, or of a motion to strike a defense because it is insufficient, or of a motion for a summary judgment, or of a motion for a summary disposition of issues will not be reviewed on appeal after the action has been tried on its merits.

J. Joint motions shall be deemed to be joint and several as to all counts in the prior pleading and as to all parties joining in the motion, and where proper grounds are presented to the Court, the Court must rule on the sufficiency of each claim or defense as to each party.

K. A negative pregnant or a conjunctive denial is not a ground for objecting to the sufficiency of a defense, but the issues raised shall be determined at the pretrial conference.

L. Motions for judgment on the pleadings, motions for a more definite statement, motions to strike redundant, immaterial, impertinent, scandalous or similar matter from a pleading, and objections to the introduction of evidence that are made at the commencement of a trial to test the sufficiency of the pleadings shall not be made. If such motions or objections are made, the Court shall summarily deny them without a hearing, and the making of such motions or objections shall not extend the time to serve or file a responsive pleading or take other required action.

M. Appeals from orders granting judgment on motion for summary judgment or summary disposition or dismissal on motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim or for lack of jurisdiction will be subject to accelerated appellate review pursuant to Section 5-102.6. The record on appeal will be limited to:

1. the memorialized entry of dismissal order. In multi-party or multi-claim cases the judgment or dismissal order must either 1) dispose of all claims and all parties, or 2) entirely dispose of at least one (1) claim or one party and contain the express determination that there is no just reason for delay with the express direction by the trial Judge that judgment be filed (see Subsection 5-215.1.A);

Court and Procedures

2. pleadings proper as defined by Subsection 5-209.6.A;
 3. the instrument(s) upon which the dismissal is rested;
 4. the motion(s) to dismiss and any supporting brief(s);
 5. any responsive brief by the party asserting the claim;
 6. any other item on file which, according to some recitation in the trial Court's dismissal order or in some other order, was considered in its decision;
 7. any other order dismissing the claim or determining the issues as to some but not all parties or claims;
 8. any transcripts of the hearing on the motion; and
 9. any motions, along with supporting and responsive briefs, for new trial (re-examination) of the dismissal order.

SECTION 5-202.19

SUMMARY JUDGMENT OR SUMMARY DISPOSITION OF ISSUES.

A. A party may move for either summary judgment or summary disposition of any issue on the merits on the ground that the evidentiary material filed with the motion or subsequently filed with leave of court show that there is no substantial controversy as to any material fact. The motion shall be accompanied by a concise written statement of the material facts as to which the movant contends no genuine issue exists and a statement of argument and authority demonstrating that summary judgment or summary disposition of any issues should be granted. Reference shall be made in the statement to the pages and paragraphs or lines of the evidentiary materials that are pertinent to the motion. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a copy of the material relied on shall be attached to the statement. (See Section 5-215.5.)

The motion may be served at any time after the filing of the action, except that, if the action has been set for trial, the motion shall be served at least twenty (20) days before the trial date unless an applicable scheduling order establishes an earlier deadline. The motion shall be served on all parties and filed with the Court Clerk.

B. Any party opposing summary judgment or summary disposition of issues shall file with the Court Clerk within fifteen (15) days after service of the motion a concise written statement of the material facts as to which a genuine issue exists and the reasons for denying the motion; provided, however, that a responsive statement shall not be due from a party earlier than forty five (45) days after service of the first summons by, or upon, that party. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the adverse party shall attach to the statement evidentiary material justifying the opposition to the motion, but may incorporate by reference material attached to the papers of another party. In the statement, the adverse party or parties shall set forth and number each specific material fact which is claimed to be in controversy and reference shall be made to the pages and paragraphs or lines of the evidentiary materials. All material facts set forth in the statement of the movant which are supported by acceptable evidentiary material shall be deemed admitted for the purpose of summary judgment or summary disposition unless specifically controverted by the statement of the adverse party which is supported by acceptable evidentiary material. If the motion for summary judgment or summary disposition is granted, the party or parties opposing the motion cannot on appeal rely on any fact or material that is not referred to or included in the statement in order to show that a substantial controversy exists.

C. The affidavits that are filed by either party shall be made on personal knowledge, shall show that the affiant is competent to testify as to the matters stated therein, and shall set forth matters that would be admissible in evidence at trial. The admissibility of other evidentiary material filed by either party shall be governed by the Rules of Evidence. If there is a dispute regarding the authenticity of a document or admissibility of any submitted evidentiary material, the Court may rule on the admissibility of the challenged material before disposing of the motion for summary judgment or summary disposition. A party challenging the admissibility of any evidentiary material submitted by another party may raise the issue expressly by written objection or motion to strike such material. Evidentiary material that does not appear to be convertible to admissible evidence at trial shall be challenged by objection or motion to strike, or the objection shall be deemed waived for the purpose of the decision on the motion for summary judgment or summary disposition. If a trial of factual issues is required after proceedings on a motion for summary judgment or summary disposition, evidentiary rulings in the context of the summary procedure shall be treated as rulings in limine. (See Subsection 5-215.5.E.)

D. Should it appear from an affidavit of a party opposing the motion that for reasons stated the party cannot present evidentiary material sufficient to support the opposition, the Court may deny the motion for summary judgment or summary disposition without prejudice or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as the Court deems just. A motion filed pursuant to this Subsection D shall not be deemed a consent to the exercise by the Court of jurisdiction over the party, or a waiver of the right to file a motion to dismiss the action.

E. If it appears to the Court that there is no substantial controversy as to the material facts and that one of the parties is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, the Court shall render judgment for said party. If the Court finds that there is no substantial controversy as to certain facts or issues, the Court may enter an order specifying the facts or issues which are not in controversy and direct that the action proceed for a determination of the remaining fact or issues. An order denying either summary judgment or summary disposition is interlocutory and is not reviewable on appeal prior to final judgment.

F. The serving of a motion for either a summary judgment or summary disposition of issues before a responsive pleading is served where a responsive pleading is permitted does not preclude the opposing party from amending the pleading without leave of court. If a motion for either a summary judgment or summary disposition is served after the case is at issue, the hearing on the motion and the pretrial conference may, in the discretion of the Court, be held at one time. The Court may decide a motion for either a summary judgment or summary disposition without a hearing, and where this is done, the Court shall notify the parties of its ruling by mail.

G. The pleadings or the pretrial conference order may be amended either before or during the hearing on a motion for either summary judgment or summary disposition under this Rule, and the Court may continue the hearing to a subsequent time. After the Court grants a judgment under this Rule, neither the pleadings nor the pretrial conference order may be amended by the addition of allegations in regard to any fact which was known to the party and which could have been presented at the hearing on the motion, and a motion for a rehearing or for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence must comply with the provisions of Section 5-215.8.

H. Judgments entered on motion for summary judgment or appealable summary disposition are subject to accelerated appellate review under Section 5-102.6. The record on appeal will be limited to:

1. the memorialized entry of judgment; in multi-party or multi-claim cases the judgment or dismissal order must either 1) dispose of all claims and all parties, or 2) entirely dispose of at least one (1) claim or one party and contain the express determination that there is no just reason for delay with the express direction by the Court that judgment be filed;

Court and Procedures

2. pleadings proper;
3. applicable instruments on file, including the motion and response with supporting briefs and materials filed by the parties as prescribed by Paragraphs 1 and 2 above;
4. any other item on file which, according to some recitation in the Court's written journal entry or in some other order, was considered in its decision;
5. any other order dismissing the claim or determining the issues as to some but not all parties or claims;
6. any transcripts of the hearing on the motion; and
7. any motions, along with supporting and responsive briefs, for new trial (re-examination) of summary judgment or appealable summary disposition process.
(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.20

PRACTICE BEFORE THE DISTRICT COURT.

A. No person shall be denied the right to have a member of the Bar of the Court represent him and present his case before the Courts.

B. The Supreme Court, after conferring with the District Court, shall make rules which shall govern who may practice before the District Court and the Supreme Court. Such rules shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Supreme and District Courts.
(PR18-044, 10/19/01)

STANDARDS FOR RECOGNIZING RECORDS AND PROCEEDINGS OF STATE, FEDERAL AND TRIBAL COURTS; FULL FAITH AND CREDIT.

A. Definitions.

For the purposes of this Section:

1. "Foreign Court" means any court or constitutionally established tribunal of the United States, any State of the United States, or federally recognized Indian nation, tribe, pueblo, band, or Alaska Native village, duly established under federal law or tribal law, including Courts of Indian Offenses organized pursuant to Title 25, Part 11 of the

Court and Procedures

Code of Federal Regulations.

2. "Foreign Judgment" means any final written judgment, decree or order of a Foreign Court duly signed by a Judicial Officer and filed in a Foreign Court.

3. "Judicial Officer" means any judge, justice, magistrate or other officer duly seated and authorized under state, federal or tribal law to resolve disputes and enter judgments in a Foreign Court.

B. Recognition of Foreign Judgments; Full Faith and Credit.

The District Court of the Chickasaw Nation shall grant full faith and credit and cause to be enforced any Foreign Judgment where the Foreign Court that issued the judgment grants reciprocity to judgments of the Courts of the Chickasaw Nation; provided, a Foreign Court judgment shall receive no greater effect or full faith and credit under this Rule than would a similar or comparable judgment of another Foreign Court.

C. Listing of Foreign Courts Granting Reciprocity.

A list of the Foreign Courts that grant full faith and credit to the courts of the Chickasaw Nation shall be maintained by the Chickasaw Nation District Court. Any Foreign Court may provide the office of the Clerk of the District Court a copy of the tribal ordinance, statute, court rule or other evidence that demonstrates that the tribal court grants reciprocity to the courts of the Chickasaw Nation.

D. Filing of Foreign Judgments.

A copy of any Foreign Judgment from a tribal court authenticated in accordance with the applicable act of Congress or of the statutes of the Chickasaw Nation or the law of the State of Oklahoma may be filed in the office of the Clerk of the District Court. The Clerk of the District Court shall treat the Foreign Judgment from the tribal court in the same manner as a judgment of the Chickasaw District Court which may be enforced or satisfied in like manner.

E. Notice of Filing.

1. At the time of the filing of the Foreign Judgment with the Clerk of the District Court, the party filing the judgment or that party's attorney shall make and file with the Court Clerk an affidavit setting forth the name and last-known address of all parties in the action, including the name and last known address of any party's attorney.

2. Promptly upon the filing of the foreign judgment and the affidavit, the Clerk of the District Court shall mail notice of the filing of the Foreign Court judgment to the party against whom the judgment was rendered at the address given and shall make a note of the mailing in the docket. The notice shall include the name and address of the party filing the judgment, and that party's attorney, if any. In addition, the party filing the judgment shall mail a notice of the filing of the judgment to the party against whom judgment was rendered and shall file an affidavit proving the mailing of the notice with the Clerk of the District Court within ten (10) days of the date that the tribal judgment was filed with the District Court. Failure of the Clerk of the District Court to mail the notice of filing of the judgment shall not affect the enforcement proceedings if an affidavit proving the mailing of the notice has been filed by the party filing the judgment.

3. No execution or other process for enforcement of a tribal court judgment filed hereunder shall issue until the affidavit proving the mailing of the notice has been filed with the Clerk of the District Court and twenty (20) days have expired from the date the judgment was so filed.

(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.22

PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS.

A. Docket.

A pretrial conference shall be held in all civil actions except:

1. where the defendant is in default; or
2. where the defendant has waived his right to appear or plead; or
3. in an action for the recovery of money or personal property where the amount or value in controversy is less than five thousand dollars ($5000); or
4. in actions for forcible entry and detainer where a jury has been waived.

The Judge, in his discretion, may or may not hold pretrial conference(s) in cases where trial before a jury has been waived. A judge may hold more than one (1) pretrial conference in any case, may excuse a case from the pretrial docket or assign the case to Peacemaking Court as described and defined in Chapter 14 of this Title 5.

B. Notice.

At least twenty (20) days' notice of the setting of a case for an initial pretrial conference shall be given to the parties and/or the attorneys of record by the Court Clerk.

C. Scheduling.

As soon as any civil case is at issue, the Court may schedule any conference it deems appropriate and enter a scheduling order which establishes, insofar as feasible, the time:

1. to join other parties and to amend the pleadings;
2. to file and hear motions;
3. to complete discovery;
4. to have a medical examination of a party;
5. for conferences before trial, a pretrial conference, and trial;
6. to file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law (non-jury); and
7. for accomplishing any other matters appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

The scheduling order shall issue as soon as feasible after the case is at issue. A schedule shall not be modified except upon written application by counsel and by leave of the Court upon a showing of good cause.

D. Pretrial Conferences; Judge, Court Advocate or Peacemaker Presiding.

The pretrial conference shall be conducted by the Judge or, at the Judge's discretion, the Court Advocate or a Peacemaker. Unless waived by the parties, the Judge, Court Advocate or Peacemaker may take an active part in the conference and conduct it in an informal manner in chambers whenever possible.

E. Pretrial Conferences; Objectives. The scheduling and conduct of the conferences and the scheduling of matters to be accomplished should be designed to:

Court and Procedures

1. expedite the disposition of the action;
2. establish early and continuing control so that the case will not be protracted because of lack of management;
3. discourage wasteful pretrial activities;
4. improve the quality of the trial through more thorough preparation; and
5. facilitate the settlement of the case.

F. General Guidelines for Conducting Pretrial Conference.

The following guidelines should be followed by counsel and Judge, Court Advocate or Peacemaker in preparing and conducting a complete and adequate pretrial conference:

1. attorneys shall confer prior to the pretrial conference and prepare a single suggested pretrial order for use during the pretrial conference;
2. whenever feasible, all amendments to pleadings and stipulations should be filed in the case before the pretrial conference;
3. stipulate in writing to as many facts and issues as possible;
4. list in writing the facts and law that are disputed;
5. discuss the possibility of settlement; and
6. attorneys for the parties should be prepared to advise the Judge or the Court Advocate at the pretrial conference as to whether a Peacemaker is requested.

G. Subjects to be Discussed at Pretrial Conferences.

In accordance with the objectives of a pretrial conference, the participants under this rule should have taken action to:

1. the formulation and simplification of the issues, including the elimination of frivolous claims or defenses;

Court and Procedures

2. the necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
3. the possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof, stipulations regarding authenticity of documents, and advance rulings from the Court on the admissibility of evidence;
4. the avoidance of unnecessary proof and of cumulative evidence;
5. the identification of witnesses and documents, the need and schedule for filing and exchanging pretrial briefs, and the date or dates for further conferences and for trial;
6. the possibility of settlement or the use of extrajudicial procedures to resolve the dispute;
7. the form and substance of the pretrial order;
8. the disposition of pending motions;
9. the need for adopting special procedures for managing potentially difficult or protracted actions that may involve complex issues, multiple parties, difficult legal questions, or unusual proof problems; and
10. such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

H. Final Pretrial Conference.

Any final pretrial conference shall be held as close to the time of trial as is reasonable under the circumstances. The participants at any such conference shall formulate a plan that will streamline the trial, including a program for facilitating the admission of evidence. The conference shall be attended by at least one of the attorneys who will conduct the trial for each of the parties, unless a substitute attorney is authorized by the Judge, Court Advocate or Peacemaker and by any unrepresented parties.

I. Pretrial Orders.

After any conference held pursuant to this Rule, an order shall be entered reciting the action taken. Such order shall control subsequent course of the action unless modified by a subsequent order. The order following a final pretrial conference shall be modified only to prevent manifest injustice.

The pretrial order shall include the results of the conference and advice to the Court regarding the factual and legal issues, including details of material questions of law in the case. All exhibits must be marked, listed and identified in the pretrial order. If there is objection to the admission of any exhibits, the grounds for the objection must be specifically stated. Absent proper objection, the listed exhibit is admitted when offered at trial or other proceeding. Attorneys for all parties will approve the order. The order shall be presented to the District Court for signature. The contents of the pretrial order shall supersede the pleadings and govern the trial of the case unless departure therefrom is permitted by the Court to prevent manifest injustice. Proposed pretrial order shall not be filed.

J. Default.

Failure to prepare and file a scheduling order or pretrial order, failure to appear at a conference, appearance at a conference substantially unprepared, or failure to participate in good faith may result in any of the following sanctions:

1. the striking of the pleading;
2. a preclusion order;
3. staying the proceeding;
4. default judgment;
5. assessment of expenses and fees (either against a party or the attorney individually); and/or
6. such other order as the Court may deem just and appropriate.

K. After Pretrial.

After pretrial, if additional exhibits or writings are discovered, the party intending to use them shall immediately mark them for identification and furnish copies to opposing counsel. These shall be deemed admitted unless written objection is served and filed within ten (10) days of receipt, stating the specified grounds for objection. If additional witnesses are discovered, opposing counsel shall be notified immediately in writing and furnished their names, addresses and the nature of the testimony. Copies of the additional documents, exhibits, writings, or list of witnesses shall also be mailed to the Clerk of the Court to be filed in the case. No exhibit or witness may be added to the final pretrial order once the same has been prepared and signed and filed by the Court without a showing to the Court that manifest injustice would be created if the party requesting the addition of such evidence or testimony was not permitted to add such final pretrial order.

L. Settlement Conferences.

The Court, may upon its own motion or at the request of any of the parties, may order a settlement conference at a time and place to be fixed by the Court. At the discretion of the Court, the Judge, Court Advocate or a Peacemaker may preside at such settlement conference. At least one (1) attorney for each of the parties who is fully familiar with the case and who has complete authority to settle the case shall appear for each party. If no attorney has complete settlement authority, the party or person with full settlement authority shall also attend the settlement conference. The settlement conference Judge, Court Advocate or Peacemaker may allow the party having full settlement authority to be telephonically available, if justifiable cause is shown why attendance in person would constitute a hardship. The parties, their representatives and attorneys are required to be completely candid with the settlement conference Judge, Court Advocate or Peacemaker so that he may properly guide settlement discussions, and the failure to attend a settlement conference or the refusal to cooperate fully within the spirit of this Rule may result in the imposition of any of the sanctions mentioned in Subsection J above. The Judge, Court Advocate or Peacemaker presiding over the settlement conference may make such other and additional requirements of the parties which in his discretion shall seem proper in order to expedite an amicable resolution of the case. The Judge, Court Advocate or Peacemaker shall not discuss the substance of the conference with anyone, including the Judge should the Court Advocate or Peacemaker be presiding.

DILIGENCE IN PROSECUTION.

A. In any case in which summons is not issued or waiver filed within ninety (90) days after the filing of the petition, or alias summons is not issued within thirty (30) days after return of the summons not served, the action may be dismissed by the Court without notice to the plaintiff.

B. If service of process is not made upon a defendant within one hundred twenty (120) days after the filing of the petition and the plaintiff cannot show good cause why such service was not made within that period, the action shall be dismissed as to that defendant without prejudice upon the Court's own initiative with notice to the plaintiff or upon motion.

D. Where an action is not diligently prosecuted, the Court may require the plaintiff to show why the action should not be dismissed. If the plaintiff does not show good cause why the action should not be dismissed, the Court shall dismiss the action without prejudice.

E. Any action which is not at issue and in which no pleading has been filed or other action taken for a year and in which no motion or demurrer has been pending during any part of said year shall be dismissed without prejudice by the Court on its own motion after notice to the parties or their attorneys of record; provided, the Court may upon written application and for good cause shown, by order in writing allow the action to remain upon its docket.

SECTION 5-202.24

NOTICE OF TAKING DEFAULT JUDGMENT.

A. In matters in default in which an appearance, general or special, has been made or a motion or pleading has been filed, default shall not be taken until a motion therefore has been filed in the case and five (5) days notice of the date of the hearing is mailed or delivered to the attorney of record for the party in default or to the party in default if he is unrepresented or his attorney's address is unknown. If the addresses of both the party and his attorney are unknown, the motion for default judgment may be heard and a default judgment rendered after the motion has been regularly set on the motion and demurrer docket. It shall be noted on the motion whether notice was given to the attorney of the party in default, to the party in default, or because their addresses are unknown, to neither.

B. Notice of taking default is not required where the defaulting party has not made an appearance. Also, notice of taking default is not required in the following cases even if the defaulting party has made an appearance:

1. any case, whether a matrimonial action or otherwise, in which waiver of summons and entry of appearance has been filed;

3. any forcible entry and detainer case, whether or not placed on the small claims docket;

SECTION 5-202.25

JUDGES; UNIFORMITY OF RULINGS.

When a question of law, fact or procedure has been presented to a Judge, the same question, so far as it relates to the same case, shall not thereafter knowingly be presented to another Judge sitting in the District Court without apprising the subsequent Judge of the former Judge's ruling or, if no ruling has been made, that such question has already been presented to the first Judge. Where this Rule has been violated, an order that is issued by the second Judge may be vacated by him at any time before the entry of a final judgment. (PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.26

Court and Procedures

or someone acting in his behalf, did make a diligent and meaningful search of all reasonably available sources at hand and failed to ascertain from it the following data:

1. the whereabouts or mailing address of every person named as defendant who was so served in the action; or, if publication service was directed in the alternative to a named defendant if living, or if dead, to the "unknown heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, devisees and assigns, if any;"
2. the whereabouts or mailing address of every person named as defendant if living;
3. whether such person is living or dead;

5. the individual identity and whereabouts or mailing address of persons who were so served; or if publication service was directed to the unknown successors, trustees or assigns, if any, of any dissolved corporation; or to the unknown successors of any party designated in any record as a trustee; or to the unknown holders of special assessment or improvement bond, sewer warrant or tax bill; or to any corporation whose continued legal existence is alleged to be in doubt but the fact of its dissolution is not known;

B. At the inquiry required by this Rule, plaintiff should show by competent evidence that all reasonably available sources, where applicable, were in fact searched and failed to yield the information necessary to establish;

1. the whereabouts or mailing address of the named defendant; or
2. the individual identity and whereabouts or mailing address of his heirs, successors, etc.; or
3. the status of a corporation and the whereabouts of its officers or successors.

D. An evidentiary affidavit by a bonded abstractor detailing the records and other sources searched by him and the information yielded by the search may be admitted as evidence at the inquiry conducted in compliance with this Rule.

E. If, after hearing the evidence the Judge finds that plaintiff did in fact exercise due diligence in conducting a meaningful search, the following recitation should be included in the journal entry of judgment:

(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.28

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL.

A. A motion for a new trial must contain every ground on which the moving party intends to rely. Each error, including error in the giving or refusal to give specified instructions irregularity, abuse of discretion, misconduct, accident, surprise and other ground on which the moving party is relying to obtain a new trial, must be separately stated with specificity except that errors in the admission and exclusion of evidence may be asserted under the statement of errors in the admission and exclusion of evidence without such errors being separately stated.

B. At the hearing on the motion or on appeal the movant may not rely on errors which are not fairly embraced in the specific grounds stated in the timely- filed motion for new trial. Lack of specificity in any ground of a timely-filed motion for a new trial will be regarded as effectively cured where the record shows that, at the hearing on that motion, without any objection by the opposite party the movant precisely identified each error or point of law which is fairly comprised in the defective general ground or grounds of the motion.

C. A motion seeking reconsideration, re-examination, rehearing or vacation of a judgment or final order which is filed within ten (10) days of the day such decision was rendered may be regarded as a motion for a new trial. After expiration of the statutory time for filing a motion for new trial, a timely-filed motion may be amended to clarify the grounds originally set out but not to set up new and independent grounds.

D. A motion, however styled, which is filed after the expiration of ten (10) days following the decision is ineffective as a motion for new trial and will not extend appeal time. It is not necessary for the moving party to except to the rulings of the Court either before, during, or after the trial, but he must have made known to the Court the action which the Court should take or the party's ground for objecting to the action of the Court.

(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

PAROLE REVOCATION; JUVENILES.

A. In parole revocation proceedings involving juveniles, the District Court may aid the administrative process of the Indian Child Welfare Department or the Oklahoma Department of Human Services. In so acting, the Court shall:

Court and Procedures

1. advise the juvenile, his parents, custodians or guardians, of their rights in the premises;
2. determine eligibility for and amount of bail;
3. decide any intermediate custody issue; and
4. establish eligibility for appointment of counsel and fix the amount of his compensation to be paid by the court fund. The Court shall also timely issue such other orders as may be necessary to assure due process and fair treatment, including but not limited to issuance of compulsory process for the attendance of witnesses.

B. This Rule shall not preclude the District Court from acting concurrently with parole revocation proceedings in the exercise of its own jurisdiction nor shall it prevent a new petition from being brought on allegations identical to those on which parole is sought to be revoked.

(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.30

VACATION OF FINAL JUDGMENTS.

A. In any proceeding to vacate, modify or reopen a final judgment that is commenced more than thirty (30) days after its rendition, 1) proceeding by motion instead of by petition or by petition instead of by motion, or 2) failure to verify the petition, or 3) incorrect service of process or the required notice is waived if the opposing party appears in the proceeding but does not immediately object thereto. Such defects are also waived by any party in default who had actual notice of the proceeding.

B. In any proceeding to vacate, modify or reopen a judgment, whether by a motion, petition or application, jurisdictional grounds are not waived by being joined with nonjurisdictional grounds in the motion, petition or application or by raising nonjurisdictional defenses in an accompanying pleading.

(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.31

DIRECT CONTEMPT.

A. Power of the Court.

The Court has the power to punish any contempt in order to protect the rights of the parties and the interests of the public by assuring that the administration of justice shall not be thwarted. The trial Judge has the power to cite and if necessary punish summarily anyone who, in his presence in open court, willfully obstructs the Court or judicial proceedings after an opportunity to be heard has been afforded.

B. Admonition and Warning.

No sanction other than censure should be imposed by the trial Judge unless 1) it is clear from the identity of the offender and the character of his acts that disruptive conduct was willfully contemptuous, or 2) the conduct warranting the sanction was preceded by a clear warning that the conduct is impermissible and that specified sanctions may be imposed for its repetition.

C. Notice of Intent to Use Contempt Power; Postponement of Adjudication.

1. The trial Judge should, as soon as practicable after he is satisfied that courtroom misconduct requires contempt proceedings, inform the alleged offender of his intention to institute such proceedings.

2. The trial Judge should consider the advisability of deferring adjudication of contempt for courtroom misconduct of a defendant, an attorney or a witness until after the trial, and should defer such a proceeding unless prompt punishment is imperative.

D. Notice of Charges and Opportunity to Be Heard.

Before imposing any punishment for contempt, the Judge should give the offender notice of the charges and at least a summary opportunity to adduce evidence or argument relevant to guilt or punishment.

E. Referral To Another Judge.

The Judge before whom courtroom misconduct occurs may impose appropriate sanctions, including punishment for contempt, but should refer the matter to another Judge, if his conduct was so integrated with the contempt that he contributed to it or was otherwise involved, or his objectivity can reasonably be questioned.

(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.32

MATTERS TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT.

A. In any matter taken under advisement, a decision shall be rendered within sixty (60) days of the date on which the matter was taken under advisement or, if briefs are to be submitted, within sixty (60) days of the date of the filing of the final brief.

B. When the District Court takes a matter under advisement, the Judge shall specify the date by which a decision shall be rendered. If briefs are to be submitted, the dates for filing such shall also be specified. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may extend the deadline for a decision upon sworn application for an extension of time of the District Court Judge setting forth with specificity the reasons therefor.

C. Upon entering and filing the decision with the Court Clerk in a matter taken under advisement, the Court Clerk shall mail file-stamped copies of the minute order or judgment setting out such decision to counsel in the case and to any party appearing pro se. The Court may direct a party to mail file-stamped copies of the judgment or order to the other parties. The copies of the order of judgment mailed under this rule shall bear the notation of the date of mailing, and the Clerk or party mailing shall file a certificate of mailing with the District Court Clerk. (PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.33

INSTRUCTING AS TO ISSUES OF FACT.

It is the duty of the trial Judge to determine the issues in a civil case and to inform the jury in clear and succinct language what the issues of fact are that are being submitted to them for their decision. The Judge should not require the jury to determine the issues of fact from the pleadings, and he should not set out the pleadings in the instructions in whole or in part. (PR21-002, 11/21/03)

SECTION 5-202.34

INDIGENT DEFENDANT IN CIVIL CONTEMPT ACTION; RIGHT TO COUNSEL; ATTORNEY FEES.

A. In a civil contempt action which may result in the incarceration of a defendant who appears without counsel, the Court must inform the defendant that he has a right to counsel and that if he is financially unable to employ counsel and desires such, the Court must assign counsel to defend him. Only after receiving notice of this right, can the defendant knowingly and intelligently waive his right to counsel. A defendant who desires counsel and can establish indigency under the normal standards for appointment of counsel in a criminal case, shall have an attorney appointed to represent him.

Court and Procedures

B. The court-appointed attorney shall represent the defendant until final disposition of the civil contempt action and shall receive compensation, payable from the court fund, in a reasonable amount set by the court for such court-appointed representation.

ENTRY OF DEFAULT ON PARTY SERVED BY PUBLICATION.

Before entry of a default judgment or order against a party who has been served solely by publication, the Court shall conduct an inquiry to determine whether the plaintiff, or someone acting in his behalf, made a distinct and meaningful search of all reasonably available sources to ascertain the whereabouts of any named parties who have been served solely by publication.
(PR21-008, 12/19/03)

SECTION 5-204.13

VACATING DEFAULT JUDGMENTS WHERE SERVICE IS BY PUBLICATION.

A. A party against whom a default judgment or order has been rendered, without other service than by publication in a newspaper, may, at anytime within three (3) years after the date of the judgment or order, have the judgment or order opened and be left in to defend.

B. Before the judgment or order is opened, the applicant shall notify the adverse party of his intention to make such challenge, and shall:

1. file a full answer to the petition;
2. pay all costs if the Court requires them to be paid; and
3. satisfy the Court by affidavit or other evidence that during the pendency of the action he had no actual notice thereof in time to appear in Court and make his defense.

C. The adverse party, on the hearing of any application to open a Judgment or order as provided by this Section, shall be allowed to present evidence to show that during the pendency of the action the applicant had notice thereof in time to appear in Court and make his defense.

(PR21-008, 12/19/03)

CERTAIN TECHNICAL ERRORS NOT GROUNDS FOR VACATING JUDGMENT.

A. No judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered in any action against any person or party served by publication shall be construed or held to be void or voidable because the affidavit for such service by publication on file in the action was made by the attorney for the plaintiff or because the complaint or other pleading was verified, if verification is necessary, by the attorney for the plaintiff or party seeking such service by publication. In all such cases it shall be conclusively presumed, if otherwise sufficient, that the allegations and statements made by such attorney were and are in legal effect and for all purposes made by plaintiff and shall have the same force and effect as if actually made by the plaintiff.

B. All such judgments, if not otherwise defective or void, are hereby declared valid and legally effective and conclusive as of the date thereof as if such affidavit was made or the complaint or pleading was verified by the plaintiff or other party obtaining such service by publication.

(PR19-016, 4/19/02)

SECTION 5-204.15 CONSENT IS EFFECTIVE SUBSTITUTE FOR SERVICE.

An acknowledgment on the summons or the voluntary appearance of a defendant is equivalent to service. (PR19-016, 4/19/02)

SECTION 5-204.16 SERVICE PURSUANT TO COURT ORDER.

If service cannot be made by personal delivery or by mail, a party in interest may be served as provided by court order in any manner which is reasonable calculated to give actual notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard. The Court may enter an order requiring such service whenever service has been by publication only prior to entering a default judgment. (PR19-016, 4/19/02)

SECTION 5-204.17 SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT TO BE SERVED TOGETHER.

A summons and complaint shall be served together. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service with such copies as are necessary. If the complaint is not served with the summons, the case shall not be dismissed but the time to answer should be extended by the Court upon motion. The person serving the summons shall state on the copy that is left with the party served the date that service was made. Where service is to be made by mail, the person mailing the summons shall state on the copy that is mailed to the party to be served the date of mailing. These provisions are not jurisdictional, but if the failure to comply with them prejudices the party served, the Court may extend the time to answer. (PR21-008, 12/19/03)

SECTION 5-204.18 ALTERNATIVE PROVISIONS FOR SERVICE IN A FOREIGN JURISDICTION.

Court and Procedures

A. When Chickasaw law authorizes service upon a party not an inhabitant of or found within the territorial jurisdiction of the Court, and when service is to be effected upon a party in a foreign jurisdiction, it is also sufficient if service of the Process is made:

1. in the manner prescribed by the law of the Chickasaw Nation, tribe, state, or foreign jurisdiction for service in that tribe, state, or jurisdiction in an action in any of its courts of general jurisdiction;

2. as directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter rogatory when service in either case is reasonably calculated to give actual notice;

3. upon an individual, by delivery to him personally, and upon a corporation or partnership or association, by delivery to an officer, manager or general agent;

4. by a form of mail, requiring a signed receipt, to be addressed and dispatched by the Court Clerk to the party to be served; or

5. as directed by the order of the Court.

B. Service under Paragraph A.3 or 5 above may be made by any person who is not a party and is not less than eighteen (18) years of age or who is designated by order of the Court or by the foreign court. On request, the Court Clerk shall deliver the summons to the plaintiff for transmission to the person or the foreign court or officer who will make the service.

C. Proof of service may be made as prescribed herein, or by the law of the tribe, state, or foreign country, or by order of the Court. When service is made by mail, proof of service shall include a receipt signed by the addressee or other evidence of the delivery to the address satisfactory to the Court.

SECTION 5-204.19

SUBPOENAS.

A. The Court or an attorney authorized to practice law in the courts of the Chickasaw Nation, as an officer of the Court, shall have the authority to issue Subpoenas in order to compel the presence of persons, documents or other items of evidence, or to compel the inspection of premises, documents or other items of evidence, as it sees fit. Service of Subpoenas may be made by any person who is not less than eighteen (18) years of age. Every Subpoena shall:

Court and Procedures

1. state the name of the Court from which it is issued and the title of the action; and

2. command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony or to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, documents or tangible things in the possession, custody or control of that person, or to permit inspection of premises, documents or other items of evidence, at a time and place therein specified.

B. Service of a subpoena may be accomplished by any person who is eighteen (18) years of age or older. Proof of service of a notice to take deposition constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance of Subpoenas for the persons named or described therein; provided, any person aggrieved by the issuance or enforcement of the Subpoena may obtain judicial review upon the filing of a civil action and payment of the required fees.

C. Upon service of a Subpoena, a witness shall be obligated to attend a trial or hearing and to attend a deposition or produce or allow inspection of documents at a location that is specified in the Subpoena.

D. The Court Clerk shall issue a Subpoena for the production of documentary evidence signed and sealed but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.

E. Leave of court for issuance of a Subpoena for the production of documentary evidence shall be required if a plaintiff seeks to serve a Subpoena for the production of documentary evidence on any person who is not a party prior to the expiration of thirty (30) days after service of the summons and petition upon any defendant.

F. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a Court Clerk of the Chickasaw Nation shall not be subject to a Subpoena in matters relating to court records unless the Court makes a specific finding that the appearance and testimony of the Court Clerk are both material and necessary because of a written objection to the introduction of the court records made by a party prior to trial.

G. Except for expert witnesses, if a person's attendance is demanded by Subpoena, that person shall receive fees for one (1) day's attendance in the amount of thirty five dollars ($35) and the same amount of mileage fees as is then paid by the Chickasaw Nation, all fees to be paid by the party issuing the Subpoena. Expert witnesses may negotiate fees for attendance and mileage.

H. If the Subpoena commands production of documents and things or inspection of premises from a nonparty before trial but does not require attendance of a witness, the Subpoena shall specify a date for the production or inspection that is at least seven (7) days after the date that the Subpoena and copies of the Subpoena are served on the witness and all parties, and the Subpoena shall include the following language: “In order to allow objections to the production of documents and things to be filed, you should not produce them until the date specified in this Subpoena, and if an objection is filed, until the Court rules on the objection.”

I. Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoenas.

1. A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a Subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that Subpoena. The Court on behalf of which the Subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney, or both, in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney fee.

2. Appearance at place of production and written objections to requested documents:

a. a person commanded by Subpoena to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded by the Subpoena to appear for deposition, hearing or trial; and

b. subject to Subsection J below, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying or any party may, within fourteen (14) days after service of the Subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than fourteen (14) days after service, serve written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. An objection that all or a portion of the requested material will or should be withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials shall be made within this time period and in accordance with Subsection D below. If the objection is made by the witness, the witness shall serve the objection on all parties; if objection is made by a party, the party shall serve the objection on the witness and all other parties. If objection is made, the party serving the Subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the Court. For failure to object in a timely fashion, the Court may assess reasonable costs and attorney fees or take any other action it deems proper; however, a privilege or the protection for trial preparation materials shall not be waived solely for a failure to timely object under this Section. If objection has been made, the party serving the Subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

3. On timely motion, the Court by which a Subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the Subpoena if it:

- a. fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
- b. requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies;
- c. subjects a person to undue burden; or
- d. requires production of books, papers, documents or tangible things that fall outside the scope of discovery permitted by the Rules of Discovery.

4. If a Subpoena 1) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or 2) requires disclosure of an undetailed expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, the Court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the Subpoena, quash or modify the Subpoena. However, if the party in whose behalf the Subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the Subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the Court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

J. A person responding to a Subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand. When information subject to a Subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

K. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a Subpoena served upon him may be deemed to be in contempt of court.

Where there are two (2) or more sureties in the same undertaking they must in the aggregate have the qualifications prescribed in this Section.

SECTION 5-205.3 REAL ESTATE MORTGAGE AS BOND.

In every instance where bond, indemnity or guaranty is required, a first mortgage upon real estate within a State in which any portion of the Tribal jurisdiction lies shall be accepted, the amount of such bond, guaranty, or indemnity shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the reasonable valuation of such improved real estate, provided further, that where the amount of such bond, guaranty or indemnity shall exceed fifty percent of the reasonable valuation of such improved real estates then such first mortgage shall be accepted to the extent of such fifty

In case of an adverse decision, such costs as by law are taxable against such party shall be paid out of the miscellaneous fund or other available fund of the party under whose direction the proceedings were instituted.

SECTION 5-205.7 APPEARANCE BOND; ENFORCEMENT.

A. The penalty on the bond or any part thereof, shall, when recovered, first be applied to discharge the obligation adjudicated in the case in which the bond was posted, and any excess shall be deposited in the Court fund. The party who is the obligee on such bond shall have the right to enforce its penalty to the same extent and in the same manner as the Chickasaw Nation may enforce the penalty on a forfeited bail bond.

1. Service of the Petition to all interested parties designated the Petition shall be the responsibility of the Petitioner.

2. Service of the Petition shall be accomplished by certified mail, return receipt requested, or hand delivering a copy of the Petition to all interested parties. A memoranda brief shall not exceed five (5) pages in length, shall be submitted on 8 ½ inch by 11 inch paper with one (1) inch margins, double spaced and prepared in no less than twelve (12) point type. The Court shall have the authority to issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence.

B. Any party failing to appear when the appeal is called for oral argument shall be deemed as having waived the right to argue the case and the appeal shall be considered as being submitted on the record. If a basis of the appeal involves disputed questions of fact, or if there is controlling or significant appellate authority, copies of the relevant document(s), relevant portions of the Commission transcript, deposition testimony or final decisions, such shall be presented to the Court at the time of the hearing and shall be exchanged with all interested parties at least three (3) days prior to said hearing.

C. All appeals to the District Court shall be heard de novo. A copy of the judgment reached by the Court shall be furnished to the Petitioner, Commission and all interested parties. Said judgment shall be a final and appealable order on the last date of service to all parties. (PR20-008, 7/18/03)

SECTION 5-207.3

ATTORNEY'S FEES, COSTS; PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

If, in all cases regarding a Petition or Cross Petition for Appeal filed pursuant to this Article G, after hearing said allegations the Court determines that said allegations were frivolous in nature, the Court may hold the Petitioner civilly liable in damages to the Commission and interested party(ies) for all damages sustained, including a reasonable attorney fee and all reasonable and proper costs of conducting such contests. (PR20-008, 7/18/03)

SECTION 5-207.4

The Appellant shall also provide copies to all interested parties. Any costs exceeding the two hundred fifty dollars ($250) shall be paid by the Appellant upon receipt of a bill from the District Court. If the costs are less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), all remaining funds shall be refunded to the Appellant. A transcript shall be prepared and sent by the District Court to all parties to the appeal as soon as possible.

B. The Jurisdiction of the Courts shall extend to all territory as defined in Article I of the Constitution and to all territory described as Indian Country within the meaning of Section 1151 of Title 18 of the United States Code over which the Chickasaw Nation has authority, including tribal or individual, trust, non-trust and restricted land, and including all land owned by Chickasaw agencies in their own name, all waters, minerals and wildlife, and any other such land or interest in land acquired by virtue of a Congressional Act, Executive Order, a declaration or regulation of the United States Department of Interior, a declaration or order of a court of competent jurisdiction, by purchase, gift, relinquishment, or by any other lawful means.

(PR27-007, 8/20/10)

NOTICE OF PENDENCY OF ACTION.

Upon the filing of a complaint in the Court, the action is pending so as to charge third persons with notice of its pendency. SECTION 5-209.4

NOTICE OF PENDENCY CONTINGENT UPON SERVICE.

Notice of the pendency of an action shall have no effect unless service of process is made upon respondent(s) within one hundred twenty (120) days after the filing of the petition.

No action pending in either state or federal court, or the court of any other Indian nation, shall constitute notice with respect to any Real Property or personal property located within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation until a notice of pendency of the action, identifying the case and the court in which it is pending and giving the legal description of the land affected or the description of the personal property and its location (if known) affected by the action, is filed of record in the office of the Clerk of the Court.

SECTION 5-209.6

PLEADINGS ALLOWED; FORM OF MOTIONS.

A. Pleadings. There shall be a complaint; an answer; a reply to a counterclaim; an answer to a cross-claim; a third-party complaint; and a third-party answer. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the Court may allow or order a reply to an answer or a third-party answer.

B. Motions and Other Papers.

1. An application to the Court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall:

- a. be made in writing;
- b. state with particularity the grounds therefor; and
- c. set forth the relief or order sought.

The requirement of a writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

2. The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleading apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

3. All motions shall be signed in accordance with this Act.

GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING.

A. Claims for Relief. A pleading which sets forth a Claim for relief, whether an original Claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party Claim, shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the Claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (2) a demand for Judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled. Relief may be demanded in the alternative or in several different types.

B. Defenses; Form of Denials. A party shall state in short and plain terms his defenses to each Claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. He may make his denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs, or he may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as he expressly admits. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, he shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. When he intends to controvert all averments in a pleading, including averments of the grounds upon which the Court's jurisdiction depends, if any, he may do so by general denial subject to the obligation set forth in this Act. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial.

C. Affirmative Defenses. In responding to a pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively each of the following defenses relied upon:

1. accord and satisfaction;
2. arbitration and award;
3. assumption of risk;
4. contributory negligence;
5. discharge in bankruptcy
6. duress;
7. estoppel;
8. failure of consideration;
9. fraud;
10. illegality;
11. injury by fellow servant;
12. laches;
13. license;
14. payment;
15. release;

16. res judicata;
17. statute of frauds;
18. statute of limitations;
19. waiver; and
20. any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense.

When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the Court, in its discretion that justice so requires, may treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

D. Effect of Failure to Deny. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

E. Pleading to be Concise and Direct; Consistency.

1. Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required.

2. A party may set forth and at a trial rely upon two (2) or more statements of a Claim or defense alternatively or hypothetically, either in a single count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two (2) or more statements are made in the alternative and one (1) of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one (1) or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate Claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal, equitable, or other grounds. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in this Act.

F. Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings shall be liberally construed so as to do substantial justice.

PLEADING SPECIAL MATTERS.

A. Capacity. It is not necessary to aver or assert the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party, except to the extent required to show the jurisdiction of the Court, if necessary. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, he shall do so by specific negative averment, which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge, and that party shall have the burden of proof on that issue.

B. Fraud, Mistake, Condition of the Mind. All averments of fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

C. Conditions Precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence of conditions precedent shall be made specifically and with particularity.

D. Official Document or Act. In pleading an official document or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law.

E. Judgment. In pleading a Judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the Judgment or decision without setting forth matters showing jurisdiction to render it.

F. Time and Place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

G. Special Damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated, but specific amounts need not be alleged in order to obtain Judgment in the amount to which the party is entitled.

SECTION 5-209.9

FORM OF PLEADINGS; MOTIONS; AND BRIEFS.

A. Caption; Names of Parties. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the Court, the title of the action, the file number, and a designation of the type of pleading in the terms expressed in this Act. In the complaint, the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties. In the initial third party complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, motion and petition in intervention or a pleading by a party suing or being sued in a representative capacity, appropriate designations of all affected parties shall be made and their names shall be stated. Thereafter, papers relating to such matters may contain only the name of the first party in each category with an appropriate indication of other parties.

B. Paragraphs; Separate Statements. All averments of Claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings, or motions, or briefs. Each Claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

C. Adoption by Reference; Exhibits. Statements in a pleading, or motion, or brief may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion or brief. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading, or a motion, or a brief is a part thereof for all purposes.

SECTION 5-209.10

SIGNING OF PLEADINGS.

Every pleading of a party represented by a licensed attorney or advocate shall be signed by at least one (1) attorney or advocate of record in his individual name, whose address and telephone number shall be stated. A party who is not represented by attorney or advocate shall sign his pleading and his address and telephone number. Except when otherwise specifically provided by rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The English and American common law rule in equity that the averments of an answer under oath must be overcome by the testimony of two (2) witnesses or of one (1) witness sustained by corroborating circumstances is not applicable in any court of the Chickasaw Nation. The signature of an attorney or advocate constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this Section it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a willful violation of this Section an attorney or advocate may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted.

SECTION 5-209.11

DEFENSE AND OBJECTIONS; WHEN AND HOW PRESENTED; BY PLEADINGS OR MOTIONS; MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS.

A. When Presented.

1. A defendant shall serve his answer within twenty (20) days after the service of summons and complaint upon him except when service is specially made by order of the court and a different time is prescribed in such order or under a statute of the Chickasaw Nation.

A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within twenty (20) days after the service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counterclaim in the answer within twenty (20) days after service of the answer, or, if a reply is ordered by the Court, within twenty (20) days after service of the order unless the order otherwise directs. The Chickasaw Nation or an officer or agency thereof shall serve an answer to the complaint or to a cross-claim, or a reply to a counterclaim, within sixty (60) days after the service upon the Chickasaw Nation of the pleading in which the Claim is asserted, provided that no default Judgment shall be entered against the Chickasaw Nation, and upon affidavit of the Governor of the Chickasaw Nation that the Chickasaw Nation has no attorney but that an attorney contract is pending approval, the Court shall allow the Chickasaw Nation to answer within twenty (20) days after the approval of the attorney contract or within sixty (60) days after service, whichever is later. The service of a motion permitted under this Section alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the Court: (1) if the Court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within ten (10) days after notice of the Court's action; (2) if the Court grants a motion for a more definite statement the responsive pleading shall be served within ten (10) days after the service of the more definite statement.

2. Within the time in which an answer may be served, a defendant may file any entry of appearance and reserve twenty (20) additional days to answer or otherwise defend. Any entry of appearance shall extend the time to respond twenty (20) days from the last date for answering and is a waiver of all defenses numbered 2, 3, 4, 5, and 9 of Subsection B below, provided, that a waiver of sovereign immunity shall not be implied under defense of Paragraph B.9 below since a defense based upon sovereign immunity is a defense to the subject matter jurisdiction of the Court and not a defense to the parties capacity to be sued.

B. How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a Claim for relief in any pleading, whether a Claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party Claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion:

Court and Procedures

1. lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter;
2. lack of jurisdiction over the person;
3. improper venue or forum non conveniens;
4. insufficiency of process;
5. insufficiency of service of process;
6. failure to state a Claim upon which relief can be granted;
7. failure to join a party;
8. another action pending between the same parties for the same Claim;
9. lack of capacity of a party to be sued; and
10. lack of capacity of a party to sue.

A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one (1) or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a Claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or in fact to that Claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered 6 to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a Claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary Judgment and disposed of as provided in Section 5-215.5, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Section 5-215.5. Every motion to dismiss shall be accompanied by a concise brief in support of that motion unless waived by order of the Court.

C. Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for Judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for Judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary Judgment and disposed of as provided in Section 5-215.5, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all materials made pertinent to such a motion by Section 5-215.5. Every motion for Judgment on the pleadings shall be accompanied by a concise brief in support of that motion unless waived by order of the Court.

D. Preliminary Hearings. The defenses specified in Paragraphs B.1 through 10 above, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for Judgment mentioned in Subsection C above shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the Court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

E. Motion for More Definite Statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, he may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defect complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the Court is not obeyed within ten (10) days after notice of the order or within such other time as the Court may fix, the Court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just. Such motions are not favored.

F. Motion to Strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by this Act, upon motion made by a party within twenty (20) days after the service of the pleading upon him or upon the Court's own initiative at any time, the Court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter. If, on a motion to strike an insufficient defense, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for partial summary Judgment and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all materials made pertinent to such a motion by the rules relating to summary Judgment.

G. Consolidation of Defenses in Motion. A party who makes a motion under this Section may join with it any other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this Section but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to him which this Section permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in Paragraph H.2 below on any of the grounds there stated. The Court may, in its discretion, permit a party to amend his motion by stating additional defenses or objections at any time prior to a decision on the motion.

H. Waiver or Preservation of Certain Defenses.

1. A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, improper venue or forum non conveniens, insufficiency of process, insufficiency of service of process or lack of capacity of a party to sue is waived a) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in Subsection G above; b) if it is neither made by motion under this Section nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by Subsection 5-209.17.A, to be made as a matter of course; or c) if a permissive counterclaim is filed pursuant to Subsection 5-209.13.B.

2. A defense of failure to state a Claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable, an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a Claim, and a defense of another action pending may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under this Act, or by motion for Judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.

3. Whenever it is determined, upon suggestion of the parties or otherwise, that the Court lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter, the Court shall dismiss the action.

SECTION 5-209.12

FINAL DISMISSAL ON FAILURE TO AMEND.

Before granting a motion to dismiss, the Court may grant leave to amend a defective pleading if the defect can be remedied. If the Court grants leave to amend, it shall, by order, specify the time within which an amended pleading may be filed. If an amended pleading is not filed within the time allowed, final Judgment of dismissal with prejudice shall be entered on motion except in cases of excusable neglect. In cases of excusable neglect, amendment may be made by the party in default within a time specified by the Court for filing such amended pleading. A plaintiff may voluntarily dismiss the action without prejudice within the time allowed by the Court for filing an amended pleading.

SECTION 5-209.13

COUNTER-CLAIM AND CROSS-CLAIM.

A. Compulsory Counterclaims. A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any Claim, which at the time of serving the pleading, the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's Claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties over whom the Court cannot acquire jurisdiction. But the pleader need not state the Claim if: (1) at the time the action was commenced the Claim was the subject of another pending action; or (2) the opposing party brought suit upon his Claim by attachment or other process by which the Court did not acquire jurisdiction to render a personal Judgment on that Claim and the pleader is not stating any other counterclaim under this Section. A party pleading a compulsory counterclaim does not thereby waive any defenses the pleader may have which are otherwise properly raised.

B. Permissive Counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any Claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's Claim.

C. Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may Claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

D. Counterclaim Against the Chickasaw Nation. This Act shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert counterclaims or to claim credits against the Chickasaw Nation or an officer or agency thereof. A compulsory counterclaim does not waive the defense of sovereign immunity when made by the Chickasaw Nation or an officer or an agency thereof. A permissive counterclaim waives the defense of sovereign immunity for the purpose of determining the permissive counterclaim stated by the Chickasaw Nation, its officer, or agency, but does not waive such defense for any other purpose.

E. Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired after Pleading. A Claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the Court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

F. Omitted Counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment, except that when such amendment is served within the time otherwise allowed for amendment without leave of the Court, he may set up such counterclaim by amendment without leave of the Court.

G. Cross-claim against Co-party. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any Claim by one (1) party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a Claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a

Claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

H. Joinder of Additional Parties. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with this Act and Chickasaw law regarding service of notice.

I. Separate Trials; Separate Judgments. If the Court orders separate trials, Judgment on a counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party Claim may be rendered when the Court has jurisdiction to do so, even if the Claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

SECTION 5-209.14 COUNTER-CLAIM; EFFECT OF THE STATUTES OF LIMITATION.

A. Where a counterclaim and the Claim of the opposing party arise out of the same transaction or occurrence, the counterclaim shall not be barred by a statute of limitation notwithstanding that it was barred at the time the petition was filed, and the counterclaimant shall not be precluded from recovering an affirmative Judgment.

B. Where a counterclaim and the Claim of the opposing party:

1. do not arise out of the same transaction or occurrence;
2. both Claims are for money Judgments;
3. both Claims had accrued before either was barred by a statute of limitation; and
4. the counterclaim is barred by a statute of limitation at the time that it is asserted, whether in an answer or an amended answer; then the counterclaim may be asserted only to reduce the opposing party's Claim.

C. Where a counterclaim was barred by a statute of limitation before the Claim of the opposing party arose, the barred counterclaim cannot be used for any purpose.

SECTION 5-209.15 COUNTERCLAIM AGAINST ASSIGNED CLAIMS.

A party, other than a holder in due course, who acquired a Claim by assignment or otherwise, takes the Claim subject to any defenses or counterclaims that could have been asserted against the person from whom he acquired the Claim, but the recovery on a counterclaim may be asserted against the assignee only to reduce the recovery of the opposing party.

SECTION 5-209.16

THIRD-PARTY PRACTICE.

A. When Defendant may bring in Third-party. At any time after commencement of the action a defending party, as a third-party plaintiff, may cause a summons and complaint to be served upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's Claim against him, or who is or may be liable to him on a Claim arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of any one (1) or more of the Claim(s) being asserted against him. The third-party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make the service if he files the third-party complaint not later than ten (10) days after he serves his original answer. Otherwise, he must obtain leave on motion upon notice to all parties to the action. The person served with the summons and third-party complaint, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third-party plaintiff's Claim and his counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's Claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any Claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's Claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any Claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's Claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses and his counterclaims and cross-claims. A third-party defendant may proceed under this Section against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the Claim made in the action against the third-party defendant. Any party may move to strike the third-party Claim, or for its severance or separate trial.

B. When Plaintiff may bring in Third-Party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third-party to be brought in under circumstances which under this Section would entitle a defendant to do so.

C. Party Defendants in Real Property Actions. In an action involving Real Property, any person appearing in any manner in the title thereto, or claiming or appearing to claim some interest in the Real Property involved, may be included as a party defendant by naming such person as a party defendant in the caption of the complaint; and when such person is made a defendant in the body of the complaint under the appellation of substantially the following words, "said defendant named herein claims some right, title, lien, estate, encumbrance, Claim, assessment, or interest in and to the Real Property involved herein, adverse to plaintiff which constitutes a cloud upon the title of plaintiff", it not being necessary to set out the reason for such Claim or Claims in the complaint or other pleading for such person being made a party defendant.

SECTION 5-209.17

AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS.

A. Amendments. A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at a time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, he may so amend it at any time within twenty (20) days after it is served, including amendments to add omitted counterclaims or cross-claims or to add or drop parties. Otherwise a party may amend his pleading only by leave of the Court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within ten (10) days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the Court otherwise orders.

B. Amendments to Conform to the Evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after Judgment; but failure to so amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the Court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the Court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The Court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence. Where the pretrial conference order has superseded the pleadings, the pre-trial order is controlling and it is sufficient to amend the order and the pleadings need not be amended.

C. Relation Back of Amendments. Whenever the Claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a Claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against him, the party to be brought in by amendment: (1) has received such notice of the institution of the action and will not be prejudiced in maintaining his defense on the merits; and (2) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against him.

The delivery or mailing of process to the Governor, his designee, the prosecutor of the Chickasaw Nation or an agency or officer thereof who would have been a proper defendant if named, satisfies the requirement of clauses (1) and (2) above with respect to the Chickasaw Nation or any agency or officer thereof to be brought into the action as a defendant.

D. Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party the Court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. Permission may be granted even though the original pleading is defective in its statement of a Claim for relief or defense. If the Court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead to the supplemental pleading, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor. A supplemental pleading will relate back to the original pleading if it arises out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth in the original pleading.

SECTION 5-209.18

PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURE; FORMULATING ISSUES.

A. In any action, the Court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:

1. the simplification of the issues;
2. the necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
3. the possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
4. the limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
5. the advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a Master for findings to be used as evidence when the trial is to be by jury (the appointment and duties of a master are described in Section 5-213.30);
6. such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

B. The Court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. The Court in its discretion may establish by court rule a pre-trial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided and may either confine the calendar to jury actions or to non-jury actions or extend it to all actions.

SECTION 5-209.19 LOST PLEADINGS.

If a pleading is lost or withheld by any person, the Court may allow a copy thereof to be substituted.

SECTION 5-209.20 TENDERS OF MONEY OR PROPERTY.

When a tender of money or property is alleged in any pleading, it shall not be necessary to deposit the money or property in Court when the pleading is filed, but it shall be sufficient if the money or property is deposited in Court at trial, or when ordered by the Court.

SECTION 5-209.21 DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS.

A. Voluntary Dismissal: Effect Thereof.

1. By Plaintiff: By Stipulation. An action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of the Court:

a. by filing a notice of dismissal at any time before service by adverse party of an answer or of a motion of summary Judgment, whichever first occurs, or

b. by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal without the consent of the defendants operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once voluntarily dismissed, without the consent of the defendants, in any Court of any Indian tribe, the United States, or any state an action based on or including the same Claim, unless such previous dismissal was entered due to inability to obtain personal jurisdiction over an indispensable party or lack of subject matter jurisdiction in the Court in which the case was previously filed. If the plaintiff claims either or both of these exceptions, it shall so state in its notice of dismissal and shall apply to the Court, upon notice to all adverse parties for an order determining that the previous dismissal was within one (1) or both of the two (2) stated exceptions and that the plaintiff is entitled to dismiss the current action without prejudice. The Court may grant such application in its discretion and allow the plaintiff to dismiss without prejudice on such terms as are just, due regard being had for costs, attorney fees, and inconvenience of the defendants, and any apparent motive to harass, embarrass, or delay the defendants.

2. By order of the Court. Except as provided in Paragraph 1 above, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the Court and upon such terms and conditions as the Court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon him of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the Court. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this Paragraph 2 is without prejudice.

B. Involuntary Dismissal: Effect Thereof. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with this Act, a Court rule, or any order of the Court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any Claim against him. After the plaintiff, in an action tried by the Court without a jury, has completed the presentation of his evidence, the defendant, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The Court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render Judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any Judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the Court renders Judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the Court shall make findings as provided in Subsection 5-213.31.A. Unless the Court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this Subsection B for lack of jurisdiction, or for failure to join a party, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

C. Dismissal of Counterclaim, Cross-claim, or Third-party Claim. The provisions of this Section apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party Claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to Paragraph A.1 above shall be made before a responsive pleading is served or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing.

Section 5-210.3	Joinder of Persons Needed for Just Adjudication.
Section 5-210.4	Permissive Joinder of Parties.
Section 5-210.5	Misjoinder and Non-joinder of Parties.
Section 5-210.6	Interpleader.
Section 5-210.7	Class Actions.
Section 5-210.8	Intervention.
Section 5-210.9	Substitution of Parties.

SECTION 5-210.1 PARTIES, PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT; CAPACITY.

A. Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought; and when a statute of the Chickasaw Nation so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the Chickasaw Nation.

No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

B. Capacity to Sue or be Sued. Except as otherwise provided by law, every person, corporation, partnership, or incorporated association shall have the capacity to sue or be sued in its own name in the Courts of the Chickasaw Nation, and service may be had upon unincorporated associations and partnerships by providing service upon a managing or general partner, or upon an officer of an unincorporated association, in accordance with Chickasaw law.

C. Infants or Incompetent Persons. Whenever an Infant or Incompetent Person has a representative, such as a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other like fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the Infant or Incompetent Person. If an Infant or Incompetent Person does not have a duly appointed representative he may sue by his next friend or by a guardian ad litem. The Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for an Infant or Incompetent Person not otherwise represented in an action or shall make such other order as it deems proper for the protection of the Infant or Incompetent Person.

D. Assignment of Tort Claims Prohibited. Claims arising in tort may not be assigned and must be brought by the injured party, provided, that this Subsection D shall not preclude subrogation of the proceeds of such tort Claims for the benefit of any person, including insurance companies, who have compensated the injured party for their injuries, including property damage, to the extent of the payment made by the third party.

E. Definitions. For the purposes of this Section, the term "Infant" means and includes every natural person less than eighteen (18) years of age not declared emancipated from his parent or guardian by order of a Court of competent jurisdiction; and the term "Incompetent Person" means and includes every natural person who has been legally declared incompetent by a Court of competent jurisdiction by reason of mental incapacity, habitual or addictive abuse of alcohol or other drugs, or other cause as provided by law.

JOINDER OF CLAIMS, REMEDIES, AND ACTIONS.

A. Joinder of Claims. A party asserting a Claim to relief as an original Claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party Claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate Claims, as many Claims, legal or equitable as he may have against an opposing party.

B. Joinder of Remedies; Fraudulent Conveyances. Whenever a Claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another Claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two (2) Claims may be joined in a single action; but the Court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a Claim for money and a Claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to him, without first having obtained a Judgment establishing the Claim for money.

C. Joinder of Actions by the Court. Whenever it appears to the Court that separate actions are pending between the same parties, or involving the same facts or law, the Court may, if the parties will not be prejudiced thereby, order said actions joined for all, or a portion of, the further proceedings.

SECTION 5-210.3

JOINDER OF PERSONS NEEDED FOR JUST ADJUDICATION.

A. Persons to be Joined if Feasible. A person who is subject to service of process and whose joinder will not deprive the Court of jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action shall be joined as a party in the action if:

1. In his absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties; or
2. He claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in his absence may:
 - a. as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest, or
 - b. leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of his claimed interest.

If he has not been joined, the Court shall order that he be made a party. If he should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant, or in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff.

B. Determination by Court Whenever Joinder is not Feasible. If a person as described in Paragraphs A.1 and 2 above cannot be made a party, the Court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the Court in making such determination include:

1. to what extent a Judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to him or those already parties;
2. the extent to which, by protective provisions in the Judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided;
3. whether a Judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; and
4. whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for non-joinder.

Court and Procedures

C. Pleading Reasons for Non-Joinder. A pleading asserting a Claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons as described in Paragraphs A. 1 and 2 above, who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

D. Exception of Class Actions. This Section is subject to the provisions of Section 5-210.7.

PERMISSIVE JOINDER OF PARTIES.

A. Permissive Joinder.

1. All persons may join in one (1) action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative, in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, or if any question or fact common to all these persons will arise in the action, or if the Claims are connected with the subject matter of the action.

2. All persons may be joined in one (1) action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, or if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action, or if the Claims are connected with the subject matter of the action.

3. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one (1) or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one (1) or more defendants according to respective liabilities.

4. In actions to quiet title or actions to enforce mortgages or other liens upon property, persons who assert an interest in the property that is the subject of the action may be joined although their interest does not arise from the same transaction or occurrence.

B. Separate Trials. The Court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no Claim, or who asserts no Claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

SECTION 5-210.5

MISJOINDER AND NON-JOINDER OF PARTIES.

Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the Court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Leave of the Court shall not be required when the pleader amends his pleadings within the time period for amendment of pleadings without leave of the Court. Any Claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately upon order of the Court.

SECTION 5-210.6

INTERPLEADER.

A. Persons having Claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their Claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the Claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their Claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this Section supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted in Section 5-210.4.

B. The provisions of this Section shall be applicable to actions brought against a law enforcement officer or other officer for the recovery of personal property taken by him under execution or for the proceeds of such property so taken and sold by him; and the defendant in such action shall be entitled to the benefit of this Section against the party in whose favor the execution issued.

C. The Court may make an order for the safekeeping of the subject of the action or for its payment or delivery into the Court or to such person as the Court may direct, and the Court may order the person who is seeking relief by way of interpleader to give a bond, payable to the Clerk of the Court, in such amount and with such surety as the Court may deem proper, conditioned upon the compliance with the future order or Judgment of the Court with respect to the subject matter of the controversy. Where the party seeking relief by way of interpleader claims no interest in the subject of the action and the subject of the action has been deposited with the Court or with a person designated by the Court, the Court should discharge him from the action and from liability as to the Claims of the other parties to the action with costs and, in the discretion of the Court, a reasonable attorney fee.

D. In cases of interpleader, costs may be adjudged for or against any party, except as provided in Subsection C above.

SECTION 5-210.7 CLASS ACTIONS.

A. Prerequisites to a Class Action. One (1) or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if:

1. The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;
2. There are questions of law or fact common to the class;
3. The Claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the Claims or defenses of the class; and
4. The representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

B. Class Actions Maintainable. An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of subsection A, are satisfied, and in addition:

1. The prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - a. inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class; or
 - b. adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; or
2. The party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or
3. The Court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include: a) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling prosecution or defense of separate actions; b) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class; c) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the Claims in the particular forum; and d) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

C. Determination by Order Whether Class Action to be Maintained; Notice; Judgment; Actions Conducted Partially as Class Actions.

1. As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the Court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this Paragraph 1 may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.

2. In any class action maintained under Paragraph B.3 above, the Court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that:

- a. the Court will exclude him from the class if he so requests by a specified date;
- b. the Judgment whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and
- c. any member who does not request exclusion may, if he desires, enter an appearance through his counsel.

3. The Judgment in an action maintained as a class action under Paragraphs B.1 or 2 above, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the Court finds to be members of the class. The Judgment in an action maintained as a class action under Paragraph B.3 above, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in Paragraph C.2 above was directed and who have not requested exclusion and whom the Court finds to be members of the class.

4. When appropriate:

a. an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues; or

b. a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this Section shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

5. Where the class contains more than five hundred (500) members who can be identified through reasonable effort, it shall not be necessary to direct individual notice to more than five hundred (500) members, but the members to whom individual notice is not directed shall be given notice in such manner as the Court shall direct which may include publishing notice in newspapers, magazines, trade journals or other publications, posting it in appropriate places and taking other steps that are reasonably calculated to bring the notice to the attention of such members, provided that the cost of giving such notice shall be reasonable in view of the amounts that may be recovered by the class members who are being notified. Members to whom individual notice was not directed may request exclusion from the class at anytime before the issue of liability is determined, and commencing an individual action before the issue of liability is determined shall be the equivalent of requesting exclusion from the class.

D. Orders in Conduct of Actions. In the conduct of actions to which this Section applies, the Court may make appropriate orders:

1. determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;

2. requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the Court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the Judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present Claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;

3. imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors;

4. requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representations of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly; and

Court and Procedures

5. dealing with similar procedural matters.

The orders may be combined with other orders and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.

E. Dismissal or Compromise. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the Court and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in both such manner as the Court directs.

SECTION 5-210.8 INTERVENTION.

A. Intervention of Right. Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action:

1. when a statute of the Chickasaw Nation confers an unconditional right to intervene; or
2. when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and he is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.

B. Permissive Intervention. Upon timely application anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action when an applicant's Claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies, as grounds of Claim or defense, upon any statute or executive order administered by a Chickasaw Nation, federal or state governmental officer or agency, that officer or agency may, upon timely application, be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion the Court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

C. Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon the parties. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the Claim or defense for which intervention is sought. If the motion to intervene is granted, all other parties may serve a responsive pleading upon leave of the Court.

D. Intervention by the Chickasaw Nation. In any action, suit, or proceeding to which the Chickasaw Nation or any agency, officer, or employee thereof is not a party in their official capacity, wherein the constitutionality or enforceability of any statute of the Chickasaw

Court and Procedures

Nation affecting the public interest is drawn in question, the parties, and upon their failure to do so, the Court shall certify such fact to the Governor of the Chickasaw Nation, the prosecutor, and Chickasaw Tribal Legislature and the Court shall permit the Chickasaw Nation to intervene for presentation of evidence, if the evidence is otherwise admissible in the case, and for argument on the question of constitutionality or enforceability of the Chickasaw Nation laws at issue. It shall be the duty of the party raising such issue to promptly give notice thereof to the Court either orally upon the record in open Court and served upon all parties, and to state in said notice when and how notice of the pending question will be or has been certified to the Chickasaw Nation as provided above.

SECTION 5-210.9

SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES.

A. Death.

1. If a party dies, the Court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by any party or by the successors or representatives of the deceased party, and together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties and upon persons not parties in the manner provided for the service of a summons, and may be served within or without the Chickasaw Nation Jurisdiction. Unless the motion for substitution is made not later than ninety (90) days after the death is suggested upon the record, the action shall be dismissed as to the deceased party.

2. In the event of the death of one (1) or more of the plaintiffs or of one (1) or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

3. Actions for libel, slander, and malicious prosecution shall abate at the death of the defendant.

4. Other actions, including actions for wrongful death shall survive the death of a party.

B. Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the Court upon motion served as provided in Subsection A above may allow the action to be continued by or against his representative.

C. Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the Court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in Subsection A above.

D. Public Officers; Death or Separation from Office.

1. When a public officer is a party to an action in his official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and his successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.

2. When a public officer sues or is sued in his official capacity he may be described as a party by his official title rather than by name but the Court may require his name to be added.

SECTION 5-211.1 GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISCOVERY.

A. Discovery Methods. Parties may obtain discovery by one (1) or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission. Unless the Court orders otherwise under Subsection C below, the frequency of use of these methods is not limited. Discovery may be obtained as provided herein in aid of execution upon a Judgment.

B. Scope of Discovery. Unless otherwise limited by order of the Court in accordance with this Chapter, the scope of discovery is as follows:

1. In General. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the Claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the Claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

2. Insurance Agreements. A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a Judgment, which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the Judgment. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this Paragraph 2, an application for insurance shall not be treated as part of an insurance agreement.

3. Trial preparation; Materials. Subject to the provisions of Paragraph B.4 below, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under Paragraph B.1 above and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative (including his attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of his case and that he is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the Court shall protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation.

A party may obtain, without the required showing, a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain, without the required showing, a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a court order. For purposes of this Subsection B, a statement previously made is: a) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it; or b) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

4. Trial Preparation; Experts. Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of Paragraph B.1 above and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:

- a. Identity of Expert Witnesses, Subject matter; Further Discovery:

Court and Procedures

I. Through interrogatories, a party may require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion.

ii. Upon motion, the Court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to Subparagraph B.4.c below concerning fees and expenses as the Court may deem appropriate.

b. A party may discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial and who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial or upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.

c. Unless manifest injustice would result:

I. the court shall require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under Part B.4.ii and Subparagraph B.4.b above; and

ii. with respect to discovery obtained under Part B.4.a.ii above, the Court may require, and with respect to discovery obtained under Subparagraph B.4.b above the Court shall require, the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.

C. Protective Orders. Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause shown, the Court may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one (1) or more of the following:

1. that the discovery not be had;
2. that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and condition, including a designation of the time or place;
3. that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery;
4. that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters;
5. that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the Court;
6. that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the Court;
7. that a trade secret or other confidential research development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way; and
8. that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the Court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the Court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of Section 5-211.12 apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

D. Sequence and Timing of Discovery. Unless the Court, upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party's discovery.

E. Supplementation of Responses. A party who has responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement his response to include information thereafter acquired, except as follows:

1. A party is under a duty reasonably to supplement his response with respect to any question directly addressed to:

Court and Procedures

- a. the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters; and
- b. the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on which he is expected to testify, and the substance of his testimony.

2. A party is under a duty reasonably to amend a prior response if he obtains information upon the basis of which:

- a. he knows that the response was incorrect when made; or
- b. he knows that the response though correct when made is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is in substance a knowing concealment.

3. A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the Court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial through new requests for supplementation of prior responses.

SECTION 5-211.2

DEPOSITIONS BEFORE ACTION OR PENDING APPEAL.

A. Before Action.

1. Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter that may be cognizable in court may file a verified petition in the Court if the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation is the residence of any expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show:

- a. that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action cognizable in the Court but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought;
- b. the subject matter of the expected action and his interest therein;
- c. the facts which he desires to establish by the proposed testimony and his reasons for desiring to perpetuate it;

d. the names or description of the persons he expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known; and

e. the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the depositions of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.

2. Notice and Service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the Court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least twenty (20) days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served either within or without the Chickasaw Nation Jurisdiction in the manner provided for service of summons. If personal service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the Court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint an attorney or advocate who shall represent them, and, in case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent the provisions of Subsection 5-210.1.C apply. Any attorney appointed pursuant to this Section shall be compensated as provided by the Court from the Court fund, such compensation to be taxed as costs against the person perpetuating the testimony.

3. Order and Examination. If the court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories.

4. Use of Deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under this Chapter or if, although not so taken, it would be admissible in evidence in the Courts of the jurisdiction in which it is taken, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in the Court.

B. Pending Appeal. If an appeal has been taken from a Judgment of the Court or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefore has not expired, the Court may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the Court. In such case, the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the Court for leave to take the depositions upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the Court. The motion shall show: 1) the names and addresses of persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to illicit from each, and 2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the Court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these sections for depositions taken in actions pending in the Court.

C. Perpetuation by Action. This Section does not limit the power of a Court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony.

PERSONS BEFORE WHOM DEPOSITIONS MAY BE TAKEN.

A. Within the Chickasaw Nation Jurisdiction. Within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation, depositions shall be taken before a person appointed by the Court. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony.

B. Outside the Chickasaw Nation Jurisdiction. Outside the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation, depositions may be taken: 1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States; 2) before a person commissioned by the Court, such person to have the power by virtue of his commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony, or 3) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or a letter rogatory shall be issued on application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; an commission and/or a letter rogatory may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. Evidence obtained in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation under this Act.

C. Disqualification for Interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative, employee, attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

SECTION 5-211.4

STIPULATIONS REGARDING DISCOVERY PROCEDURE.

Unless the Court orders otherwise, the parties may by written stipulation 1) provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions, and 2) modify the procedures provided by this Act for other methods of discovery, except that stipulations extending the time provided for responses to discovery may be made only with the approval of the Court.

SECTION 5-211.5

DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION.

A. When Depositions May Be Taken. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition prior to the expiration of thirty (30) days after service of the summons and complaint upon any defendant or service made by publication, except that leave is not required 1) if a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition or otherwise sought discovery, or 2) if special notice is given as provided in Paragraph B.2 below. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the Court prescribes.

B. Notice of Examination: General Requirements; Special Notice; Non-Stenographic Recording; Production of Documents and Things; Deposition of Organization.

1. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to or included in the notice.

2. Leave of court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff if the notice a) states that the person to be examined is about to go out of the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation, or is about to go out of the United States, or is bound on a voyage to sea, and will be unavailable for examination unless his deposition is taken before expiration of the thirty (30) day period; and b) sets forth facts to support the statement.

Court and Procedures

The plaintiff's attorney shall sign the notice, and his signature constitutes a certification by him that, to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief, the statement and supporting facts are true. The sanctions provided by Section 5-211.12 are applicable to the certification.

If a party shows that when he was served with notice under this Paragraph B.2 he was unable through the exercise of due diligence to obtain counsel to represent him at the taking of the deposition, the deposition may not be used against him.

3. The Court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time for taking the deposition.

4. The Court may upon motion order that the testimony at a deposition be recorded by other than stenographic means, in which event the order shall designate the manner of recording, preserving, and filing the deposition, and may include other provisions to assure that the recorded testimony will be accurate and trustworthy. If the order is made, a party may nevertheless arrange to have a stenographic transcription made at his own expense.

5. The notice to a party deponent may be accompanied by a request for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedures provided by Section 5-211.9 shall apply to the request.

6. A party may, in his notice and in a subpoena, name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the organization so named shall designate one (1) or more officers, directors or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated the matters on which he will testify. A subpoena shall advise a non-party organization of its duty to make such a designation. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This Paragraph B.6 does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in this Act.

C. Examination and Cross-Examination; Record of Examination; Oath; Objections. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of the Chickasaw Nation Rules of Evidence. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under this direction in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered in accordance with Paragraph B.4 above. If requested by one (1) of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed.

All objections made at time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and he shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

D. Appointment of Officer; Motion to Terminate or Limit Examination.

1. The Court may appoint an officer to conduct depositions. Such officer shall only have the duties, responsibilities and powers granted to him in this Subsection D and by the Court specifically in the appointment.

2. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in an unreasonable manner to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the Court or the Court in the jurisdiction where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition. If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the Court. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of Paragraph 5-211.12 apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

E. Submission to Witness; Changes; Signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed, the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for the change. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within thirty (30) days of its submission to him, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefore; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed unless, on a motion to suppress, the Court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

F. Certification and Filing by Officer; Exhibits; Copies; Notice of Filing.

1. The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of [here insert name of witness]" and shall promptly file it with the Court.

Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to and returned with the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party, except that a) the persons producing the materials may substitute copies to be marked for identification, if he affords to all parties fair opportunity to verify the copies by comparison with the originals; and b) if the person producing the materials requests their return, the officer shall mark them, give each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, and return them to the person producing them, and the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to and returned with the deposition. Any party may move for an order that the original be annexed to and returned with the deposition to the court, pending final disposition of the case.

2. Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent. The court may, by rule or order, establish the maximum charges which are reasonable for such services.

3. The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.

G. Failure to Attend or to Serve Subpoena; Expenses.

1. If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

2. If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon him and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because he expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

SECTION 5-211.6

DEPOSITIONS UPON WRITTEN QUESTIONS.

A. Serving Questions; Notice. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon written questions. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by Leave of court on such terms as the Court prescribes.

A party desiring to take a deposition upon written questions shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating 1) the name and address of the person who is to answer them, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs; and 2) the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. A deposition upon written questions may be taken of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 5-211.5.B.6.

Within thirty (30) days after the notice and written questions are served, a party may serve cross questions upon all other parties. Within ten (10) days after being served with cross questions, a party may serve redirect questions upon all other parties. Within ten (10) days after being served with redirect questions, a party may serve re-cross questions upon all other parties. The Court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

B. Officer to Take Responses and Prepare Record. A copy of the notice and copies of all questions served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly to take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the questions received by him.

C. Notice of Filing. When the deposition is filed the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

USE OF DEPOSITIONS IN COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Court and Procedures

A. Use of Depositions. At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the Rules of Evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice, thereof, in accordance with any of the following provisions:

1. Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.
2. The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, or managing agent, or a person designated under Paragraph 5-211.5.B.6 or Subsection 5-211.6.A to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.
3. The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used against any party for any purpose if the Court finds a) that the witness is dead; or b) that the witness is outside the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation and cannot be served with a subpoena to testify at trial while within the Chickasaw Nation Jurisdiction, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or c) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or d) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of a witness by subpoena; or e) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court to allow the deposition to be used.
4. If only part of the deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts, subject to the Chickasaw Nation Rules of Evidence.

Substitution of parties pursuant to Section 5-210.9 does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken and, when an action in any court of any Indian tribe, the United States, or of any state has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest in the Court, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefore.

B. Objections to Admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Subsection 5-211.3.B and Paragraph C.3 below, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reasons which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

C. Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions.

1. As to Notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

2. As to Disqualification of Officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of the disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken, is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

3. As to Taking of Deposition.

a. Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition unless the ground of the objection is one (1) which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

b. Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

c. Objections to the form of written questions submitted under Section 5-211.6 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other questions and within five (5) days after service of the last questions authorized.

4. As to Completion and Return of Deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Sections 5-211.5 and 5-211.6 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been ascertained.

INTERROGATORIES TO PARTIES.

A. Availability; Procedures for Use. Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. In the answers, the full text of the interrogatory shall immediately precede the answer to that interrogatory. The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them. The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers, and objections if any, within thirty (30) days after the service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within forty five (45) days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The Court may allow a shorter or longer time. The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under Subsection 5-211.12.A with respect to an objection to or other failure to answer an interrogatory.

B. Scope; Use at Trial. Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Subsection 5-211.10.B, and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the Chickasaw Nation Rules of Evidence. An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the Court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pre-trial conference or other later time.

C. Option to Produce Business Records. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, or from a compilation, abstract or summary based thereon, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit, or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries.

PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS AND ENTRY UPON LAND FOR INSPECTION AND OTHER PURPOSES.

A. Scope. Any party may serve on any other party a request 1) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on his behalf, to inspect and copy designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phone-records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonably usable form) or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things allowed under this Act which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or 2) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Subsection B below.

B. Procedure. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts.

The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within thirty (30) days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within forty five (45) days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The Court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. The party submitting the request may move for an order under Subsection 5-211.12.A with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested.

C. Persons Not Parties. This Section does not preclude an independent action against a person not a party for production of documents and things and permission to enter upon land.

SECTION 5-211.10

PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EXAMINATION OF PERSONS.

A. Order for Examination. When the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the Court may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician or to produce for examination the person in his custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the item, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

B. Report of Examining Physician.

1. If requested by the party against whom an order is made under Subsection A above or the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his findings, including results of all tests made, diagnoses and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After delivery the party causing the examination shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party against whom the order is made a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same condition, unless, in the case of a report or examination of a person not a party, the party shows that he is unable to obtain it. The Court on motion may make an order against a party requiring delivery of a report of such terms as are just, and if a physician fails or refuses to make a report the court may exclude his testimony if offered at the trial.

2. By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege he may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him in respect of the same mental or physical condition.

3. This Subsection B applies to examinations made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise. This Subsection B does not preclude discovery of a report of an examining physician or the taking of a deposition of the physician in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

SECTION 5-211.11

REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION.

A. Request for Admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope this Article K set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within thirty (30) days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the Court may allow, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by his attorney, but, unless the Court shortens the time, a defendant shall not be required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of forty five (45) days after service of the summons and complaint upon him. If objection is made, the reasons therefore shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit to deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify his answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, he shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless he states that he has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by him is insufficient to enable him to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter on which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; he may, subject to the provisions of Subsection 5-211.12.C, deny the matter or set forth reasons why he cannot admit or deny it.

The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the Court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the Court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this Section, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The Court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pre-trial conference or at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of Paragraph 5-211.12.A.4 apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

B. Effect of Admission. Any matter admitted under this Section is conclusively established unless the Court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. The Court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subverted thereby and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the Court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense on the merits. An admission made by a party under this Section is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission by him for any other purpose nor may it be used against him in any other proceeding.

SECTION 5-211.12

FAILURE TO MAKE DISCOVERY: SANCTIONS.

A. Motion for Order Compelling Discovery. A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:

1. An application for an order to a party or to a deponent who is not a party may be made to the Court.
2. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Sections 5-211.5 or 5-211.6, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under Paragraph 5-211.5.B.6 or Subsection 5-211.6.A, or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Section 5-211.8, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under Section 5-211.9 fails, to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before he applies for an order.
3. If the Court denies the motion in whole or in part, it may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion made pursuant to Subsection 5-211.1.C.
4. For purposes of this Subsection A, an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.
5. If the motion is granted, the Court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

6. If the motion is denied, the Court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances made an award of expenses unjust.

7. If the motion is granted in part or denied in part, the Court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in just manner.

B. Failure to Comply with Order.

1. If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the Court, the failure may be considered a contempt of court. Sanctions imposed in such matters shall be promptly enforced.

2. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Paragraph 5-211.5.B.6, or Subsection 5-211.6.A to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under Subsection A above or Section 5-211.10, the Court may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the following:

a. an order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be regarded as being established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the Claim of the party obtaining the order;

b. an order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting him from introducing designated matters in evidence;

c. an order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a Judgment by default against the disobedient party;

d. in lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination;

e. where a party has failed to comply with an order under Subsection 5-211.10.A requiring him to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in Subparagraphs a, b and c above, unless the party failing to comply shows that his is unable to produce such person for examination.

In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to obey the order, the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

C. Expenses on Failure to Admit. If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under Section 5-211.11, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, he may apply to the Court for an order requiring the other party to pay him the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The Court shall make the order unless it finds that 1) the request was held objectionable pursuant to Subsection 5-211.11.A; or 2) the admission sought was of no substantial importance; or 3) the party failing to admit has reasonable ground to believe that he might prevail on the matter; or 4) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

D. Failure of Party to Attend at Own Deposition or Serve Answers to Interrogatories or Respond to Request for Inspection. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Paragraph 5-211.5.B.6, or Subsection 5-211.6.A to testify on behalf of a party fails 1) to appear before the officer who is to take his deposition, after being served with a proper notice; 2) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under Section 5-211.8, after proper service of the interrogatories; or 3) to serve a written response to a request for inspection submitted under Section 5-211.9, after proper service of the request, the Court on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may take any action authorized under Subparagraphs a, b and c of Paragraph B. 2 above. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

The failure to act described in this Subsection D may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by Subsection 5-211.1. C.

A. On the first Monday in November of each year, or as soon thereafter as may be, and, at any time upon the order of the District Court or the Supreme Court, the Court Clerk or one (1) of his deputies, a District Court Judge and a Supreme Court Justice shall meet and select from lists as described in Subsection B below a jury pool consisting of all qualified prospective jurors for the ensuing calendar year in the manner provided in this Article L.

B. For the purpose of ascertaining the names of all persons qualified for the jury pool, it shall be the duty of the following tribal employees to provide the following lists of qualified prospective jurors to the Court Clerk on or before September 30 of each year:

1. The office of tribal registration shall supply a list of all enrolled Chickasaw Nation members over eighteen (18) years of age who are residents within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation.

Court and Procedures

2. For the purpose of jury trial involving exercise of Special Tribal Criminal Jurisdiction under Chapter 4 of this Title, the Court Clerk shall supply a list of all persons over eighteen (18) years of age, irrespective of Chickasaw Nation citizenship, who have voluntarily registered as prospective jurors.
(PR39-013, 09/20/2022)

3. For the purpose of jury trial involving exercise of Special Tribal Criminal Jurisdiction under Chapter 4 of this Title, the office of human resources shall supply a list of all employees over eighteen (18) years of age, irrespective of Chickasaw Nation citizenship, who reside within the territorial boundaries of the Chickasaw Nation.
(PR39-013, 09/20/2022)

4. The Court Clerk shall maintain a list of qualified jurors as described in Section 5-212.11(A).
(PR38-014, 02/22/2021)

C. Each such list shall contain, insofar as is known, the date of birth or age, name, and actual place of residence of each person on the list.

D. It shall be the duty of the Court Clerk to maintain the jury pool at all times.

SECTION 5-212.2 SELECTION DRUM.

A. On an annual basis, the Court Clerk shall write or cause to be written or typed the names of all persons in the jury pool on separate cards of uniform size and color. The cards shall also contain the persons' address and age or date of birth. Such cards shall be deposited in a circular hollow drum.

B. The drum shall be made of wood, iron, steel, wire cloth or other substantial material, and shall be so constructed as to freely revolve on an axle. The drum shall be of such size as to freely mix all the cards placed therein when rotated on its axle. The drum shall have a door which shall be locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided. The Court Clerk shall ensure that keys to the drum are safely stored.

C. The Court Clerk shall store the drum in a safe and secure place where the same cannot be tampered with nor permit the same to be opened by any person except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified.

D. The expenses of the preparation of the drum and name cards are to be paid from the Court fund.

DRAWING JURY PANELS.

A. The Court shall, no less than thirty (30) days prior to each jury docket of Court, determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the Court during the jury docket, and shall thereupon order the drawing of such number of names from the drum, said number to be known as the general panel of jurors for service for the respective jury docket.

B. The Court Clerk or one (1) of his deputies shall draw from the drum, after the same has been well turned so that the cards therein are thoroughly mixed, one (1) by one (1) until the number of names for jury service are procured. The Court Clerk shall maintain a list of the drawn names at all times in a confidential manner. The persons attending such drawing shall not divulge the name of any person that may be drawn as a prospective juror to any person.

C. The Court may order additional drawings of names for the completion of a jury, the impaneling of a new jury or otherwise if additional drawing(s) shall become necessary; however, such prospective jurors shall be available only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are not further needed. The Court may excuse or discharge any person drawn and summoned as a juror, whenever such action shall be deemed expedient or in the best interest of the Court or the administration of justice.

D. No person may be required, over his objection, to render service as a juror for more than a total of twenty (20) working days in any calendar year unless, when such time limit is reached, he is sitting on a jury panel engaged in the consideration of a case, in which event the juror shall be excused when such case is terminated. However, if the Court is of the opinion that the jury business of a jury docket fixed by the Court may be concluded within six (6) days, he may require a jury, or a juror, to remain until the termination of said jury service. Persons summoned for jury service need not be required to serve during previously fixed days or weeks or a docket fixed by the Court for jury trials, but they may be recalled from time to time as the needs of the Court require without regard to the docket term fixed by the Court for jury trials for which they were originally summoned.

SECTION 5-212.4

CERTIFYING AND SEALING LISTS.

The list of names so drawn for the general panel shall be certified under the hand of the

Court and Procedures

Court Clerk and the supervising Judge and shall be sealed in envelopes endorsed "Jurors for the jury docket of the Court scheduled to commence on _____" (filling in the blank with the appropriate date). The Court Clerk shall write his name across the seals of the envelopes.

SECTION 5-212.5 DELIVERY OF ENVELOPES.

The supervising Judge shall deliver such envelopes to the Court Clerk and shall administer to the Court Clerk and to each of his deputies an oath in substance as follows: "You and each of you do solemnly swear that you will not open the jury lists now delivered to you, nor permit them to be opened, until the time prescribed by law, nor communicate to anyone the name or names of persons appearing on the jury lists until the time it shall be published, and that you will not, directly or indirectly, converse or communicate with anyone selected as juror concerning any case pending for trial in the Court at the next jury docket, So help you God."

SECTION 5-212.6 SEALING AND RETAINING JUROR NAME CARDS.

The Court Clerk shall retain said envelopes securely and unopened, until otherwise directed by the Court.

SECTION 5-212.7 REFILLING DRUM.

If all the cards should be drawn out of the drum, the drum shall immediately be refilled with cards as provided in this Article L.

SECTION 5-212.8 SUMMONING JURORS.

The Court Clerk shall summon all persons for jury service by mailing a copy of such summons containing the time, place, and the name of the Court upon which said persons are required to attend, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or as directed by the Court, not less than ten (10) days before the day said person is to appear in the Court. The Court Clerk shall make a return of such service by filing an affidavit stating the date of mailing and type of mail used in sending the summons.

SECTION 5-212.9 ON-CALL SYSTEMS JURORS.

- A. When an on-call system is implemented by order of the Court, each juror retained for services subject to call shall be required to contact a center for information as to the time and place of his next assignment.

Court and Procedures

B. For purposes of this Section, "on-call system" means a method whereby the Court estimates the number of jurors required for a jury docket and those jurors not needed during any particular period are released to return to their home or employment subject to call when needed.

C. Pursuant to a summons for jury service, each qualified person is retained for service subject to call.

DRAWING TRIAL JURORS FROM PANEL.

Prospective jurors for a trial shall be drawn by the Court Clerk under the direction and supervision of the Court either by numbering the prospective jurors cards and then drawing numbers from a pool containing a numbered marker for each prospective juror available to be called or by some similar form of random drawing approved by the Court. The initial six (6) jurors shall be drawn as shortly before the trial of the action as is reasonably practical in the discretion of the Court. As prospective jurors are removed or dismissed by challenge, whether preemptory or for cause, the Clerk shall draw another name from the general panel of jurors who shall take the place of the challenged prospective juror and be subject to voir dire to the same extent as the prospective jurors originally chosen.

SECTION 5-212.11

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXEMPTIONS OF JURORS.

A. Except as herein provided, those of the following who are of sound mind and discretion and of good moral character are competent to act as jurors:

1. All citizens of the Chickasaw Nation who are at least eighteen years of age,
2. Other citizens of the United States who are at least eighteen years of age, and
 - a. are currently residing within the Chickasaw Nation jurisdiction, or
 - b. who are current employees of the Chickasaw Nation.

B. The following persons are not qualified to serve as jurors:

1. Justices of the Supreme Court of the Chickasaw Nation and the employees in their office;

Court and Procedures

9. persons who have been convicted of any felony or crime involving moral turpitude, provided that when such conviction has been vacated, overturned upon appeal, or pardoned or when any such person has been fully restored to his civil rights by the jurisdiction wherein such conviction occurred, the person shall be eligible to serve as a juror; and

C. Persons over seventy (70) years of age, ministers, practicing physicians, optometrists, dentists, public school teachers, federal employees, regularly organized full time fire department employees, and parents with otherwise unattended minor children not in school may be excused from jury service by the Court, in its discretion, upon request.

D. The Clerk shall include questions relating to the above qualifications and exclusions in a form delivered to prospective jurors to determine their eligibility for jury duty.
(PR38-014, 02/22/2021)

SUBSTANTIAL COMPLIANCE.

Substantial compliance with the provisions of this Article L shall be sufficient to prevent the setting aside of any verdict or decision rendered by a jury chosen hereunder, unless the irregularity in drawing, and summoning, or impaneling the same resulted in depriving a party litigant of some substantial right; provided, however, that such irregularity must be specifically presented to the Court within ten (10) days of the filing of a decision in the action.
(PR38-014, 02/22/2021)

Court and Procedures

SECTION 5-212.13

OATH TO JURY.

After selection of the jury and prior to the opening statements of the parties, the Court shall place the jury under oath or affirmation to well and truly try and determine the action before them exclusively upon the evidence presented in the Court and the law and instructions given by the Court, and to return their true verdict thereon without partiality for any unlawful cause or reason.

SECTION 5-212.14

DISCHARGE OF EMPLOYEE FOR JURY SERVICE.

A. No person shall be discharged from his employment because of said person's absence from his employment by reason of having been required to serve on a jury for the Court.

B. Any person, firm, or corporation who discharges or causes to be discharged an employee because of said person's absence from his employment by reason of having been required to serve on a jury for the Court shall be liable to the person so discharged in a civil action at law for both actual and punitive damages. Damages shall include all pecuniary losses suffered including, but not limited to, lost earnings, both past and future, mental anguish, and all reasonable damages incurred in obtaining other suitable employment, including the cost of relocation and retraining, if any, and a reasonable attorney fee to be determined by the Court.

SECTION 5-212.15

FEES AND MILEAGE FOR JURORS.

Jurors serving at trial on criminal and civil matters shall receive a daily fee for each day of jury duty and mileage to and from their usual residence to the Court at the rate specified in the Federal Register of the United States. Such fee shall be in an amount provided by Court rule. (PR38-014, 02/22/2021; PR40-009, 04/17/2023)

SECTION 5-212.16

USE AND MANAGEMENT OF ELECTRONIC JURY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM.

A. In lieu of any other jury selection procedures now provided by law, the Court Clerk of the Chickasaw Nation, may utilize an approved electronic jury management system (JMS) authorized by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Chickasaw Nation for the random selection of jurors and the general administration of the jury process.

B. The Court Clerk of the Chickasaw Nation shall manage the jury selection process under the supervision and control of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Chickasaw Nation. In managing the jury selection process, the Court Clerk and Chief Justice are authorized to delegate duties to their staff and to utilize the electronic processes, random selection functionality, and data processing services of the authorized JMS, as may be necessary in the jury selection and maintenance process.

C. The District Court Judge of the Chickasaw Nation shall, more than thirty (30) days prior to each term of court, determine approximately the number of jurors that are reasonably necessary to meet the needs of the District Court for each jury term and shall order the drawing of that number of jurors, either all at one time or at periodic intervals, in advance of each term as he or she deems proper.

D. The Court Clerk or Chief Justice may utilize the JMS to randomly draw a sufficient number of names from the source list provided by the appropriate source pursuant to Section 5-212.1(B), to satisfy the number of jurors ordered by the judge, including a margin of extra names sufficient to compensate for the estimated number that will be unavailable or ineligible. The names drawn shall comprise the general panel of jurors from which jurors are selected for service in the District Court during the period for which they are designated to serve. The Court Clerk or Chief Justice and its staff shall not disclose, copy, or permit any person to copy any general panel jury list or any portion thereof except as provided in Section 5-212.17.

E. The Court Clerk or Chief Justice may utilize the JMS to prepare the summons for jury service and shall cause the same to be mailed to every person whose name is drawn for the general jury panel. At the option of the Court Clerk or Chief Justice, jurors' summonses may be mailed by the clerk's office or by a commercial mailing service. The court may utilize an automated address verification process to avoid mailing summonses to incomplete or invalid addresses or to persons who no longer reside in the jurisdiction.

F. Use of an approved electronic JMS shall not be grounds for a challenge to a juror or a panel based on a material departure or irregularity from the requirements prescribed by law. Whenever the court utilizes the approved JMS to randomly select and sequentially order juror names during any step in the jury selection process, the laws relating to the selection of jurors by a selection drum, including those requirements set from Section 5-212.2 through Section 5-212.15 shall not apply.

G. The Court Clerk or Chief Justice may utilize the JMS for creation and maintenance of all records and documents necessary to summon, qualify, manage, and pay jurors for service and may maintain jury records in electronic format utilizing the data processing methods which are provided in the JMS.

H. The District Court may provide electronic resources, including but not limited to an automated telephone system and a website, for jurors to obtain information about their jury service and submit information to the court.

I. The District Court may utilize the JMS to prepare and mail juror questionnaires and may provide for jurors to answer juror questionnaires either by mail or by the court's website.

(PR41-002, 12/15/2023)

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ABOUT JURORS.

A. Persons serving as jurors during a trial shall not be asked or required to give their complete residence address or telephone number in the presence of the defendant.

B. Names and personal information concerning prospective and sitting jurors shall not be disclosed to the public outside open court, except upon order of the court. A request for disclosure of jurors' names and personal information shall be made in writing directly to the judge. The court shall order jurors' names and personal information to be kept confidential unless the interest of justice requires otherwise.

C. Names and personal information concerning prospective jurors may be provided to the attorneys of records after the general panel jurors have been selected and summoned, unless otherwise directed by the court. The names and information will be provided in written form only, hereafter referred to as "the jury list". The attorneys shall not share the jury list or information contained in the jury list except as necessary for purposes of jury selection. Following jury selection, the attorneys shall return the original jury lists and any copies to the court. Counsel shall be under a continuing duty to protect the confidentiality of juror information.

SECTION 5-213.1 TRIAL DEFINED.

A trial is a judicial examination of the issues, whether of law or fact, in an action brought before a court of proper jurisdiction.

SECTION 5-213.2 TRIAL OF ISSUES.

Issues of law must be tried by the Court. Issues of fact arising in actions for which a jury trial is provided by law may be tried by a jury, if a jury trial is demanded, unless a reference be ordered, as hereinafter provided. All other issues of fact shall be tried to the Court.

SECTION 5-213.3 JURY TRIAL OF RIGHT.

A. Right Preserved. The right of a trial by jury as declared by the Constitution or a statute of the Chickasaw Nation or the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 shall be preserved inviolate. In all actions regarding a forcible entry and detainer or arising in contract or tort where the amount in controversy, or the value of the property to be recovered, as stated in the prayer for relief or an affidavit of a party or as found by the Court where the amount in controversy is questioned by the affidavit of the adverse party exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000), except as otherwise specifically provided by law and in tax cases and in all actions for the involuntary removal of children from the custody of their parents or custodian and the involuntary termination of parental rights, the action may be tried to a jury upon demand of any party. All other actions and issues of fact shall be tried to the Court.

B. Demand. Any party entitled to a jury trial may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury pursuant to any law of the Chickasaw Nation by serving upon the other parties a demand therefore in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than ten (10) days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue. Such demand may be endorsed upon a pleading of the party. Such demand shall not be effective unless, at the time of filing or at such later time as the Court shall by rule allow, the party making such demand deposit with the Court a reasonable jury fee in such amount as the Court shall by rule determine. The amount of such deposit shall be set by the Court in such amount as may be reasonably necessary to offset the costs of juror fees for the impaneling and trying of the action without being in an amount which may preclude or prevent a party from exercising their right to a jury trial. Such rules shall contain a provision for waiver of the deposit requirement for persons proceeding in forma pauperis.

C. Same; Specification of Issues. In his demand for a trial by jury, a party may specify the issues which he wished so tried; otherwise he shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If he has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within ten (10) days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the Court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.

D. Waiver. The failure of a party to serve a demand and file it as required by this Section and other Chickasaw law regarding service of process constitutes a waiver by him of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without consent of the parties. Even though previously demanded, the trial by jury may be waived by the parties in actions arising on contract and with the assent of the Court in other actions, in the following manner: by the consent of the party appearing, when the other party fails to appear at the trial by himself or attorney; by written consent, in person or by attorney, filed with the Court; or by oral consent, in open court, entered on the journal.

SECTION 5-213.4

TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT.

A. By Jury. When trial by jury has been demanded as provided herein, the action shall be designated upon the docket as a jury action. The trial of all issues shall be by jury, unless:

1. the parties or their attorneys of record, by written stipulation filed with the Court or by an oral stipulation made in open Court and entered in the record, consent to trial by the Court sitting without a jury; or
2. the Court upon motion or of its own initiative finds that a right of trial by jury of some or all of those issues does not exist under the Constitution and laws of the

Court and Procedures

Chickasaw Nation or under the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968.

B. By the Court. Issues not demanded for trial by jury as provided in Section 213.3 shall be tried by the Court; but, notwithstanding the failure of a party to demand a jury in an action in which such a demand might have been made of right, the Court in its discretion or upon motion of a party may order a trial by a jury of any or all issues properly triable to a jury.

C. Advisory Jury and Trial by Consent. In all actions not triable of right by a jury, the Court upon motion or its own initiative may try any issue with an Advisory Jury or, except in actions against the Chickasaw Nation when a statute of the Chickasaw Nation provides for trial without a jury, the Court, with the consent of both parties, may order a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right.

SECTION 5-213.5 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES FOR TRIAL.

The Court shall provide by rule for the placing of actions upon the trial calendar:

1. without the request of the parties;
2. upon request of a party and notice to the other parties; or
3. in such other manner as the Court deems expedient. Precedence shall be given to actions entitled thereto by any statute of the Chickasaw Nation.

SECTION 5-213.6 CONSOLIDATION; SEPARATE TRIALS.

A. Consolidation. When different actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the Court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions. The Court may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delays.

B. Separate Trials. The Court, in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice or when separate trials will be conducive to expedition and economy, may order a separate trial of any Claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third-party Claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of Claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, or third-party claims, or issues, always preserving inviolate the right to trial by jury as declared by the Constitution or a statute of the Chickasaw Nation or the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended.

SECTION 5-213.7 SUMMONING JURY.

Court and Procedures

The general mode of summoning and impaneling the jury, in cases in which a jury trial may be had, is such as is or may be provided by Article L of this Act.

SECTION 5-213.8

CAUSES FOR CHALLENGING JURORS.

If there shall be impaneled for the trial of any action, any juror who shall have been convicted of any crime which by law renders him disqualified to serve on a jury; or who has been arbitrator on either side relating to the same controversy; or who has an interest in the action; or who has an action pending between him and either party; or who has formerly been a juror on the same Claim; or who is the employer, employee, counselor, agent, steward or attorney of either party; or who is subpoenaed as a witness; or who is of kin to either party within the Second Degree by blood or marriage, such juror may be challenged for such causes. In either of such cases the same shall be considered as a principal challenge and the validity thereof be tried by the Court. Any juror who shall be returned upon the trial of any of the causes hereinbefore specified, against whom no principal cause of challenge can be alleged, may, nevertheless, be challenged on suspicion of prejudice against, or partiality for either party, or any other cause that may render him, at the time, an unsuitable juror, but a resident within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation or a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation or any municipality therein shall not be thereby disqualified in actions in which the Chickasaw Nation or such municipality is a party. The validity of all principal challenges and challenges for cause shall be determined by the Court.

SECTION 5-213.9

EXAMINATION OF JURORS.

A. The Court may permit the parties or their attorneys to conduct the examination of prospective jurors or may itself conduct the examination. The Judge may initiate the voir dire examination of jurors by identifying the parties and their respective counsel. He may outline the nature of the case, the issues of fact and law to be tried, and may then put to the jurors any questions regarding their qualifications to serve as jurors in the cause on trial.

B. Should the parties or their attorneys be allowed to examine the prospective jurors, the parties or their attorneys shall scrupulously guard against injecting any argument in their voir dire examination and shall refrain from asking a juror how he would decide hypothetical questions involving law or facts. The parties or their attorneys shall avoid repetition, shall not call jurors by their first names or indulge in other familiarities with individual jurors, and shall be fair to the Court and opposing counsel.

(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

ALTERNATE JURORS.

The Court may direct that not more than three jurors in addition to the regular jury be called and impaneled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors in the order in which they are called shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become or are found to be unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the regular jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a regular juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. Each side is entitled to one (1) peremptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by law if alternate jurors are to be impaneled. The additional peremptory challenges may be used against an alternate juror only, and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against an alternate juror.

SECTION 5-213.11 ORDER OF CHALLENGES.

The plaintiff first, and afterward the defendant, shall complete his challenges for cause. The parties may then, in turn, in the same order, issue up to three peremptory challenges to jurors.

SECTION 5-213.12 CHALLENGES TO JURORS; FILLING VACANCIES.

After each challenge, the vacancy shall be filled before further challenges are made; and any new juror thus introduced may be challenged for cause as well as peremptorily.

SECTION 5-213.13 ALTERNATE METHOD OF SELECTING JURY.

Notwithstanding other methods authorized by law, the trial judge may direct in his discretion that a jury in an action be selected by calling and seating twelve (12) prospective jurors in the jury box and then examining them on voir dire; when twelve (12) such prospective jurors have been passed for cause, each side of the lawsuit shall exercise peremptory challenges out of the hearing of the jury by alternately striking three (3) names each from the list of those so passed for cause, and the remaining six (6) persons shall be sworn to try the case.

If there be more than one (1) defendant in the case and the trial judge determines on motion that there is a serious conflict of interest between them, he may, in his discretion, allow each defendant to strike three names from the list of jurors seated and passed for cause. In such case, he shall appropriately increase the number of jurors initially called and seated in the jury box for voir dire examination.

SECTION 5-213.14 OATH OF JURY.

The jury shall be sworn to well and truly try the matters submitted to them in the case before them, and to give a true verdict, according to the law and the evidence.

SECTION 5-213.15 JURIES OF LESS THAN SIX (6); MAJORITY VERDICT.

All juries shall be composed of six (6) persons and a unanimous verdict shall be required, except that the parties may stipulate that the jury shall consist of any number less than six (6) and greater than two (2), or that a verdict or a finding of a stated majority of the jurors shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury.

SECTION 5-213.16 ORDER OF TRIAL.

When the jury has been sworn in an action before a jury and in trials to the Court, when the Court is ready to proceed, the trial shall proceed in the following order, unless the Court for special reasons otherwise directs:

1. The party on whom rests the burden of proving the issues may briefly state his case, and the evidence by which he expects to sustain it.
2. The adverse party may then briefly state his defense and the evidence he expects to offer in support of it, or the adverse party may reserve his opening statement until the beginning of the presentation of his evidence.
3. The party on whom rests the burden of proving the issues must first produce his evidence; after he has closed his evidence, the adverse party may interpose a motion for a directed verdict thereto upon the ground that no Claim for relief or defense is proved. If the Court shall sustain the motion, no formal verdict of the jury shall be required and Judgment shall be rendered for the party whose motion for a directed verdict is sustained as the state of the pleadings or the proof shall demand.
4. If the motion for a directed verdict be overruled, the adverse party may then briefly state his case if he did not do so prior to the beginning of the presentation of the evidence, and, shall then produce his evidence.
5. The parties will then be confined to rebutting evidence unless the Court, for good reasons in furtherance of justice, shall permit them to offer evidence in the original case.

6. After the close of the evidence and when the jury instructions have been finalized by the Court, the parties may then make their closing arguments as to the evidence proved and reasonable inferences to be drawn therefrom. The party having the burden of proving the issue shall first present his argument. Thereafter, the other party shall present his argument, and then, the party having the burden of proof shall have the opportunity for rebuttal argument. The Court may place reasonable limitation upon the time allowed for closing argument; provided, that each side to the action should have the same total time for argument if time restrictions are placed thereon.

7. After the closing arguments of the parties have been completed, the Court shall instruct the jury as to the law of the case, and shall give a copy of the written instructions to the jury for their use during their deliberations.

8. The Court shall then place the bailiff or some other responsible person under oath to secure the jury against interference, and the jury shall retire to determine its verdict.

SECTION 5-213.17

TAKING OF TESTIMONY.

A. Form. In all trials, the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court unless otherwise provided by a law of the Chickasaw Nation or by this Act, the Chickasaw Nation Rules of Evidence or other rules adopted by the Supreme Court of the Chickasaw Nation.

B. Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under this Act an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

C. Evidence on Motions. When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record, the Court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the Court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.

SECTION 5-213.18

EXCEPTIONS UNNECESSARY.

Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the Court are unnecessary; but it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the Court is made or sought, makes known to the Court the action which he desires the Court to take or his objection to the action of the Court and his grounds therefore; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

SECTION 5-213.19

INSTRUCTION TO JURY; OBJECTION.

A. At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the Court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the Court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. The Court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury, but the Court shall instruct the jury after the arguments are completed. No party may assign as error the giving or the failure to give an instruction unless he objects thereto or proposes the requested instruction before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which he objects and the grounds of his objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury.

B. All instructions requested and modifications thereof, shall be reduced to writing, numbered, and signed by the party or his attorney asking the same and filed in the record of the case.

C. When either party asks special instructions to be given to the jury, the Court shall either give such instructions as requested, positively refuse to do so, or give the instructions with modification in such manner that it shall distinctly appear what instructions were given in whole or part, and in like manner those refused, so that either party may except to the instructions as asked for, or as modified, or to the modification, or to the refusal.

D. All instructions given by the Court must be numbered and signed by the Judge and filed together with those asked for by the parties as a part of the record.

SECTION 5-213.20

UNIFORM JURY INSTRUCTION.

The Supreme Court, in its discretion, is authorized to promulgate by rule uniform instructions to be given in jury trials of civil or criminal actions, which, if applicable in a civil or criminal action, due regard being given to the facts and prevailing law, shall be used unless the Court determines that the instruction does not accurately state the law.

SECTION 5-213.21

OBJECTIONS TO INSTRUCTIONS; COPIES TO PARTIES.

A party objecting to the giving of instructions or the refusal thereof, shall not be required to file a formal bill of exceptions but it shall be sufficient to make objection thereto by dictating into the record in open Court, out of the hearing of the jury, before the reading of all instructions, the number of the particular instruction that was requested, refused, and objected to, or the number of the particular instruction given by the Court that is excepted to; provided, further, that the Court shall furnish copies of the instructions to the Plaintiff and Defendant prior to the time said instructions are given by the Court.

Court and Procedures

SECTION 5-213.22 VIEW BY JURY.

Whenever, in the opinion of the Court, it is proper for the jury to have a view of the property which is the subject of litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted, in a body, under the charge of a law enforcement officer or an officer of the Court, to the place which shall be shown to them by some person appointed by the Court for that purpose. While the jury are thus absent, no person, other than the person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial.

SECTION 5-213.23 DELIBERATIONS OF THE JURY.

When the case is finally submitted to the jury, they shall retire for deliberation. When they retire, they must be kept together in some convenient place, under charge of a law enforcement officer or an officer of the Court, until they agree upon a verdict or be discharged by the Court, subject to the discretion of the Court, to permit them to separate temporarily at night and at their meals. The officer having them under this charge shall not suffer any communication to be made to them or make himself, except to ask them if they are agreed upon their verdict, and to communicate a request by the jury to the Court in open Court, unless by order of the Court, and he shall not, before their verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed upon.

SECTION 5-213.24 ADMONITION OF JURY ON SEPARATION.

If the jury are permitted to separate, either during the trial or after the case is submitted to them, they shall be admonished by the Court that it is their duty not to converse with, or suffer themselves to be addressed by, any other person on any subject of the trial, and that it is their duty not to form or express an opinion thereon until the case is finally submitted to them.

SECTION 5-213.25 INFORMATION AFTER RETIREMENT.

After the jury has retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed as to any part of the law arising in the case, they may request the officer to conduct them to the Court where the information on the point of law shall be given in writing, and the Court may give its recollections as to the testimony on the point in dispute or cause the same to be read by the stenographer or played back on an electronic recording device by the reporter in the presence of, or after notice to, the parties or their counsel. Upon motion in appropriate circumstances, the Court may order that other portions of the record relating to the same issue also be read or played back to the jury upon the questioned point.

SECTION 5-213.26

WHEN THE JURY MAY BE DISCHARGED.

The jury may be discharged by the Court on account of the sickness of a juror or other accident or calamity requiring their discharge, or by consent of both parties, or after they have been kept together, until it satisfactorily appears to the Court that there is no probability of their agreeing.

SECTION 5-213.27

RETRIAL.

In all cases where the jury are discharged during the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, it may be tried again immediately or at a future time as the Court may direct.

SECTION 5-213.28

PROOF OF OFFICIAL RECORD.

A. Authentication.

1. Domestic. An official record kept within the United States or a jurisdiction of another federally recognized Indian tribe or Alaskan Native tribe or organization, state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or within the Panama Canal Zone, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or the Ryukyu Islands, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record or by his deputy and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept and authenticated by the seal of such court, or may be made by any public office having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept and authenticated by the seal of his office.

2. Foreign. A foreign official record or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof, or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position a) of the attesting person, or b) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position related to the attestation or is in a chain of certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the Court may, for good cause shown, a) admit an attested copy without final certification, or b) permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification.

B. Lack of Record. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in Paragraph A.1 above in the case of a domestic record or complying with the requirements of Paragraph A.2 above for summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.

C. Other Proof. This Section does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

SECTION 5-213.29

DETERMINATION OF FOREIGN LAW.

A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign jurisdiction shall give notice in his pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The Court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under the Chickasaw Nation Rules of Evidence. The Court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law. The Court shall take judicial notice of the law of any foreign jurisdiction within the United States published in an official publication of that jurisdiction upon reasonable notice of the law in question. The term "foreign jurisdiction within the United States" includes every federally recognized Indian tribe, every state, territory, or possession of the United States, the United States, and their political subdivisions and agencies.

SECTION 5-213.30

APPOINTMENT AND DUTIES OF MASTERS.

A. Appointment and Compensation. The District Court with the concurrence of a majority of the Supreme Court Justices may appoint one (1) or more standing Masters, and the trial judge, in an appropriate case, may appoint a special Master to act in a particular case. The word "Master" includes a referee, an auditor, and an examiner, a commissioner, and an assessor. The compensation to be allowed to a master shall be fixed by the Court, and shall be charged upon such of the parties or paid out of any fund or subject matter of the action which is in the custody and control of the Court as the Court may direct. The Master shall not retain his report as security for his compensation; but when the party ordered to pay the compensation allowed by the Court does not pay it after notice and within the time prescribed by the Court, the Master is entitled to a writ of execution against the delinquent party.

B. Reference. A reference to a Master shall be the exception and not the rule. In action to be tried by a jury, a reference shall be made only when the issues are complicated; in actions to be tried without a jury, save in matter of account and of difficult computation of damages, a reference shall be made only upon a showing that some exceptional condition requires it.

C. Powers. The order of reference to the Master may specify or limit his powers and may direct him to report only upon particular issues or to do or perform particular acts or to receive and report evidence only and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing the hearings and for the filing of the Master's report. Subject to the specifications and limitations stated in the order, the Master has and shall exercise the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary or proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production before him of evidence upon all matters embraced in the reference, including the production of all books, papers, vouchers, documents, and writings applicable thereto. He may rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the order or reference and has the authority to put witnesses on oath and may himself examine them, and may call the parties to the action and examine them upon oath. When a party so requests, the Master shall make a record of the evidence offered and excluded in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided for a Court sitting without a jury.

D. Proceedings.

1. Meetings. When a reference is made, the Court Clerk shall forthwith furnish the Master with a copy of the order of reference. Upon receipt thereof, unless the order of reference otherwise provides, the Master shall forthwith set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys to be held within twenty (20) days after the date of the order of reference and shall notify the parties or their attorneys. It is the duty of the Master to proceed with all reasonable diligence. Either party, on notice to the parties and Master, may apply to the Court for an order requiring the Master to speed the proceedings and to make his report. If a party fails to appear at the time and place appointed, the Master may proceed ex parte, or, in his discretion, adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of the adjournment.

2. Witnesses. The parties may procure the attendance of witnesses before the Master by the issuance and service of subpoenas. If without adequate excuse a witness fails to appear or give evidence, he may be punished as for a contempt and be subjected to the consequences, penalties, and remedies provided herein.

3. Statement of Accounts. When matters of accounting are in issue before the Master, he may prescribe the form in which the accounts shall be submitted and in any proper case may require or receive in evidence a statement by a certified public accountant who is called as a witness. Upon objection of a party to any of the items thus submitted or upon a showing that the form of statement is insufficient, the Master may require a different form of statement to be furnished, or the accounts or specific items thereof to be proved by oral examination of the accounting parties or upon written interrogatories or in such other manner as he directs.

E. Report.

1. Content and Filing. The Master shall prepare a report upon the matters submitted to him by the order of reference and, if required to make findings of fact and conclusions of law, he shall set them forth in the report. He shall file the report with the Clerk of the Court and in an action to be tried without a jury, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference, shall file with it a transcript of the proceedings and of the evidence and the original exhibits. The Clerk shall forthwith mail to all parties notice of the filing.

2. In Non-Jury Actions. In an action to be tried without a jury, the Court shall accept the Master's findings of fact unless clearly erroneous. Within ten (10) days after being served with notice of the filing of the report any party may serve written objections thereto upon the other parties. Application to the Court for action upon the report and upon objections thereto shall be by motion and upon notice as prescribed by Chickasaw law. The Court after hearing may adopt the report or may modify it or may reject it in whole or in part or may receive further evidence or may recommit it with instructions.

3. In Jury Actions. In an action to be tried by a jury the Master shall not be directed to report the evidence. His findings upon the issues submitted to him are admissible as evidence of the matters found and may be read to the jury, subject to the ruling of the Court upon any objections in point of law which may be made to the report.

4. Stipulation as to Findings. The effect of a Master's report is the same whether or not the parties have consented to the reference; but, when the parties stipulate that a Master's findings of fact shall be final, only questions of law arising upon the report shall thereafter be considered.

5. Draft Report. Before filing his report, a Master may submit a draft thereof to counsel for all parties for the purpose of receiving their suggestions.

SECTION 5-213.31 FINDINGS BY THE COURT.

A. Effect. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the Court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and Judgment shall be entered pursuant to Section 5-214.7; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions the Court shall similarly set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Request for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial court to judge the credibility of the witnesses. The findings of a Master, to the extent that the Court adopts them, shall be considered as the findings of the Court. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if the findings of fact and conclusions of law appear therein.

B. Amendment. Upon motion of a party made not later than ten (10) days after entry of Judgment, the Court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the Judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the Court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made in the Court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for Judgment.

SECTION 5-213.32 DELIVERY OF VERDICT.

When the jury have agreed upon their verdict they must be conducted into Court, and their verdict rendered by their foreman. When the verdict is announced, either party may require the jury to be polled, which is done by the Court asking each juror if it is his verdict. If anyone answers in the negative, the jury must again be sent out, for further deliberation.

SECTION 5-213.33 REQUISITES OF VERDICTS.

The verdict shall be written, signed by the foreman and read by the clerk to the jury, and the inquiry made whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagrees, the jury must be sent out again; but if no disagreement be expressed, and neither party requires the jury to be polled, the verdict is complete and the jury discharged from the case. If, however, the verdict be defective in form only, the same may, with the assent of the jury, before they are discharged, be corrected by the Court.

SECTION 5-213.34 GENERAL AND SPECIAL VERDICT.

The verdict of a jury is either general or special. A general verdict is either that by which they pronounce generally upon all or any of the issues, either in favor of the plaintiff or defendant. A special verdict is that by which the jury finds facts only. It must present the facts as established by the evidence and not the evidence to prove them; and they must be so presented as that nothing remains to the Court but to draw from their conclusions of law.

SECTION 5-213.35 SPECIAL VERDICT AND INTERROGATORIES.

A. Special Verdicts. The Court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event the Court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use other methods of submitting the issues and requiring the written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The Court shall give to the jury such explanation and instruction concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the Court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waived his right to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires he demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand the Court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the Judgment on the special verdict.

B. General Verdict Accompanied by Answer to Interrogatories. The Court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one (1) or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The Court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict, and the Court shall direct the jury both to make written answers and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are consistent with each other, Judgment shall be entered thereon, but, when the answers to one (1) or more interrogatories is inconsistent with the general verdict, Judgment may be entered pursuant to Section 5-214.7 in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict, or the Court may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one (1) or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, Judgment shall not be entered, but the Court shall return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or shall order a new trial.

SECTION 5-213.36

JURY MUST ASSESS AMOUNT OF RECOVERY.

When, by the verdict either party is entitled to recover money of the adverse party, the jury, in their verdict, must assess the amount of recovery.

SECTION 5-213.37

MOTION FOR A DIRECTED VERDICT AND FOR JUDGMENT NOTWITHSTANDING THE VERDICT.

A. Motion for Directed Verdict; When Made; Effect. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for directed verdict shall state the specific grounds therefore. The order of the Court granting a motion for a directed verdict is effective without assent of the jury.

B. Motion for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict. Whenever a motion for a directed verdict made at the close of all the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the Court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Not later than ten (10) days after entry of Judgment, a party who has moved for a directed verdict may move to have the verdict and any Judgment entered thereon set aside and to have Judgment entered in accordance with his motion for a directed verdict; or if a verdict was not returned such party, within ten (10) days after the jury has been discharged, may move for Judgment in accordance with his motion for a directed verdict. A motion for a new trial may be joined with this motion, or a new trial may be prayed for in the alternative. If a verdict was returned the Court may allow the Judgment to stand or may reopen the Judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of the Judgment as if the requested verdict has been directed. If no verdict was returned the Court may direct the entry of Judgment as if the requested verdict has been directed or may order a new trial.

C. Same: Conditional Rulings on Grant of Motion.

1. If the motion for Judgment notwithstanding the verdict, provided for in Subsection B above, is granted, the Court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the Judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial. If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted, the order thereon does not affect the finality of the Judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the Judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless the Supreme Court has otherwise ordered. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally denied, the appellee on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the Judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the Supreme Court.

2. The party whose verdict has been set aside on motion for Judgment notwithstanding the verdict may serve a motion for a new trial pursuant to Section 5-214.8 not later than ten (10) days after entry of the Judgment notwithstanding the verdict.

D. Same: Denial of Motion. If the motion for Judgment notwithstanding the verdict is denied, the party who prevailed on that motion may, on appeal, assert grounds entitling him to a new trial in the event the Supreme Court concludes that the trial court erred in denying the motion for Judgment notwithstanding the verdict. If the Supreme Court reverses the Judgment, nothing in this Section precludes it from determining that the appellee is entitled to a new trial, or from directing the trial court to determine whether a new trial shall be granted.

SECTION 5-213.38

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO TRIALS BY COURT.

The provisions of this Article M respecting trials by jury apply, so far as they are in their nature applicable, to trials by the Court.

TRIAL DOCKET.

A trial docket shall be made out by the Clerk of the Court at least fifteen (15) days before the first day of each jury or non-jury docket of the Court, and the actions shall be set for particular days in the order prescribed by the Judge of the Court, and so arranged that the cases set for each day shall be considered as nearly as may be on that day. The trial docket shall be promptly mailed by the Clerk to each party or their attorney of record whose action is placed on the trial docket.

SECTION 5-213.40

TRIAL DOCKET POSTED.

Court and Procedures

The Clerk shall make out a copy of the trial docket before the first day of the docket of the Court and cause the same to be available to the public by posting such copy at appropriate places as determined by the Court.

SECTION 5-213.41 ORDER OF TRIAL OF CASES DOCKETED.

The trial of an issue of fact and the assessment of damages in any case shall be in the order in which they are placed on the trial docket, unless by the request of the parties with the approval of the Court or the order of the Court, they are continued or placed at the heel of the docket, unless the Court shall otherwise direct. The Court may, in its discretion, hear at any time a motion and may by rule prescribe the time for hearing motions.

SECTION 5-213.42 TIME OF TRIAL.

A. Actions shall be triable at the first trial docket of the Court after or during which the issues therein by the time fixed for pleading are or shall have been made up and discovery completed. When the issues are made up and discovery completed, or when the defendant has failed to plead within the time fixed, the cause shall be placed on the trial docket and shall stand for trial at such term twenty (20) days after the issues are made up and discovery completed and shall, in case of default, stand for trial forthwith.

B. The Court shall arrange its business so that two (2) non-jury trial dockets and two (2) jury trial dockets are completed during each calendar year, unless the Court by order determines that additional trial dockets are necessary to promptly dispose of the cases pending before the Court.

SECTION 5-213.43 CONTINUANCE.

The trial of an action shall not be continued upon the stipulation of the parties alone but may be continued upon order of the Court.

SECTION 5-213.44 TRIAL BY JUDICIAL PANEL.

A. The Supreme Court may provide by rule for the trial of any action in the District Court by judicial panel in any or all cases when no jury is allowed by law or demanded by the parties. The judicial panel shall consist of the presiding Judge to whom the case was assigned, who shall make all rulings on questions of law during the trial of the action, and two (2) or more Judges, Special Judges, or Magistrates who shall hear the evidence. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, with the consent of the majority of the Justices, is hereby authorized to freely appoint any person licensed to practice law before the Court as a Judge, Special Judge or Magistrate for the purpose of sitting upon a judicial panel and may compensate such person out of the Court fund reasonable compensation for his services in an amount not exceeding the daily rate paid to regular Judges of the Court.

Court and Procedures

B. The judicial panel shall jointly, by majority vote, determine the facts proved by the evidence and the panel shall enter findings of fact and conclusions of law as in a trial before a single Judge.

C. In a trial before a judicial panel, the votes of the Judges on the panel shall not be revealed but the verdict and Judgment shall be entered in accordance with the panel's findings of fact and conclusions of law.

SECTION 5-213.45 BIFURCATED JURY TRIALS.

A. The Supreme Court may provide by rule for the bifurcation of any jury trial in a civil action sounding in tort so that the jury shall first hear evidence on, and render its verdict upon, the issue of liability and thereafter hear evidence on and render its verdict upon the issue of the amount of damages if liability has been found.

B. In such bifurcated trials, evidence of insurance coverage or similar agreements by third parties to pay any part of a Judgment, and the nature and extent of such coverage or agreement shall be admissible and relevant to the issue of damages.

C. In any such cases not provided for by Court rule, the case may be determined in bifurcated proceedings as stated in Subsections A and B above by stipulation of the parties.

Court and Procedures

Section 5-214.72 Substance of Offense Made Part of Record.

SECTION 5-214.1 SEIZURE OF PERSON OR PROPERTY.

At the commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the Judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by the law of the Chickasaw Nation existing at the time the remedy is sought.

SECTION 5-214.2 RECEIVERS APPOINTED BY THE COURTS.

An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the Court. The practice in the administration of estates by receivers or by other similar officers appointed by the Court shall be in accordance with Chickasaw Nation probate law, or, if none, then the practice heretofore followed in the courts of the United States or as provided in rules promulgated by the Court. In all other respects, the action in which the appointment of a receiver is sought or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by this Article N.

SECTION 5-214.3 DEPOSIT IN COURT.

In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a Judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of Court, may deposit with the Court all or any part of such sum or thing. Money paid into the Court under this Section shall be deposited and withdrawn in accordance with Chickasaw Nation law detailing accounting procedures for the Court Clerk's Office, and if there be none, then in accordance with the Chickasaw Nation procedure for the administration and accounting of federal grant monies, upon order of the Court.

SECTION 5-214.4 PROCESS ON BEHALF OF AND AGAINST PERSONS NOT PARTIES.

When an order is made in favor of a person who is not a party to the action, he may enforce obedience to the order by the same process as if he were a party. When obedience to an order may be lawfully enforced against a person who is not a party, he is liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to the order as if he were a party.

SECTION 5-214.5

SECURITY; PROCEEDINGS AGAINST SURETIES.

Whenever this Act or other Chickasaw Nation law requires or permits the giving of security by a party and security is given in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one (1) or more sureties, each surety submits himself to the jurisdiction of the Court and irrevocably appoints the Clerk of the Court as his agent upon whom any papers affecting his liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. His liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the Court prescribes may be served on the Clerk of the Court, who shall forthwith mail copies to the sureties if their addresses are known.

Any surety authorized to give a bond, stipulation or other undertaking in either the federal courts or the courts within the State of Oklahoma and any individual approved by the Court who resides within the Territorial Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation (except officers of the Court or elected Chickasaw Nation officials) shall be eligible to give such bond, stipulation or undertaking in the Court under this Act or other Chickasaw Nation law unless otherwise prohibited by Chickasaw Nation law.

EXECUTION.

A. In General. Process to enforce a Judgment for the payment of money shall be a writ of execution, unless the Court directs otherwise. In aid of the Judgment or execution, the Judgment creditor or his successor in interest when that interest appears of record, may obtain discovery from any person, including the Judgment debtor, in the manner provided in this Act.

B. Against Certain Public Officers. When a Judgment otherwise authorized has been entered against a collector or other officer of revenue of the Chickasaw Nation or against any officer, or employee, or agency of the Chickasaw Nation in their official capacity; or if Judgment is entered against an individual in his personal capacity who purported to act as an officer or employee of the Chickasaw Nation, and the Court has given certificate of probable cause for his act wherein the Court determines that the individual had probable cause to believe that his action was authorized by the Chickasaw Nation in his official capacity, execution shall not issue against the officer or his property but the final Judgment shall be satisfied as may be provided by appropriation of such Judgment (or such part thereof as the legislative body of the Chickasaw Nation deems permissible considering the extent of available Chickasaw Nation resources) from available Chickasaw Nation funds. This Section is not intended, nor shall it be construed, as a waiver of sovereign immunity.

SECTION 5-214.7

INJUNCTION DEFINED.

The injunction provided for by this Article N is a command to refrain from or to do a particular act for the benefit of another. It may be the final Judgment in an action, or may be allowed as a provisional remedy, and when so allowed, it shall be by order.

SECTION 5-214.8

CAUSE FOR INJUNCTION; TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER.

When it appears, by the verified complaint or an affidavit that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded, and such relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining the commission or continuance of some act, the commission or continuance of which, during the litigation, would produce injury to the plaintiff; or when, during the litigation, it appears that the defendant is doing, or threatens, or is about to do, or is procuring or suffering to be done, some act in violation of the plaintiff's rights respecting the subject of the action, and tending to render the Judgment ineffectual, a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction may be granted to restrain such act. And when, during the pendency of an action, it shall appear, by affidavit or proof, that the defendant threatens or is about to remove or dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors, or to render the Judgment ineffectual, a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction may be granted to restrain such removal or disposition. It may, also, be granted in any case where it is specially authorized by statute.

SECTION 5-214.9

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER; NOTICE; HEARING; DURATION.

A. A temporary restraining order may be granted after commencement of the action without written or oral notice to the adverse party or his attorney only if:

1. it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or his attorney can be heard in opposition; and
2. the applicant's attorney certifies to the Court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give the notice and the reasons supporting a Claim that notice should not be required.

B. Temporary restraining orders should not be granted except in cases of extreme urgency. Every temporary restraining order granted without notice shall be endorsed with the date and hour of issuance; shall be filed forthwith in the clerk's office and entered of record; shall define the injury and state why it is irreparable and why the order was granted without notice; and shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed ten (10) days, as the Court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. The reasons for the extension shall be entered of record. In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the motion for a preliminary injunction shall be set down for hearing at the earliest possible time and take precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the motion comes on for hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction and, if he does not do so, the Court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On two (2) days notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the Court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification and in that event the Court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

SECTION 5-214.10 TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER; SERVICE.

Temporary restraining orders shall be served in the same manner as provided for service of the summons and complaint.

SECTION 5-214.11 PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION.

A. Notice. No preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the adverse party. Notice may be in the form of an order to appear at a designated time and place and show cause why a proposed preliminary injunction should not be issued, or in such form as the Court shall direct. The burden of showing the criteria for issuance of a preliminary injunction remains with the moving party.

B. Consolidation of Hearing With Trial on Merits. Before or after the commencement of the hearing of an application for a preliminary injunction, the court may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing of the application. Even when this consolidation is not ordered, any evidence received upon an application for a preliminary injunction which would be admissible upon the trial on the merits becomes part of the record on the trial and need not be repeated upon the trial. This Subsection B shall be so construed and applied as to save to the parties any rights they may have to trial by jury.

SECTION 5-214.12

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION; CRITERIA.

Unless a statute of the Chickasaw Nation provides specifically for preliminary injunctive relief upon a showing of particular circumstances, no preliminary injunction shall be granted unless upon hearing the evidence presented by the parties the Court determines that:

1. there is a substantial likelihood that the moving party will eventually prevail on the merits of their Claim for a permanent injunction or other relief;
2. the moving party will suffer irreparable injury unless the preliminary injunction issues. Irreparable injury means an injury which cannot be adequately remedied by a Judgment for money damages;
3. the threatened injury to the moving party outweighs whatever damage or injury the proposed preliminary injunction may cause the opposing party; and
4. the preliminary injunction, if issued, would not be adverse to the public interest, and would not violate the public policy of the Chickasaw Nation or the United States.

SECTION 5-214.13

FORM AND SCOPE OF INJUNCTION OR RESTRAINING ORDER.

Every order granting an injunction and every restraining order shall set forth the reasons for its issuance; shall be specific in terms; shall describe in reasonable detail, and not by reference to the complaint or other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained; and is binding only upon the parties to the action, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and upon those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

SECTION 5-214.14

EMPLOYER AND EMPLOYEE; INTERPLEADER; CONSTITUTIONAL CASES.

This Chapter does not modify any statute of the Chickasaw Nation relating to temporary restraining orders and preliminary injunctions in actions affecting employer and employee; or relating to preliminary injunctions in actions of interpleader or in the nature of interpleader; or any other case where temporary restraining orders or preliminary injunctions are expressly authorized or prohibited upon certain express terms or conditions.

SECTION 5-214.15 SECURITY.

A. No restraining order or preliminary injunction shall issue except upon the giving of security by the applicant in such sum as the Court deems proper for the payment of such costs, damages and a reasonable attorney fee as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. No such security shall be required of the Chickasaw Nation or of an officer or agency thereof.

B. The provisions of Section 5-214.5 apply to a surety upon a bond or undertaking under this Section.

C. A party enjoined by a preliminary injunction may, at any time before final Judgment, upon reasonable notice to the party who has obtained the preliminary injunction, move the Court for additional security, and if it appears that the surety in the undertaking has removed from the Chickasaw Nation Jurisdiction or is insufficient, the Court may vacate the preliminary injunction unless sufficient surety be given in a reasonable time upon such terms as may be just and equitable.

SECTION 5-214.16 USE OF AFFIDAVITS.

On the hearing for a restraining order or preliminary injunction, each party may submit affidavits which shall be filed as a part of the record.

SECTION 5-214.17 INJUNCTION BY DEFENDANT.

A defendant may obtain a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction upon filing his answer containing an appropriate counterclaim. He shall proceed in the manner hereinbefore prescribed.

SECTION 5-214.18 INJUNCTION IS EQUITABLE.

Relief by way of a restraining order, preliminary, or permanent injunction is of equitable cognizance and shall be issued or refused in the sound discretion of the Court. Relief by way of injunction shall be denied where the moving party may be adequately compensated for his injuries in money damages. The Court shall not enjoin the enforcement of the Chickasaw Nation tax laws or the collection of Chickasaw Nation taxes except to the extent that such relief is specifically provided for in those tax laws. No injunction shall issue to control the discretion or action of a Governmental officer or employee when such officer or employee has been delegated the authority to exercise his discretion in determining how to act upon the subject matter, and is acting or refusing to act in a manner not prohibited by Chickasaw Nation law or the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended.

SECTION 5-214.19 MODIFICATION OF PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION.

If the preliminary injunction be granted, the defendant, at any time before the trial, may apply, upon notice, to the Court to vacate or modify the same. The application may be made upon the complaint and affidavits upon which the injunction is granted or upon affidavits on the part of the party enjoined, with or without answer. The order of the Court allowing, dissolving or modifying an injunction shall be returned to the Clerk of the Court and recorded.

SECTION 5-214.20 MODIFICATION OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION; SEPARATE ACTION.

A final Judgment containing a permanent injunction may be modified or dissolved by separate action upon a showing that the facts and circumstances have changed to the extent that the injunction is no longer just and equitable or that the injunction is no longer needed to protect the rights of the parties.

SECTION 5-214.21 INJUNCTIONS TRIED TO THE COURT.

All injunctive actions shall be tried to the Court and not to a jury unless the Court orders an advisory jury pursuant to Subsection 5-213.4.C of this Act.

SECTION 5-214.22 ENFORCEMENT OF RESTRAINING ORDERS AND INJUNCTIONS.

A restraining order of injunction granted by a Judge may be enforced as the act of the Court. Disobedience of any injunction may be punished as a contempt, by the Court or any Judge who might have granted it. An attachment may be issued by the Court or Judge, upon being satisfied, by affidavit or testimony, of the breach of the injunction against the party guilty of the same who may be required to make immediate restitution to the party injured and give further security to obey the injunction; or, in default thereof, he may be committed to close custody, until he shall fully comply with such requirements, be otherwise legally discharged or be punished by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) for each day of, or separate act of, contempt, to be paid into the Court fund, or by confinement for not longer than sixty (60) days.

SECTION 5-214.23

ORDER OF DELIVERY; PROCEDURE.

A. The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of specific personal property may Claim the delivery of the property at the commencement of suit, as provided herein.

1. The complaint must allege facts which show:
 - a. a description of the property claimed;
 - b. that the plaintiff is the owner of the property or has a special ownership or interest therein, stating the facts in relation thereto, and that he is entitled to the immediate possession of the property;
 - c. that the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant;
 - d. the actual value of the property, provided that when several articles are claimed, the value of each shall be stated as nearly as practicable;
 - e. that the property was not taken in execution on any order or Judgment against said plaintiff, or for the payment of any tax, fine or amercement assessed against him, or by virtue of an order of delivery issued under this Title, or any other means or final process issued against said plaintiff; or, if taken in execution or on any order or Judgment against the plaintiff, that it is exempt by law from being so taken; and
 - f. the prayer for relief requests that the Court issue an order for the immediate delivery of the property.
2. The above allegations are verified by the party or, when the facts are within the personal knowledge of his agent or attorney and this is shown in the verification, by said agent or attorney.
3. A notice shall be issued by the Clerk and served on the defendant with the summons which shall notify the defendant that an order of delivery of the property described in the complaint is sought and that the defendant may object to the issuance of such an order by a written objection which is filed with the Clerk and delivered or mailed to the plaintiff's attorney within five (5) days of the service of the summons. In the event that no written objection is filed within the five-day period, no hearing is necessary and the Court Clerk shall issue the order of delivery. Should a written objection be filed within the five-day period specified, the Court shall, at the request of either party, set the matter for prompt hearing. At such hearing the Court shall proceed to determine whether the order for prejudgment delivery of the property should issue according to the probable merit of the plaintiff's complaint. Provided, however, that no order of delivery may be issued until an undertaking has been executed pursuant to Section 5-214.25 of this Title.

4. Nothing in this Act shall prohibit a party from waiving his right to a hearing or from voluntarily delivering the goods to the party seeking them before the commencement of the proceedings or at any time after institution thereof.

B. Where the notice that is required by Subsection A above cannot be served on the defendant but the Judge finds that a reasonable effort to serve him was made and at the hearing the plaintiff has shown the probable truth of the allegations in his complaint, the Court may issue an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property. If an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property is issued without actual notice being given the defendant, the defendant may move to have said order dissolved and if he does not have possession of the property, for a return of the property. Notice of the right to move for return of said property shall be contained in the order for seizure and delivery of such property which shall be served upon the defendant or left in a conspicuous place where the property was seized, and the law enforcement agency designated by the Governor shall hold said property in such cases for three (3) working days prior to delivery to the plaintiff in order to give the defendant a reasonable opportunity to move for the return of such property. Notice of said motion with the date of the hearing shall be served upon the attorney for the plaintiff in the action. The motion shall be heard promptly, and in any case within ten (10) days after the date it is filed. The Court must grant the motion unless, at the hearing on defendant's motion, the plaintiff proves the probable truth of the allegations contained in his complaint. If said motion and notice is filed before the law enforcement agency designated by the Governor turns the property over to the plaintiff, such law enforcement agency shall retain control of the property pending the hearing on the motion.

C. The Court may, on request of the plaintiff, order the defendant not to conceal, damage or destroy the property or a part thereof and not to remove the property or a part thereof from the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation pending the hearing on plaintiff's request for an order for the prejudgment delivery of the property, and said order may be served with the summons.

SECTION 5-214.24

PENALTY FOR DAMAGE OF PROPERTY SUBJECT TO ORDER OF DELIVERY.

Court and Procedures

Any person who willfully and knowingly damages property in which there exists a valid right to issuance of an order of delivery, or on which such order has been sought under the provisions of this Title, or who conceals it, with the intent to interfere with enforcement of the order, or who removes it from the jurisdiction of the Court with the intention of defeating enforcement of an order of delivery, or who willfully refuses to disclose its location to an officer charged with executing an order for its delivery, or, if such property is in his possession, willfully interferes with the officer charged with executing such writ, may be held in civil contempt of Court, and shall be guilty of an offense, and if convicted of such offense shall be subject to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) and imprisonment for a term of not more than six (6) months, or both; and, in addition to such civil and criminal penalties, shall be liable to the plaintiff for double the amount of damage done to the property together with a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the Court, in which damages and fee shall be deemed based upon tortious conduct and enforced accordingly.

SECTION 5-214.25 UNDERTAKING IN REPLEVIN.

The order shall not be issued until there has been executed by one (1) or more sufficient sureties of the plaintiff, to be approved by the Court, an undertaking in not less than double the value of the property as stated in the complaint to the effect that the plaintiff shall duly prosecute the action, and pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against him, including attorney's fees and, if the property be delivered to him, that he will return the same to the defendant if a return be adjudged; provided, that where the Chickasaw Nation or its agents or subdivisions is a party plaintiff, an undertaking in replevin shall not be required of the plaintiff but a writ shall issue upon complaint duly filed as provided by law. The undertaking shall be filed with the Court and shall be subject to the provisions of Section 5-214.5 of this Title.

SECTION 5-214.26 REPLEVIN BOND; VALUE.

On application of either party which is made at the time of executing the replevin bond or the redelivery bond, or at a later date, with notice to the adverse party, the Court may hold a hearing to determine the value of the property which the plaintiff seeks to replevy. If the value as determined by the Court is different from that stated in the complaint, the value as determined by the Court shall control for the purpose of Sections 5-214.25 and 5-214.30 of this Title.

SECTION 5-214.27 ORDER OF DELIVERY.

The order for the delivery of the property to the plaintiff shall be addressed and delivered to the commanding officer of the law enforcement agency designated by the Governor. It shall state the names of the parties, the Court in which the action is brought, and command the law enforcement agency to take the property, describing it, and deliver it to the plaintiff as prescribed in this Act, and to make return of the order on a day to be named therein.

Court and Procedures

SECTION 5-214.28 ORDER RETURNABLE.

The return day of the order of delivery, when issued at the commencement of the suit, shall be the same as that of the summons; when issued afterwards, it shall be ten (10) days after it is issued.

SECTION 5-214.29 EXECUTION OF ORDER.

The commanding officer of the law enforcement agency designated by the Governor shall execute or cause the execution of the order by taking the property therein mentioned. He shall also deliver a copy of the order to the person charged with the unlawful detainer of the property, or leave such copy at his usual place of residence, or at the place such property was seized.

SECTION 5-214.30 RE-DELIVERY ON BOND.

If, within three (3) working days after service of the copy of the order, there is executed one (1) or more sufficient sureties of the defendant, to be approved by the Court or the commanding officer of the law enforcement agency designated by the Governor, an undertaking to the plaintiff in not less than double the amount of the value of the property as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff to the effect that the defendant will deliver the property to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and will pay all costs and damages that may be awarded against him, the commanding officer of the law enforcement agency designated by the Governor shall return or shall cause the return the property to the defendant. If such undertaking be not given within three (3) working days after service of the order, the commanding officer of the law enforcement agency designated by the Governor shall return or shall cause the return the property to the plaintiff.

SECTION 5-214.31 EXCEPTION TO SURETIES.

Any party for whose benefit an undertaking is made may except at any time to the sufficiency of the sureties on such undertaking. Such exception shall be made in writing and filed with the Court. Upon hearing, the Court shall make an order as is just to safeguard the rights of the parties.

SECTION 5-214.32 PROCEEDINGS ON FAILURE TO PROSECUTE ACTION.

If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff and Judgment rendered against him or his action be dismissed, or if he otherwise fails to prosecute his action to final judgment, the Court shall, on application of the defendant or his attorney, proceed to inquire into the right of property and right of possession of the defendant to the property taken.

SECTION 5-214.33

JUDGMENT; DAMAGES; ATTORNEY FEES.

In an action to recover the possession of personal property, Judgment for the plaintiff may be for the possession, the recovery of possession or the value thereof in case a delivery cannot be had and of damages for the detention. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff and the defendant claim a return thereof, Judgment for the defendant may be for a return of the property or the value thereof, in case a return cannot be had, and damages for taking and withholding the same. The Judgment rendered in favor of the prevailing party in such action may include a reasonable attorney fee to be set by the Court, to be taxed and collected as costs.

SECTION 5-214.34

OFFICER MAY BREAK INTO BUILDINGS.

Upon probable cause to believe that the property is concealed therein, but not until he has been refused entrance into said building or enclosure and the delivery of the property, after having demanded the same, or if no person having charge thereof is present, a law enforcement officer of the agency designated by the Governor, in the execution of the order of delivery issued by the Court, may break open any building or enclosure in which the property claimed or any part thereof is concealed.

SECTION 5-214.35

COMPELLING DELIVERY BY ATTACHMENT.

In an action to recover the possession of specific personal property, the Court may for good cause shown, before or after Judgment, compel the delivery of the property to the officer or party entitled thereto by attachment and may examine either party as to the possession or control of the property. Such authority shall only be exercised in aid of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter N.

SECTION 5-214.36

IMPROPER ISSUE OF ORDER OF DELIVERY.

Any order for the delivery of property issued under this Chapter N without the affidavit and undertaking required, shall be set aside and the plaintiff shall be liable in damages to the party injured.

SECTION 5-214.37 JOINDER OF CAUSE OF ACTION FOR DEBT; STAY OF JUDGMENT.

In any action for replevin in the Court, it shall be permissible for the plaintiff to join with the Claim in replevin a Claim founded on debt claimed to be owing to the plaintiff if the debt shall be secured by a lien upon the property sought to be recovered in the Claim in replevin. In such cases, the execution of the Judgment for debt shall be stayed pending the sale of the property and the determination of the amount of debt remaining unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale thereto.

SECTION 5-214.38 GROUND FOR ATTACHMENT.

The plaintiff in a civil action for the recovery of money may, at or after the commencement thereof, have an attachment against the property of the defendant, and upon proof of any of the following grounds:

1. when the defendant, or one (1) of several defendants, is a foreign corporation or a nonresident of the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation (but no order of attachment shall be issued on this Paragraph 1 for any Claim other than a debt or demand arising upon contract, Judgment or decree, unless the Claim arose wholly within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation);
2. when the defendant, or one (1) of several defendants, has absconded with intention to defraud his creditors;
3. when the defendant, or one (1) of several defendants, has left the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation to avoid the service of summons;
4. when the defendant, or one (1) of several defendants, so conceals himself that a summons cannot be served upon him;
5. when the defendant, or one (1) of several defendants, is about to remove his property, or a part thereof, out of the jurisdiction of the Court with the intent to defraud his creditors;
6. when the defendant, or one (1) of several defendants, is about to convert his property, or a part thereof, into money for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors;

Court and Procedures

7. when the defendant, or one (1) of several defendants, has property or rights in action, which he conceals;

8. when the defendant, or one (1) of several defendants, has assigned, removed or disposed of, or is about to dispose of, his property, or a part thereof, with the intent to defraud, hinder or delay his creditors;

9. when the defendant, or one (1) of several defendants, fraudulently contracted the debt, or fraudulently incurred the liability or obligations for which the suit has been brought;

10. where the damages for which the action is brought are for injuries arising from the commission of a criminal offense;

11. when the debtor has failed to pay the price or value of any article or thing delivered, which by contract he was bound to pay upon delivery; or

12. when the action is brought by the Chickasaw Nation or its officers, agents, or political agencies or subdivisions for the purpose of collection of any Chickasaw Nation tax, levy, charge, fee, assessment, rental, or debt arising in contract or by statute and owed to the Chickasaw Nation.

SECTION 5-214.39

ATTACHMENT AFFIDAVIT.

An order of attachment may be issued by the Court when:

1. there is a civil complaint filed in the Court stating a Claim for relief and an application that the Court issue an order of attachment which states facts which show:

- a. the nature of the plaintiff's Claim;
- b. that it is just;
- c. the amount which the affiant believes the plaintiff ought to recover; and
- d. the existence of one (1) of the grounds for an attachment enumerated in Section 5-214.38.

Court and Procedures

2. The application must be verified by the plaintiff, or, where his agent or attorney has personal knowledge of the facts, by said agent or attorney.

3. The defendant has been served with a notice, issued by the Clerk which shall notify the defendant that an order of attachment of property is requested and that he may object to the issuance of such an order by a written objection which is filed with the Court Clerk and mailed or delivered to the plaintiff's attorney within five (5) days of the receipt of the notice. A copy of plaintiff's application shall be attached to and served with the notice, and the notice and application may be served with the summons in the action.

4. If no written objection is filed within the five-day period, no hearing is necessary and the clerk may issue the order of attachment. If a written objection is filed within the five-day period, the Court shall, at the request of either party, set the matter for a prompt hearing with notice to the adverse party. If the plaintiff proves the probable merit of his cause and the truth of the matters asserted in his application for an order of attachment, the Court may issue the order of attachment. Provided, however, before an order of attachment is issued by either the Court or the Clerk, the Plaintiff has executed an undertaking pursuant to Section 5-214.40. The Chickasaw Nation and its agents shall not be required to execute an undertaking.

5. If the Court finds that the defendant cannot be given notice as provided herein, although a reasonable effort was made to notify him, but at the hearing the plaintiff proves the probable merit of his Claim and the truth of the matters asserted in his application, the Court may issue the order of attachment. The defendant may subsequently move to have the attachment vacated.

SECTION 5-214.40

ATTACHMENT BONDS.

The attachment bond for the benefit of the party whose property is attached shall be in such form and in such amount, not less than double the amount of the plaintiff's Claim, as the Court shall direct and shall guarantee payment of all damages, costs, and reasonable attorney fees incurred as a result of a wrongful attachment. No bond shall be required of the Chickasaw Nation.

SECTION 5-214.41

ORDER OF ATTACHMENT.

The order of attachment shall be directed and delivered to the law enforcement agency designated by the Governor. The order shall require the agency to attach the lands, tenements, goods, chattels, stocks, rights, credits, moneys and effects of the defendant within the Territorial Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation not exempt by law from being applied to the payment of the plaintiff's Claim, or so much thereof as will satisfy the plaintiff's Claim, to be stated in the order as in the affidavit and the probable cost of the action not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100).

SECTION 5-214.42 WHEN RETURNABLE.

The return day of the order of attachment when issued at the commencement of the action shall be the same as that of the summons, and otherwise within twenty (20) days of the date of issuance.

SECTION 5-214.43 ORDER OF EXECUTION.

Where there are several orders of attachment against the defendant, they shall be executed in the order in which they are received by the law enforcement agency.

SECTION 5-214.44 EXECUTION OF ATTACHMENT ORDER.

The order of attachment shall be executed by the law enforcement agency designated by the Governor without delay. An officer thereof shall go to the place within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation where the defendant's property may be found, and declare that, by virtue of said order, he attaches said property at the suit of the plaintiff. The officer shall make a true inventory and appraisalment of all the property attached, which shall be signed by the officer and returned with the order, leaving a copy of said inventory with the person or in the place from which the property was seized.

SECTION 5-214.45 SERVICE OF ORDER.

A. When the property attached is Real Property, the officer shall leave a copy of the order with the occupant or, if there be no occupant, then a copy of the order shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the Real Property. Where it is personal property and he can get possession, he shall take such into his custody and hold it subject to the order of the Court.

B. When the property attached is Real Property, third parties shall not be affected until a copy of the attachment order and the legal description of the Real Property attached shall be filed and placed of record in the Court.

C. When the subject Real Property lies within the jurisdiction of the State of Oklahoma or any other state, then the laws of such jurisdiction must be satisfied in order for the

Court and Procedures

Real Property to be attached. In such instances, entering the Judgment of the Court as a foreign Judgment in a court of that jurisdiction may be necessary.

SECTION 5-214.46 RE-DELIVERY ON BOND.

The law enforcement agency designated by the Governor shall re-deliver the property to the person in whose possession it was found upon the execution by such person, in the presence an officer of said law enforcement agency, an undertaking to the plaintiff, with one (1) or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that the parties to the same are bound, in double the appraised value thereof, that the property or its appraised value in money shall be forthcoming to answer the Judgment of the Court in the action.

SECTION 5-214.47 NATURE OF GARNISHMENT.

Garnishment is an aid to execution of Judgments entered by the Court or a Judgment of a foreign court to which the Court may grant comity as provided by Chickasaw Law. An order of garnishment before Judgment may not be obtained.

SECTION 5-214.48 WHEN GARNISHMENT AVAILABLE AFTER JUDGMENT; WRITTEN DIRECTIONS RELATING TO ORDER OF GARNISHMENT.

As an aid to the enforcement of the Judgment, an order of garnishment may be obtained and shall be issued by the Court in connection with an execution thereof as designated by the written direction of the party entitled to enforce the Judgment. JUDGMENTS; COSTS.

A. Judgment Upon Multiple Claims or Involving Multiple Parties. When more than one (1) Claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a Claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party Claim or when multiple parties are involved, the Court may direct the entry of a final Judgment as to one (1) or more but fewer than all of the Claims or parties only upon an express determination that there are no just reasons for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of Judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the Claims, or rights and liabilities of fewer than all of the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the Claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at anytime before the entry of Judgment adjudicating all the Claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.

B. Demand for Judgment; Default. A Judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for Judgment. Except as to a party against whom a Judgment is entered by default, every final Judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in his pleadings.

C. Costs. Except when express provision therefore is made either in a statute of the Chickasaw Nation or in this Act, costs shall be allowed as of course to the prevailing party unless the Court otherwise directs, but costs, including attorney fees and statutory authorization for collection of damages or requirement for bonds or undertakings, against the Chickasaw Nation, its officers and agencies shall be imposed only to the extent specifically permitted by Chickasaw law. A general statement in this Act that such are payable by a party or by the plaintiff or defendant is not authority to impose such costs, damages, or requirements upon the Chickasaw Nation, its officers, and agencies. Costs may be taxed by the Court on one (1) day's notice. On motion served within ten (10) days thereafter, the action of the Court may be reconsidered.

D. Applied to Probate Proceedings. A Judgment shall be considered a lawful debt in all proceedings held by the Court in the distribution of decedent's estates in accordance with Chickasaw and federal law.

SECTION 5-215.2

DEFAULT.

A. Entry. When a party against whom a Judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by this Act and that fact is made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, the Court shall enter his default.

B. Judgment. Judgment by default may be entered by the Court. In all cases the party who claims to be entitled to a Judgment by default shall apply to the Court therefore, but no Judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other such representative who has appeared therein. If the party against whom Judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, he (or, if appearing by representative, his representative) shall be served with written notice of the application for Judgment at least three (3) days prior to the hearing on such application. If, in order to enable the Court to enter Judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the Court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper and shall accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when and as required by any statute of the Chickasaw Nation.

C. Setting Aside Default. For good cause shown, the Court may set aside an entry of default and, if a Judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with Subsection 5-215.9. B.

D. Plaintiff, Counter Claimants, Cross-Claimants. The provisions of this Section apply whether the party entitled to the Judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases a Judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Subsection 5-215.1.B.

E. Judgment Against the Chickasaw Nation. No Judgment by default may be entered against the Chickasaw Nation, its officers, or agencies unless sixty (60) days written notice has been served upon the Governor and the Chickasaw Tribal Legislature. If during such sixty-day period the Chickasaw Nation is without counsel, no default may be entered until thirty (30) days after counsel has been procured by the Chickasaw Nation. During such period, the Chickasaw Nation its agencies and officers shall be allowed to cure any default. No Judgment by default shall be entered against the Chickasaw Nation its agencies or officers in any case unless the claimant establishes his Claim or right to relief, including his authority to bring the suit, and his damages by evidence satisfactory to the Court.

OFFER OF JUDGMENT.

At any time more than ten (10) days before the trial begins, a party defending against a Claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow Judgment to be taken against him for the money or property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. If within ten (10) days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the Court shall enter Judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the Judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. When the liability of one (1) party to another has been determined by verdict or order or Judgment, but the amount or extent of the liability, or both, remains to be determined by further proceedings, the party adjudged liable may make an offer of Judgment, which shall have the same effect as an offer made before trial if it is served within a reasonable time not less than ten (10) days prior to the commencement of hearings to determine the amount or extent of liability.

JUDGMENT FOR SPECIFIC ACTS; VESTING TITLE.

If a Judgment directs a party to execute a conveyance of land or to deliver deeds or other documents or to perform any other specific act in accordance with Chickasaw and Federal law and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the Court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the Court and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the Court shall issue a writ of attachment or sequestration against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the Judgment. The Court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt. If real or personal property is within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation and the interest in said property at issue in the action is not held in trust by the United States, the Court, in lieu of directing a conveyance of that interest, may enter a Judgment divesting the interest from any party and vesting it in others. Such Judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law. When any order or Judgment is for the delivery of possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution or assistance upon application.

SECTION 5-215.5

SUMMARY JUDGMENT.

A. For Claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a Claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory Judgment may, at any time after the expiration of twenty (20) days from the commencement of the action or after service of a motion for summary Judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary Judgment in his favor upon all or any part thereof.

B. For Defending Party. A party against whom a Claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory Judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary Judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

C. Motion and Proceedings Thereon. The motion shall be served at least ten (10) days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. The Judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a Judgment as a matter of law. A summary Judgment, interlocutory in character, may be entered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

D. Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Motion. If on motion under this Section Judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the Court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall, if practicable, ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

E. Forms of Affidavits; Further Testimony; Defense Required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The Court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary Judgment is made and supported as provided in this Section, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of his pleading, but his response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this Section, must set forth specific facts showing that there is genuine issue for trial. If he does not so respond, summary Judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against him.

F. When Affidavits are Unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that he cannot provide, for reasons stated by affidavit, facts essential to justify his opposition, the Court may refuse the application for Judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

G. Affidavits Made in Bad Faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the Court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this Section are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the Court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

SECTION 5-215.6 DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS.

The procedure for obtaining a declaratory Judgment in actions arising in equity or through contract, or pursuant to any specific Chickasaw Nation law authorizing a declaratory Judgment, shall be in accordance with this Act, and the right to trial by jury may be demanded under the circumstances and in the manner provided in Sections 5-213.3 and 5-213.4. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a Judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The Court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory Judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

SECTION 5-215.7 ENTRY OF JUDGMENT.

A. Subject to the provisions of Subsection 5-215.1.A, the Court shall promptly approve the form of the Judgment and shall thereupon enter it:

1. upon a general verdict of a jury, or upon a decision by the Court that a party shall recover only a sum certain or costs or all relief shall be denied; or
2. upon a decision by the Court granting other relief; or
3. upon a special verdict or a general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories.

B. Every Judgment shall be set forth on a separate document. A Judgment is effective only when so set forth and when entered in the civil docket book. Entry of the Judgment shall not be delayed for the taxing of costs. Attorneys shall not submit forms of Judgment except upon direction of the Court.

SECTION 5-215.8 NEW TRIALS; AMENDMENTS OF JUDGMENTS.

A. Grounds. A new trial is a re-examination in the same Court, of an issue of fact or of law, or both, and may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the following reasons:

Court and Procedures

1. irregularity in the proceedings of the Court, jury, referee, or prevailing party, or any order of the Court or referee, or abuse of discretion, by which the party was prevented from having a fair trial;
2. misconduct of the jury or prevailing party;
3. accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;
4. excessive or inadequate damages appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice;
5. error in the assessment of the amount of recovery, whether too large or too small, where the action is upon a contract or for the injury or detention of property;
6. that the verdict, report or decision is not sustained by sufficient evidence or is contrary to law;
7. newly-discovered evidence or material for the party applying which he could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the trial;
8. error of law occurring at the trial and objected to by the party making the application; or
9. when, without fault of the complaining party, it becomes impossible to make a record sufficient for appeal.

On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the Court may open the Judgment, if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions and direct the entry of a new Judgment.

B. Time for Motion. A motion for a new trial shall be served not later than ten (10) days after the entry of the Judgment, except that a motion based upon newly discovered evidence shall be made within one (1) year from the date of the Judgment.

C. Time for Serving Affidavits. When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has ten (10) days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding twenty (20) days either by the Court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The Court may permit reply affidavits.

D. On Initiative of Court. Not later than ten (10) days after entry of Judgment, the Court on its own initiative may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the Court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case, the Court shall specify in the order the grounds therefore.

E. Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment. A motion to alter or amend the Judgment shall be served not later than ten (10) days after entry of the Judgment.

F. Petition for New Trial on Grounds Discovered More than 10 Days After Judgment, Decree or Appealable Order was Filed.

Where the grounds for a new trial could not with reasonable diligence have been discovered before but are discovered more than ten (10) days after the judgment, decree, or appealable order was filed, or where the impossibility of preparing a record for an appeal, without fault of the complaining party, arose more than ten (10) days after the judgment, decree, or appealable order was filed, the application may be made by petition filed in the original case, as in other cases, within thirty (30) days after such discovery or occurrence; on which a summons shall issue, be returnable and served, or publication made, as in the beginning of civil actions, or service may be made on the attorney of record in the original case. The facts stated in the petition shall be considered as denied without answer, and the case shall be heard and summarily decided after the expiration of twenty (20) days from the date of service and not more than sixty (60) days after service, and the witnesses shall be examined in open court, or their depositions taken as in other cases; but no petition shall be filed more than one (1) year after the filing of the final judgment.

(PR21-002, 11/21/03)

RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER.

A. Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in Judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the Court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party. During the pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected before the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending, may be so corrected with leave of the Supreme Court.

B. Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud, etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the Court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final Judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons:

1. mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect;
2. newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Subsection 5-215.8.B;
3. fraud (whether denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;
4. the Judgment is void;
5. the Judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior Judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the Judgment should have prospective application; or
6. any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the Judgment.

C. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons in Paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 above not more than one (1) year after the Judgment, order or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under Subsection B above and this Subsection C does not affect the finality of a Judgment or suspend its operation. This Section does not limit the power of a Court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a Judgment, order or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant not actually personally notified of the proceedings, or to set aside a Judgment for fraud upon the Court. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, and bills of review or in the nature of a bill of review are abolished, and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a Judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in this Act or by an independent action.

SECTION 5-215.10 HARMLESS ERROR.

No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the Court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial, setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying or otherwise disturbing a Judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the Court inconsistent with substantial justice. The Court at every stage of the proceeding must disregard any error or defect in the proceeding which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

SECTION 5-215.11 STAY OF PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT.

A. Automatic Stay; Exceptions; Injunctions; Receiverships; Patent Accountings. Except as otherwise stated in this Act, no execution shall issue upon a Judgment nor shall proceedings be taken for its enforcement until the expiration of ten (10) days after its entry. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, an interlocutory or final Judgment in an action for an injunction or in a receivership action, or a Judgment or order directing an accounting, shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until an appeal is taken or during the pendency of an appeal. The provisions of Subsection C below govern suspending, modifying, restoring, or granting an injunction during the pendency of an appeal.

B. Stay on Motion for New Trial or for Judgment. In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the Court may stay the execution of any proceedings to enforce a Judgment pending the deposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a Judgment made pursuant to Section 5-215.8, or of a motion or relief from a Judgment or order made pursuant to Section 5-215.9, or of a motion for Judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to Section 5-213.37, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Subsection 5-213.31.B.

C. Injunction Pending Appeal. When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final Judgment granting, dissolving or denying an injunction, the Court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

D. Stay Upon Appeal. When an appeal is taken, the appellant, by giving a supersedeas bond, may obtain a stay subject to the exceptions contained in Subsection A above. The bond may be given at or after the time of filing the notice of appeal or of procuring the order allowing the appeal, as the case may be. The stay is effective when the supersedeas bond is approved by the Court.

E. Stay in Favor of the Chickasaw Nation or Agency Thereof. When an appeal is taken by the Chickasaw Nation or an officer or agency thereof or by direction of any department of the Government of the Chickasaw Nation, the operation or enforcement of the Judgment is stayed and no bond, obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.

Court and Procedures

F. Power of the Supreme Court Not Limited. The provisions in this Section do not limit any power of the Supreme Court or of a Justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the Judgment subsequently to be entered.

G. Stay of Judgment as to Multiple Claims or Multiple Parties. When the Court has ordered a final Judgment under the conditions stated in Subsection 5-215.1.A, the Court may stay enforcement of that Judgment until the entering of a subsequent Judgment or Judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the Judgment is entered.

SECTION 5-215.12 DISABILITY OF A JUDGE.

If by reason of death, sickness, or other disability, a District Court Judge before whom an action has been tried is unable to perform the duties to be performed by the Court under this Act after a verdict is returned or findings of fact and conclusions of law are filed, then any other District Court Judge, including a Judge appointed Specially under this Section, may perform those duties; but if such other Judge is satisfied that he cannot perform those duties because he did not preside at the trial or for any other reason, he may in his discretion grant a new trial.

SECTION 5-215.13 JUDGMENT AGAINST INFANT.

It shall not be necessary to reserve in a Judgment or order the right of a minor to show cause against it after his attaining majority; but in any case in which such reservation would be proper, the minor, within two (2) years after arriving at the age of eighteen (18) years, may show cause against such order of Judgment.

SECTION 5-215.14 JUDGMENTS AS LIENS.

Judgments of the Court shall be liens on real estate of the Judgment debtor within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation from and after the time a certified copy of such Judgment has been filed in the Court's land tract records book. A five dollar ($5) fee shall be collected for each requested filing in the land tract records book. No Judgment shall be a lien on the real estate of a Judgment debtor until it has been filed in this manner. Execution shall be issued only by the Court.

SECTION 5-215.15 DISCHARGE OF MONEY JUDGMENT LIENS.

Court and Procedures

In the event of an appeal to the Chickasaw Nation Supreme Court from a money Judgment, the lien of such Judgment, and any lien by virtue of an attachment issued and levied in the action in which such Judgment was rendered, shall cease upon the Judgment debtor or debtor's depositing, with the Supreme Court, cash sufficient to cover the whole amount of the Judgment including interest, costs and any attorney fees, together with costs and interest on the appeal, accompanied by a written statement, executed by the Judgment debtor or debtors, that such deposit is made to discharge the lien of such Judgment and any lien by virtue of an attachment issued and levied in the action, as provided for herein. It shall be the duty of the Court Clerk, upon receipt of such a cash deposit and written statement, immediately to enter the same and the amount of cash received upon the civil appearance docket in the action, upon the Judgment docket opposite the entry of such Judgment, and upon the land tract records book, if the Judgment has been filed therein. It shall further be the duty of the Court Clerk to deposit the cash so received in any action in a separate interest bearing official depository account and to hold the same pending final determination of the action, and, upon final determination of the action, to pay, or apply the same upon any Judgment that might be rendered against the depositor or depositors and to refund any balance in excess of any such Judgment to the depositor or depositors, or, in the event the action be finally determined in favor of the depositor or depositors, to refund the whole amount thereof to the depositor or depositors.

SECTION 5-215.16 ADDITIONAL CASH DEPOSITS.

A Judgment creditor may, at any time, upon reasonable notice to the Judgment debtor or debtors, move the Court for the deposit of additional cash. If it appears that the cash which has been deposited is insufficient to cover the whole amount of the Judgment, including interest, costs and any attorney fees, together with costs and interest on the appeal, the Court shall order the deposit of additional cash. If the additional cash is not deposited within a reasonable time, which time shall be set by the Court, the Judgment shall be revived and attachment may be issued thereon.

SECTION 5-215.17 REVERSAL BY SUPREME COURT.

In the event of a reversal of the Judgment by the Supreme Court, no money deposited to discharge the lien of such Judgment shall be refunded by the Court until final disposition of the action.

SECTION 5-215.18 INTEREST ON MONEY JUDGMENTS.

All money Judgments of the Court shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) simple interest per annum, except authorized Judgments against the Chickasaw Nation, its political subdivisions, and agents in their official capacity which Judgments shall not bear interest unless such is specifically provided for; provided, that when a rate of interest is specified in a contract, the rate therein shall apply to the Judgment debt and be specified in the Judgment if the rate does not exceed the lesser of any limitation imposed by Chickasaw Nation law or the law of the jurisdiction in which the contract was made upon the amount of interest which may be charged.

SECTION 5-215.19

EXEMPT PROPERTY; HOMESTEAD; AREA AND VALUE; INDIAN ALLOTTEES; TEMPORARY RENTING.

A. The following property shall be exempt, except as to enforcement of contractual liens or mortgages, from garnishment, attachment, execution and sale and other process for the payment of principal and interest, costs, and attorney fees upon any Judgment of the Court:

1. the homestead of such person; provided, that such home is the principal residence of such person; provided further, that such homestead, if not within any city or town, shall consist of not more than one hundred sixty (160) acres of land, which may be in one or more parcels, to be selected by the owner; provided further, that such homestead within any city or town, owned and occupied as a residence only, or used for both residential and business purposes, shall consist of an area not exceeding one (1) acre of land, to be selected by the owner. For purposes of this Paragraph 1, at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the total square foot area of the improvements for which an exemption is claimed must be used as the principal residence in order to qualify for the exemption. If more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total square foot area of the improvements for which an exemption is claimed is used for business purposes, the exemption amount shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000). Any temporary renting of the homestead shall not change the character of the same when no other homestead has been acquired;

20. any interest in a retirement plan or arrangement qualified for tax exemption purposes under present or future Chickasaw or federal law; provided, such interest shall be exempt only to the extent that contributions by or on behalf of a participant were not subject to federal income taxation to such participant at the time of such contributions, plus earnings and other additions thereon; provided further, any transfer or rollover contribution between retirement plans or arrangements which avoids current federal income taxation shall not be deemed a transfer which is fraudulent as to a creditor under Chickasaw or federal law. "Retirement plan or arrangement qualified for tax exemption purposes" shall include without limitation, trusts, custodial accounts, insurance, annuity contracts and other properties and rights constituting a part thereof. By way of example and not by limitation, retirement plans or arrangements qualified for tax exemption purposes permitted under present Chickasaw and federal law include defined contribution plans and defined benefit plans as defined under the Internal Revenue Code, individual retirement accounts, individual retirement annuities, simplified employee pension plans, Keogh plans, IRC Section 403(a) annuity plans, IRC Section 403(b) annuities, and eligible state deferred compensation plans governed under IRC Section 457. This provision shall be in addition to, and not a limitation of, any other provision of the Chickasaw Nation Code which grants an exemption from attachment or execution and every other species of forced sale for the payment of debts. B. In no event shall any property under Paragraph 5 or 6 of Subsection A above, the total value of which exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), of any person residing within the Jurisdiction of the Chickasaw Nation be deemed exempt.

C. Nothing in the laws of the Chickasaw Nation or United States, or any treaties between the Chickasaw Nation and the United States, shall deprive any Chickasaw allottee or other Indian allottee of the benefit of the exemptions provided by this Section or any other section of the Chickasaw Nation Code.

SECTION 5-215.20

PAYMENT OF JUDGMENTS FROM INDIVIDUAL INDIAN MONEYS.

Whenever the Court shall have ordered payment of money damages to an injured party and the debtor refuses or neglects to make such payment within the time set for payment by the Court, or when an execution is returned showing no property found and when the debtor has sufficient funds to his credit at any Bureau of Indian Affairs Agency Office to pay all or part of such Judgment, the Clerk of the Court, upon request of the Judgment creditor, shall certify the record to the superintendent of the agency, who shall certify to the Secretary of the Interior the record of the cash and the amount of the available funds. If the Secretary shall so direct, the disbursing agent shall pay over to the Judgment creditor the amount of the Judgment or such lessor amount as may be specified by the Secretary from the account of the Judgment debtor.

B. The court shall hold a hearing on the date provided. At the hearing, the court shall examine the application for determination of Competency to determine if the application alleges facts sufficient to raise a doubt as to the Competency of the person. Any additional evidence tending to create a doubt as to the Competency of the person may be presented at this hearing.

C. If the court finds there is no doubt as to the Competency of the person, it shall order the Criminal Proceedings to resume.

D. If the court finds there is a doubt as to the Competency of the person, it shall order the person to be examined by a Qualified Forensic Examiner employed by or under contract with the appropriate Chickasaw Nation department or division with the authority to conduct such Competency examinations (the "Examining Department").

1. The Examining Department shall receive written notice from the prosecutor and shall be authorized by order of the court to participate with professionals assigned by any other public or private agency in any Competency evaluation wherein developmental or intellectual disability may be involved.

2. The Examining Department's Qualified Forensic Examiner may issue a separate opinion and recommendation to the court. The person shall be examined by a Qualified Forensic Examiner on an outpatient basis prior to referral for any necessary inpatient evaluation, as ordered by the court. The examination may be conducted in the community, the jail or detention facility where the person is held. The Qualified Forensic Examiner shall have access to all records and documents necessary to assist in the examination of the person whose Competency is in question.

3. If the court determines that the person whose Competency is in question may be Dangerous, it shall order the person retained in a secure facility until the completion of the Competency hearing provided in Section 5-502.4. If the court determines the person may be Dangerous, the court may commit the person to the custody of the appropriate Chickasaw Nation Department or any other tribal or state agency or private facility for the examination. E. The Qualified Forensic Examiner(s) shall receive instructions in the court's order that they shall examine the person whose Competency is in question to determine:

1. If the person is able to understand the nature of the charges and Criminal Proceedings brought against him or her;
2. If the person is able to assist counsel in conducting a defense in a rational manner;

B. The court, at the hearing, shall determine by a preponderance of the evidence if the person is Incompetent. Such determination shall include consideration of all reports prepared by the Qualified Forensic Examiner(s). The person shall be presumed to be Competent for the purposes of the allocation of the burden of proof and burden of going forward with the evidence. The person shall not have a right to a jury trial for the determination of Competency.

C. The person whose Competency is in question shall have the right to be present at the hearing on the application unless the court determines that the presence of the person makes it impossible to conduct the hearing in a reasonable manner. The court may not decide in advance of the hearing, solely based on the certificate of the examining Qualified Forensic Examiner that the person whose Competency is in question should not be allowed to appear. The court shall determine based on clear and convincing evidence that alternatives to exclusion were attempted before the court renders the person's removal for that purpose or the person's appearance at such hearing improper and unsafe.

D. All witnesses shall be subject to cross-examination in the same manner as is provided by law. F. Post-Imprisonment Supervision. The Court may include in the sentence of any person who is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a term of confinement greater than one year a term of post-imprisonment supervision. The post-imprisonment supervision shall be for a period of one (1) year following release of confinement of the person and shall be served under conditions prescribed by the supervising department. Should the Defendant fail to comply with the restrictions and conditions of post-imprisonment supervision, the Defendant may be sanctioned to serve a term of imprisonment of up to six (6) months.

G. Restitution. When restitution is ordered, the Court shall specify the amount, method of payment, and payment schedule. The Defendant may request a hearing before restitution is ordered.

SECTION 5-701.4

PROBATION; VIOLATIONS OF THE RULES, RESTRICTIONS AND CONDITIONS OF PROBATION;
DISMISSAL AND EXPUNGEMENT AFTER DEFERRED SENTENCE.

A. Probation Office. In the event the Court orders the Defendant to supervised probation, the probation office shall be responsible for the following:

1. explaining the conditions specified by the Court and provide the Defendant with the rules of probation;
2. aiding the Defendant to bring about improvements in their conduct and condition;
3. monitoring Defendant's compliance with the rules and conditions of probation and report any violations of conditions of release to the Prosecutor;
4. imposing remedial measures to cure violations of conditions; and
5. performing any other duty that the Court may order.

B. Violations of Conditions of Probation. If a Defendant violates a restriction or condition of probation, then the Prosecutor may move the Court to accelerate a deferred sentence or revoke a suspended sentence. The motion shall set forth the grounds describing such violations by the Defendant. The Prosecutor may issue the Defendant a summons to appear or seek an arrest warrant from the Court. The Court shall set the matter for hearing within 30 days after the entry of the plea of not guilty to the motion, unless waived by both the Prosecutor and the Defendant. The Prosecutor shall prove by a preponderance of the evidence the Defendant violated the restrictions or conditions of probation. Upon a finding of a violation of a restriction or condition of probation, an appropriate sanction may be ordered, including imposition of sentence. The Defendant shall have no right to a trial by a jury for violations of conditions of probation.

C. Failure to Pay Fine.

1. If a Defendant sentenced to pay a fine fails to make payment as ordered, the Court, on its own accord, may order that the Defendant show cause why sanctions should not be imposed for failure to pay.

2. Show Cause Hearing. Notice of a show cause hearing shall be served on the Defendant personally or by first class mail at the address provided by the Defendant at least five days prior to the date set for hearing. In the event service is not obtained or Defendant fails to appear at the hearing, the Court may issue a bench warrant. If the Court determines that the Defendant's nonpayment was attributable to an intentional refusal to obey the Court's order or that the Defendant failed to make a good faith effort to make the ordered payments, then the Court may impose sanctions, including incarceration. If the Court determines that the Defendant's nonpayment was not attributable to an intentional refusal, the Court may modify the original sentence, judgment, or order, allowing the Defendant additional time to pay the fine or reducing the amount owed. Nothing contained herein prohibits the Prosecutor from filing a motion for violations of conditions of probation.

D. Failure to Pay Restitution.

1. If a Defendant sentenced to pay restitution fails to make payment as ordered, the Prosecutor may move that the Defendant show cause why sanctions should not be imposed for failure to pay.

2. Show Cause Hearing. Notice of a show cause hearing shall be served on the Defendant personally or by first class mail at the address provided by the Defendant at least five days prior to the date set for hearing. In the event service is not obtained or Defendant fails to appear at the hearing, the Court may issue a bench warrant. If the Court determines that the Defendant's nonpayment was attributable to an intentional refusal to obey the Court's order or that the Defendant failed to make a good faith effort to make the ordered payments, the Court may impose sanctions, including incarceration. If the Court determines that the Defendant's nonpayment was not attributable to an intentional refusal, the Court may modify the original sentence, judgment or order, allowing the Defendant additional time to pay the restitution. Nothing contained herein prohibits the Prosecutor from filing a motion for violations of conditions of probation.

E. Dismissal and Expungement after Deferred Sentencing. Whenever the Court has deferred the imposition of sentence, and after expiration of the period of deferral and the Defendant's successful completion of any conditions of deferral, upon motion by the Court, the Defendant, or the Defendant's counsel, the Court shall allow the Defendant to withdraw his or her plea of guilty or strike the verdict or judgment expunging the Court records of all record of the proceedings by entering an order of dismissal of charges and expungement, inscribing each record of the proceedings with the word "Expunged" and sealing the file.

SECTION 5-701.5 RESERVED.
(PR38-014, 02/22/2021)

SECTION 5-701.6 RESERVED.
(PR38-014, 02/22/2021)

SECTION 5-701.7 NEW TRIAL.

The Court, on motion of a Defendant, may grant a new trial if required in the interest of justice. If trial was by the Court without a jury, the Court, on motion of a Defendant for a new trial, may vacate the judgment, if entered, take additional testimony, and direct the entry of a new judgment. A motion for a new trial based on the ground of newly discovered evidence may be made at any time, but, if an appeal is pending, the Court may grant the motion only on remand of the case. A motion for a new trial based on any other grounds shall be made within seven (7) days after verdict or finding of guilty or within such further time as the Court may fix during the seven (7) day period. (TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR38-014, 02/22/2021)

SECTION 5-701.9 COMMUTATION.

Questions

Court and Procedures

(PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-701.10 CONDITIONAL PARDONS.

"Conditional Pardon" shall mean a pardon which remains in effect as long as conditions are met but becomes voidable when any condition of the pardon is violated. The Governor is vested with the sole power to issue Conditional Pardons after convictions, except in cases of impeachment, provided that its issuance is not illegal, immoral, or impossible to be performed. When a convicted person is released by the Chickasaw Nation, he remains theoretically a prisoner of the Chickasaw Nation while he continues to be free under terms and conditions of a Conditional Pardon. A Conditional Pardon is granted as to the sentence, but the crime stays on the convicted person's record. The Governor may enact a Conditional Pardon in stages.

(PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-701.11 REVOCATION OF PARDONS OR COMMUTATIONS.

Where a convicted person was granted and accepted a Conditional Pardon or Commutation which expressly provided that the Governor might revoke the same and remand the party to prison for a violation of the conditions or for any other reason by him deemed sufficient, the Governor may order the convicted person to be so remanded without notice to him, and without giving him the opportunity to be heard. (PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-701.12 MODIFICATION OF SENTENCE.

A. At any time after a deferred or suspended sentence has been imposed, the Prosecutor may make a written request that the Defendant's sentence be modified if the Defendant has failed to abide by the terms and conditions of probation, including but not limited to, acceleration of a deferred sentence or revocation of a suspended sentence.

B. Upon motion by the Prosecutor, the Court shall set a hearing which shall be conducted no later than thirty (30) days thereafter, unless for good cause shown. The Defendant shall not have a right to a jury trial regarding sentence modification.

C. A motion for sentence modification must be made prior to the end of the Defendant's term of probation. Motions made after the termination of the Defendant's probation term shall not be considered and shall be denied.

Court and Procedures

D. If, after hearing, the Court determines the Defendant's sentence should be modified, accelerated or revoked, the Court shall enter orders regarding the modified, accelerated or revoked sentence and its terms and conditions. A sentence modified, accelerated or revoked under this Section shall not exceed the terms of the original sentence imposed.

B. Probable Cause. A warrant shall issue only on an affidavit or affidavits sworn to before a Judge and establishing grounds for issuing the warrant. If the Judge is satisfied that grounds for the application exist or that there is probable cause to believe that they exist, he shall issue a warrant identifying the property and naming or describing the person or place to be searched. The finding of probable cause may be based on hearsay evidence either in whole or in part. Before ruling on a request for a warrant, the Judge may require the affiant to appear personally and be examined under oath.

C. Contents of Search Warrants. Every search warrant shall contain the name and address of the Court and the signature of the Judge issuing the warrant. It shall specifically describe the place to be searched and the items to be searched for and seized. The warrant shall be directed to any law enforcement officer authorized under this Section and shall command such officer to search, within a specified period of time not to exceed ten (10) days, the person or place named in the warrant for the property or persons specified, and contain the date on which it was issued.

D. Service of Search Warrants. Search warrants shall be served between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m., unless otherwise directed on the warrant by the Judge who issued it. A copy of the warrant shall be left with an occupant or owner over sixteen (16) years of age of the place searched if present during said search. If the place to be searched is not occupied at the time of the search, a copy of the warrant shall be left in some conspicuous place on the premises. The officer may break open any outer or inner door or window of a place to be searched, or any part of any place to be searched, or anything thereon to execute a search warrant, if after notice of his authority and purpose, he is denied or refused admittance, when necessary to liberate himself, or a person aiding in the execution of the warrant or when the premises to be searched are unoccupied at the time of the search.

E. Inventory. The officer serving a search warrant shall make a signed inventory of all property seized and attached such inventory to the warrant. A copy of the inventory and search warrant shall be left with an occupant or owner over sixteen (16) years of age if present during the search or left in a conspicuous place with the search warrant if an occupant is not present during the search.

6. in any other circumstances wherein federal law has held that a search without obtaining a warrant prior to the search in those circumstances would not be unreasonable.

I. A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the Court for the return of the property, not contraband, on the ground that he is entitled to lawful possession of the property illegally seized. The Judge may receive evidence on any issue of fact necessary to the decision of the motion. If the motion is granted, the property shall be returned, if not contraband, and shall not be admissible at any hearing or trial.

J. A law enforcement officer may stop any person in a public place whom he has reasonable cause to believe is in the act of committing an offense, or has committed an offense, or is attempting to commit an offense and demand of him his name, address, an explanation of his actions and may, if he has reasonable grounds to believe his own safety or the safety of other nearby is endangered, conduct a frisk type search of such person for weapons.

C. Whenever possible, the officer should obtain a written statement that the person knows these rights, understands, and waives them prior to taking a voluntary statement from a defendant or conducting a warrantless, consensual search, provided that the absence of such a written statement does not preclude the admission of the statement or other evidence if the Court determines that the statement or consent to search were voluntary.

B. A peace officer may arrest without a warrant a person anywhere, including a place of residence, if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person within the preceding seventy-two (72) hours has committed an act of domestic abuse, although the assault did not take place in the presence of the peace officer. A peace officer may not arrest a person pursuant to this Section without first observing a recent physical injury to, or an impairment of the physical condition of, the alleged victim.

C. When the Court is not open for business, the victim of domestic abuse may request a petition for an emergency temporary order of protection. The peace officer making the preliminary investigation shall:

1. provide the victim with a petition for an emergency temporary order of protection and, if necessary, assist the victim in completing the petition form. The petition shall be in substantially the same form as provided by the Court Clerk;

Court and Procedures

2. immediately notify, by telephone or otherwise, a Judge of the District Court of the request for an emergency temporary order of protection and describe the circumstances. The Judge shall inform the peace officer of the decision to approve or disapprove the emergency temporary order;

3. inform the victim whether the Judge has approved or disapproved the emergency temporary order. If an emergency temporary order has been approved, the officer shall provide the victim, or a responsible adult if the victim is a minor child or an incompetent person, with a copy of the petition and a written statement signed by the officer attesting that the Judge has approved the emergency temporary order of protection and notify the victim that the emergency temporary order shall be effective only until the close of business on the next day that the Court is open for business;

4. notify the person subject to the emergency temporary protection order of the issuance and conditions of the order. Notification pursuant to this Paragraph may be made personally by the officer or in writing. A copy of the petition and the statement of the officer attesting to the order of the Judge shall be made available to such person; and

5. File a copy of the petition and the statement of the officer with the Court immediately upon the opening of the Court on the next day it is open for business.

SECTION 5-1201.11

VIOLATION OF ORDER; WARRANTLESS ARREST; PRESUMPTION OF VALIDITY OF ORDERS.

A. Pursuant to Section 5-901.2 of this Title, a Law Enforcement Officer, without a warrant, shall arrest and take into custody a person if the Law Enforcement Officer has reasonable cause to believe that:

1. An Order has been issued and served upon the person pursuant to this Chapter;

2. A true copy and proof of service of the Order has been filed with the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction of the area in which the Petitioner or any family or household member named in the Order resides or a certified copy of the Order and proof of service is presented to the Law Enforcement Officer as provided in Subsection D of this Section;

3. The person named in the Order has received notice of the Order and has had a reasonable time to comply with the Order; and

Court and Procedures

4. The person named in the Order has violated the Order or is then acting in violation of the Order.

B. A Law Enforcement Officer, without a warrant, shall arrest and take into custody a person if the following conditions have been met:

1. The Law Enforcement Officer has reasonable cause to believe that a Foreign Protective Order has been issued, pursuant to the law of the state or tribal court where the Foreign Protective Order was issued;

2. A copy of the Foreign Protective Order has been presented to the Law Enforcement Officer that appears valid on its face; and

3. The Law Enforcement Officer has reasonable cause to believe the person named in the Order has violated the Order or is then acting in violation of the Order.

C. A person arrested pursuant to this Section shall be brought before the Court after arrest, pursuant to Section 5-501.4(A), to answer to a charge for violation of the Order, at which time the court shall do each of the following:

1. Set a time certain for a hearing on the alleged violation of the Order within seventy-two (72) hours after arrest, unless extended by the court on the motion of the arrested person;

2. Set a reasonable bond pending a hearing of the alleged violation of the Order, provided, however, that the court may also consider the safety of any and all alleged victims that are subject to the protection of the Order prior to the Court setting a reasonable bond pending a hearing of the alleged violation of the Order; and

3. Notify the party who has procured the Order and direct the party to appear at the hearing and give evidence on the charge.

D. A copy of a Protective Order shall be prima facie evidence that such Order is valid in this jurisdiction when such documentation is presented to a Law Enforcement Officer by the plaintiff, defendant, or another person on behalf of a person named in the Order. Any Law Enforcement Officer may rely on such evidence to make an arrest for a violation of such Order, if there is reason to believe the defendant has violated or is then acting in violation of the Order without justifiable excuse. When a Law Enforcement Officer relies upon the evidence specified in this subsection, such officer and the employing agency shall be immune from liability for the arrest of the defendant if it is later proved that the evidence was false.

SECTION 5-1201.12

PRESENTATION OF AN ALTERED OR FALSE

A. It shall be unlawful to knowingly and willfully present any false or materially altered Protective Order to any Law Enforcement Officer to effect an arrest of any person.

(PR38-022, 5/24/2021)

CHAPTER 13
RULES OF EVIDENCE

ARTICLE A GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 5-1301.1	Scope.
Section 5-1301.2	Purpose and Construction.
Section 5-1301.3	Rulings on Evidence.
Section 5-1301.4	Preliminary Questions.
Section 5-1301.5	Limited Admissibility.
Section 5-1301.6	Remainder or Related Writings or Recorded Statements.

SECTION 5-1301.1 SCOPE.

This Chapter 13 governs evidentiary questions in all proceedings in the Court, whether civil, criminal, juvenile, or otherwise, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by Chickasaw law. (PR21-009, 2/20/04)

SECTION 5-1301.2 PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION.

These provisions on rules of evidence shall be constructed to secure fairness in administration, elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay, and promotion of growth and development of the law of evidence to the end that the truth may be ascertained and proceedings justly determined. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1301.3 RULINGS ON EVIDENCE.

A. Effect of Erroneous Ruling. Error may not be predicated, nor a judgment reversed or modified, upon a ruling which admits or excludes evidence unless a substantive right of the party is affected, and:

1. Objection. In case the ruling is one admitting evidence, a timely objection or motion to strike appears of record, stating the specific ground of objection, if the specific ground was not apparent from the context; or
2. Offer of Proof. In case the ruling is one excluding evidence, the substance of the evidence was made known to the court by offer of proof, or was apparent from the context within which questions were asked.

B. Record of Offer and Ruling. The court may add any other or further statement which shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. It may direct the making of an offer in question and answer form.

C. Hearing of Jury. In jury cases, proceedings shall be conducted, to the extent practicable, so as to prevent inadmissible evidence from being suggested to the jury by any means, such as making statements or offers of proof or asking questions in the hearing of the jury. Questions on evidentiary matters known to be in issue prior to trial may be determined by a hearing prior to trial, and the matter does not have to be raised at the trial by the party whose evidence is ruled inadmissible in order to preserve the error so long as the error is apparent from the transcript of the hearing. Questions which arise concerning the admissibility of evidence during the trial may be resolved in open court, if practicable, at a hearing at the bench out of the hearing of the jury, if practicable, or a recess may be taken and a hearing held upon the admissibility of the evidence at issue.

D. Plain Error. Nothing in this Section precludes taking notice of plain errors affecting substantive rights although they were not brought to the attention of the Court.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1301.4

PRELIMINARY QUESTIONS.

A. Questions of Admissibility Generally. Preliminary questions concerning the qualification of a person to be a witness, the existence of a privilege, or the admissibility of evidence shall be determined by the Court, subject to the provisions of Subsection B below. In making its determination, the Court is not bound by this Chapter except those provisions with respect to privileges.

B. Relevancy Conditioned on Fact. When the relevancy of evidence depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the court shall admit it upon, or may admit it subject to, the introduction of evidence sufficient to support a finding of the fulfillment of the condition.

C. Hearing of Jury. Hearings on the admissibility of confessions in a criminal case shall in all cases be conducted out of the hearing of the jury. Hearings on other preliminary matters shall be so conducted when the interests of justice require or, when an accused in a criminal case is a witness, if he so requests.

D. Testimony by Accused. The accused in a criminal case does not, by testifying upon a preliminary matter, or other matter which would be heard outside the hearing of the jury, if any, subject himself to cross-examination as to other issues in the case. The accused in a criminal case waives his right against self-incrimination as to all issues in the case by testifying upon any fact pertaining to any element of the charge against him during the actual trial of the case before the jury or other finder of fact.

E. Weight and Credibility. This Section does not limit the right of a party to introduce before the jury evidence relevant to weight or credibility.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1301.5 LIMITED ADMISSIBILITY.

When evidence which is admissible as to one party or for one purpose but not admissible as to another party or for another purpose is admitted, the Court, upon request, shall restrict the evidence to its proper scope and instruct the jury accordingly. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1301.6 REMAINDER OR RELATED WRITINGS OR RECORDED STATEMENTS.

When a writing or recorded statement or part thereof is introduced by a party, an adverse party may require him at that time to introduce any other part or any other writing or recorded statement which ought in fairness to be considered contemporaneously with it.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

ARTICLE B JUDICIAL NOTICE

Section 5-1302.1 Judicial Notice of Adjudicative Facts.

SECTION 5-1302.1 JUDICIAL NOTICE OF ADJUDICATIVE FACTS.

A. Scope of Chapter. This Chapter 13 governs only judicial notice of adjudicative facts in the courts of the Chickasaw Nation, including the CFR Court when sitting as a court for the Chickasaw Nation.

B. Kinds of Facts. A judicially-noticed fact must be one not subject to reasonable dispute in that it is either:

1. generally known within the territorial jurisdiction of the Court; or
2. capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

C. When Discretionary. The Courts may take judicial notice, whether requested or not.

D. When Mandatory. The Courts shall take judicial notice if requested by a party and supplied with the necessary information, or when required to do so by Chickasaw law.

E. Opportunity to be Heard. A party is entitled upon timely request to an opportunity to be heard as to the propriety of taking judicial notice and the tenor of the matter noticed. In the absence of prior notification, the request may be made after judicial notice has been taken.

F. Time of Taking Notice. Judicial notice may be taken at any stage of the proceeding.

G. Instructing Jury. In a civil action or proceeding, the Court shall instruct the jury to accept as conclusive any fact judicially noticed. In a criminal case, the Court shall instruct the jury that it may, but is not required to, accept as conclusive any fact judicially-noticed.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

ARTICLE C PRESUMPTIONS

Section 5-1303.1 Presumptions in General in Civil and Criminal Actions and Proceedings.

SECTION 5-1303.1 PRESUMPTIONS IN GENERAL IN CIVIL AND CRIMINAL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS.

In all civil and criminal actions and proceedings, a presumption imposes upon the party against whom it is directed the burden of going forward with evidence to rebut or meet the presumption, but does not shift to the party the burden of proof in the sense of the risk of non-persuasion, which remains throughout the trial upon the party on whom it was originally cast.

SECTION 5-1304.1 DEFINITION OF "RELEVANT EVIDENCE."

"Relevant Evidence" means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1304.2 RELEVANT EVIDENCE GENERALLY ADMISSIBLE; IRRELEVANT EVIDENCE INADMISSIBLE.

All Relevant Evidence is admissible, except as otherwise provided by applicable law of the Chickasaw Nation. Evidence which is not relevant is not admissible.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1304.3 EXCLUSION OF RELEVANT EVIDENCE ON GROUNDS

OF PREJUDICE, CONFUSION, OR WASTE OF TIME.

Although relevant, evidence may be excluded if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or misleading the jury, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence; or if it is inadmissible pursuant to some section of this Chapter. In criminal proceedings on charges of Rape or Lewd or Indecent Proposals or Acts as to Child Under 16; Sexual Battery, evidence concerning the prior sexual conduct of a victim may be excluded if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or misleading the jury. (TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1304.4

CHARACTER EVIDENCE NOT ADMISSIBLE TO PROVE CONDUCT; EXCEPTIONS; OTHER CRIMES.

A. Character evidence generally. Evidence of a person's character or a trait of his character is not admissible for the purpose of proving that he acted in conformity therewith on a particular occasion, except:

1. Character of accused. Evidence of a pertinent trait of his character offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same after the accused has offered such character evidence;

2. Character of victim. Evidence of a pertinent trait of character of the victim of the crime offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same after the accused has offered such character evidence, or evidence of a character trait of peacefulness of the victim offered by the prosecution in a homicide case to rebut evidence that the victim was the first aggressor;

3. Character of witness. Evidence of the character of a witness, as provided in Sections 5-1306.7, 5-1306.8 and 5-1306.9 of this Chapter; and

4. Other crimes, wrongs, or acts. Evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts is not admissible to prove the character of a person in order to show that he acted in conformity therewith. It may, however, be admissible for other purposes, such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

METHODS OF PROVING CHARACTER.

A. Reputation or opinion. In all cases in which evidence of character or a trait of character of a person is admissible, proof may be made by testimony as to reputation or by testimony in the form of an opinion. On cross-examination, inquiry is allowable into relevant specific instances of conduct.

B. Specific instances of conduct. In cases in which character or a trait of character of a person is an essential element of a charge, claim, or defense, proof may also be made of specific instances of his conduct.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

HABIT; ROUTINE PRACTICE.

Evidence of the habit of a person or of the routine practice of an organization, whether corroborated or not and regardless of the presence of eyewitnesses, is relevant to prove that the conduct of the person or organization on a particular occasion was in conformity with the habit or routine practice. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1304.7

SUBSEQUENT REMEDIAL MEASURES.

When, after an event, measures are taken which, if taken previously, would have made the event less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to prove negligence or culpable conduct in connection with the event, in order to encourage additional safety measures to be taken for the protection of the public whether or not the previous measures were sufficient to prevent a finding of negligent or culpable conduct. This Section does not require the exclusion of evidence of subsequent measures when offered for another purpose, such as proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measure, if controverted, or impeachment.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

COMPROMISE AND OFFERS TO COMPROMISE.

A. In order to encourage the non-judicial settlement of disputes, evidence of (1) furnishing or offering or promising to furnish, or (2) accepting or offering or promising to accept, a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise a claim which was disputed as to either validity or amount, is not admissible to prove liability for or invalidity of the claim or its amount. Evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise negotiations is likewise not admissible.

B. This Section does not require the exclusion of any evidence otherwise discoverable merely because it is presented in the course of compromise negotiations. This Section also does not require exclusion when the evidence is offered for another purpose, such as proving bias or prejudice of a witness, negating a contention of undue delay, or proving an effort to obstruct a criminal investigation or prosecution.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1304.9 PAYMENT OF MEDICAL AND SIMILAR EXPENSES.

In order to encourage non-judicial settlement of disputes and to encourage persons to assist one another for their own benefit, evidence of furnishing or offering or promising to pay, or the payment of medical, hospital, or similar expenses occasioned by an injury is not admissible to prove liability for the injury. Evidence of payment of such charges may be introduced by the person making such payment for the purpose of reducing a judgment for damages. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1304.10 INADMISSIBILITY OF PLEAS, OFFERS OF PLEAS, AND RELATED STATEMENTS.

A. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, evidence of a plea of guilty, later withdrawn, or a plea of nolo contendere, or of any offer to plead guilty or nolo contendere to the crime charged or any other crime, or of any statements made in connection with, and relevant to, any of the foregoing pleas or offers, is not admissible in any civil or criminal proceeding against the person who made the plea or offer. However, evidence of a statement made in connection with, and relevant to, a plea of guilty, later withdrawn, a plea of nolo contendere, or an offer to plead guilty or nolo contendere to the crime charged or any other crime, is admissible in a criminal proceeding for perjury or false statement if the statement was made by the defendant under oath, on the record, and in the presence of counsel.

B. A plea of guilty which has not been withdrawn, and statements made in connection therewith are admissible if relevant in any criminal or civil proceeding.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1304.11 LIABILITY INSURANCE.

A. Evidence that a person was or was not insured against liability is not admissible upon the issue of whether he acted negligently or otherwise wrongfully. This Section does not require the exclusion of evidence of insurance against liability when offered for another purpose, such as proof of agency, ownership, or control, or bias or prejudice of a witness.

B. In the sound discretion of the Court, evidence that a person was or was not insured against liability and the limits of coverage and any other relevant factor is admissible in a bifurcated jury or judge trial sounding in tort, or otherwise, in the second phase of the trial upon the issue of the amount of actual and consequential damages to be awarded, after liability has been determined in the first phase of the trial.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

1. Specific instances of sexual behavior if offered for a purpose other than the issue of consent, including proof of the source of semen, pregnancy, disease, or injury;

2. False allegations of sexual offenses; or

3. Similar sexual acts in the presence of the accused with persons other than the accused which occurs at the time of the event giving rise to the sexual offense alleged.

section, the defendant shall file a written motion to offer such evidence accompanied by an offer of proof not later than fifteen (15) days before the date of the trial in which such evidence is to be offered, except that the court may allow the motion to be made at a later date, including during trial, if the court determines either that the evidence is newly discovered and could not have been obtained earlier through the exercise of due diligence or that the issue to which such evidence relates has newly arisen in the case. Any motion made under this paragraph shall be served on all other parties by counsel for the defendant and on the alleged victim by the prosecutor.

D. If the court determines that the motion and offer of proof described in Subsection C contains evidence described in subsection B of this section, the court may order an in-camera hearing to determine whether the proffered evidence is admissible under subsection B of this section.

2. Claimants through same deceased Client. As to a communication relevant to an issue between parties who claim through the same deceased Client, regardless of whether the claims are by testate or intestate succession or by inter vivos transaction;
3. Breach of duty by a Lawyer or Client. As to a communication relevant to an issue of breach of duty by the Lawyer to his Client or by the Client to his Lawyer;
4. Document attested by a Lawyer. As to a communication relevant to an issue concerning an attested document to which the Lawyer is an attesting witness;
5. Joint Clients. As to a communication relevant to a matter of common interest between or among two (2) or more Clients if the communication was made by any of them to a Lawyer retained or consulted in common, when offered in an action between or among any of the Clients; or
6. Public officer or agency. As to a communication between a public officer or agency and its Lawyers unless the communication concerns a pending or contemplated investigation, claim, or action and the Court determines that disclosure will seriously impair the ability of the public officer or agency to process the claim or conduct a pending investigation, litigation, or proceeding in the public interest.

SECTION 5-1305.3

PHYSICIAN AND PSYCHOTHERAPIST; PATIENT PRIVILEGE.

A. Definitions. As used in this Section:

1. A "Patient" is a person who consults or is examined or interviewed by a physician or psychotherapist.

2. A "Physician" is a person authorized to practice medicine or the healing arts by any Indian tribe, or state, or nation, or reasonably believed by the patient so to be.

3. A "Psychotherapist" is:

 a. a person authorized to practice medicine or the healing arts by any Indian tribe, or state, or nation, or reasonably believed by the patient so to be, while engaged in the diagnosis or treatment of a mental or emotional condition, including alcohol or drug addiction; or

 b. a person licensed or certified as a Psychologist under the laws of any Indian tribe, or state, or nation, while similarly engaged.

4. A communication is "Confidential" if not intended to be disclosed to third persons, except persons present to further the interest of the Patient in the consultation, examination, or interview, persons reasonably necessary for the transmission of the communication, or persons who are participating in the diagnosis and treatment under the direction of the Physician or Psychotherapist, including members of the Patient's family.

B. General Rule of Privilege. A Patient has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent any other person from disclosing confidential communications made for the purpose of diagnosis or treatment of his physical, mental or emotional condition, including alcohol or drug addiction, among himself, his Physician or Psychotherapist, and persons who are participating in the diagnosis or treatment under the direction of the Physician or Psychotherapist, including members of the Patient's family.

C. Who may claim the privilege. The privilege may be claimed by the Patient, his guardian or conservator, or the personal representative of a deceased Patient. The person who was the Physician or Psychotherapist at the time of the communication, and any other persons directly involved in treatment sessions, are presumed to have authority to claim the privilege but only on behalf of the Patient.

D. Exceptions.

1. Proceeding for hospitalization. There is no privilege under this Section for communications relevant to an issue in proceedings to hospitalize the Patient for mental illness, if the Physician or Psychotherapist in the course of diagnosis or treatment has determined that the Patient is in need of hospitalization.

2. Examination by order of Court. If the Court orders an examination of the physical, mental or emotional condition of a Patient, whether a party or a witness, communications made in the course thereof are not privileged under this Section with respect to the particular purpose for which the examination is ordered unless the Court orders otherwise.

3. Condition an element of claim or defense. There is no privilege under this Section as to a communication relevant to an issue of the physical, mental or emotional condition of the patient in any proceeding in which he relies upon the condition as an element of his claim or defense or, after the Patient's death, in any proceeding in which any party relies upon the condition as an element of his claim or defense.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1305.4 SPOUSAL PRIVILEGE.

A. Definition. A communication is "Confidential" if it is made privately by any person to his or her spouse and is not intended for disclosure to any other person.

B. General Rule of Privilege. An accused in a criminal proceeding has a privilege to prevent his or her spouse from testifying as to any Confidential communication between the accused and the spouse.

C. Exceptions. There is no privilege under this Section in a proceeding for legal separation or divorce between the parties when the communication is relevant to the issues in the action for separate maintenance or divorce, or in which one spouse is charged with a crime against the person or property of:

1. the other;
2. a Child of either;

3. a person residing in the household of either; or
4. a third person committed in the course of committing a crime against any of them.

Except in an action brought by the Chickasaw Nation to protect a Child subject to abuse, neglect, or other cause which is sufficient to maintain a juvenile court action, testimony received pursuant to this exception in an action for divorce or legal separation between the husband and wife may not be used or referred to in any other proceeding between either the husband or wife and third persons. In a criminal proceeding, any testimony by the spouse in the defendant's behalf will be deemed a waiver of this privilege.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98; PR37-002, 01/17/2020)

SECTION 5-1305.5 RELIGIOUS PRIVILEGE.

A. Definitions. As used in this Section:

1. A "Clergyman" is a minister, priest, rabbi, accredited Christian Science Practitioner, Native American Church Roadman, properly authorized traditional band or society headman, firekeeper or peace chief or other similar functionary of a religious organization of a recognized active traditional tribal religion, or an individual reasonably believed so to be by the person consulting him.

2. A communication is "Confidential" if made privately and not intended for further disclosure except to other persons present or to other persons to whom disclosure would be privileged under this Article E if the disclosure had been made directly to such other person in furtherance of the purpose of the communication.

B. General Rule of Privilege. A person has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent another from disclosing a Confidential communication by the person to a clergyman in his professional character as spiritual advisor.

C. Who May Claim the Privilege. The privilege may be claimed by the person, by his guardian or conservator, or by his personal representative if he is deceased. The person who was the clergyman at the time of the communication is presumed to have authority to claim the privilege but only on behalf of the communicant.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1305.6 POLITICAL VOTE.

A. General Rule of Privilege. Every person has a privilege to refuse to disclose the tenor of his vote at any political election conducted by secret ballot.

B. Exceptions. This privilege does not apply if the Court finds that the vote was cast illegally or determines that the disclosure should be compelled pursuant to the election laws of the Chickasaw Nation.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1305.7 TRADE SECRETS.

A person has a privilege, which may be claimed by him or his agent or employee, to refuse to disclose and to prevent other persons from disclosing a trade secret owned by him, if the allowance of the privilege will not tend to conceal fraud or otherwise work injustice. If disclosure is directed, the Court shall take such protective measures as the interest of the holder of the privilege and of the parties and the interests of justice require. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1305.8 SECRETS OF THE CHICKASAW GOVERNMENT AND OTHER OFFICIAL INFORMATION; GOVERNMENTAL PRIVILEGES.

A. If the law of the United States creates a governmental privilege that the courts of this Nation must recognize under the Constitution and statutes of the United States, the privilege may be claimed as provided by the law of the United States.

B. No other special governmental privilege is recognized except as created by the Constitution or statutes of the Chickasaw Nation, including this Article E.

C. Privileges Recognized. The following governmental privileges are recognized:

1. Elected members of the Chickasaw Legislature have a privilege against disclosure of their mental processes and reasoning in the casting of any vote by them at a duly constituted meeting of that body, except in cases where it is alleged that unlawful influence or bribery or attempted bribery was involved in that vote. This privilege may be claimed only by the member and is waived if the member testifies as to such matters;

Court and Procedures

2. Justices and Judges have a privilege against disclosure of their mental processes and reasoning in the determination of any matter before them in any proceeding collateral to that matter, except in a collateral proceeding where it is alleged that unlawful influence or bribery or attempted bribery was involved in the underlying matter. The explanation and reasons for the decision of Judges which should appear on the record shall be sufficient. This Section shall not preclude the Appellate Court from remanding an action to a Judge for further findings of fact or conclusions of law in order to obtain an adequate record for review or to determine all issues necessary to a decision in a case;

3. Elected Officers of the executive branch of the Chickasaw Nation have a privilege against disclosure of their mental processes and reasoning in the exercise of their discretion when administering the policies established by the Chickasaw Legislature or in the administration of any program of the Chickasaw Nation, except in cases where it is alleged that unlawful influence or bribery or attempted bribery was involved in such exercise of discretion. This privilege may be claimed only by the Officer and is waived if the Officer testifies as to such matters;

4. Chickasaw Officers charged with the institution of legal proceedings before any agency of the Chickasaw Nation or the Chickasaw courts to enforce Chickasaw law have a privilege against disclosure of their mental processes and reasoning in the determination of any matter brought before them for a decision as to whether or not to institute such legal proceedings.

D. Effect of Sustaining Claim. If a claim of governmental privilege is sustained and it appears that a party is thereby deprived of material evidence, the Court shall make any further orders the interests of justice require, including striking the testimony of a witness, declaring a mistrial, finding against the government upon an issue as to which the evidence is relevant, or dismissing the action.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

IDENTITY OF INFORMER.

A. Rule of Privilege. The Chickasaw Nation, other tribal sovereignty, the United States, or a state, or any political subdivision or agency of the above listed entities having police powers has a privilege to refuse to disclose the identity of a person who has furnished information relating to or assisting in an investigation of a possible violation of a law to a law enforcement officer or member of a legislative committee or its staff conducting an investigation.

B. Who May Claim. The privilege may be claimed by an appropriate representative of the public entity to which the information was furnished.

C. Exceptions:

1. Voluntary disclosure; informer a witness. No privilege exists under this Section if the identity of the informer or his interest in the subject matter of his communication has been disclosed to those who would have cause to resent or be adversely affected by the communication by a holder of the privilege or by the informer's own action, or if the informer appears as a witness for the government.

2. Testimony on relevant issue. If it appears in the case that an informer may be able to give testimony relevant to any issue in a criminal case or to a fair determination of a material issue on the merits in a civil case to which a public entity is a party, and the informed public entity invokes the privilege, the Court shall give the public entity an opportunity to show in camera facts relevant to determining whether the informer can, in fact, supply that testimony. The showing will ordinarily be in the form of affidavits, but the Court may direct that testimony be taken if it finds that the matter cannot be resolved satisfactorily upon affidavit.

a. In criminal cases, if the courts find that there is a reasonable probability that the informer can give the testimony, and the public entity elects not to disclose his identity, the Court on motion of the defendant or on its own motion shall grant appropriate relief, which may include one or more of the following: requiring the prosecuting attorney to comply with a defense request for relevant information, granting the defendant additional time or a continuance, relieving the defendant from making disclosures otherwise required of him, prohibiting the prosecuting attorney from introducing specific evidence, and dismissing charges.

b. In civil cases, if the courts find that there is a reasonable probability that the informer can give the testimony, and the public entity elects not to disclose his identity, the Court may make any order the interests of justice require.

c. Evidence submitted to the Court in camera shall be sealed and preserved to be made available to the Supreme Court in the event of an appeal, and the contents shall not otherwise be revealed without the consent of the informed public entity. All counsel and parties are permitted to be present at every stage of proceedings under this Subsection except a showing in camera at which no counsel or party shall be permitted to be present.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1305.10

WAIVER OF PRIVILEGE BY VOLUNTARY DISCLOSURE.

A person upon whom this Article confers a privilege against disclosure waives the privilege if he or his predecessor, while holder of the privilege, voluntarily discloses or consents to disclosure of any significant part of the privileged matter. This Section does not apply if the disclosure itself is privileged. (TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1305.11

PRIVILEGED MATTER DISCLOSED UNDER COMPULSION OR WITHOUT OPPORTUNITY TO CLAIM PRIVILEGE.

A claim of privilege is not defeated by a disclosure which was 1) compelled erroneously or 2) made without opportunity to claim the privilege. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1305.12

COMMENT UPON AND INFERENCE FROM CLAIM OF PRIVILEGE; INSTRUCTION.

A. Comment or Inference not Permitted. The claim of a privilege, whether in the present proceeding or upon a prior occasion, is not a proper subject of comment by Judge or counsel. No inference may be drawn therefrom.

B. Claiming Privilege Without Knowledge of Jury. In jury cases, proceedings shall be conducted, to the maximum extent practicable, so as to facilitate the making of claims of privilege without the knowledge of the jury.

C. Jury Instruction. Upon request, any party against whom the jury might draw an adverse inference from a claim of privilege is entitled to an instruction that no inference may be drawn therefrom. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.1 GENERAL RULES OF COMPETENCY.

Every person is competent to be a witness except as otherwise provided in this Article F or other relevant Chickasaw law. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.2 LACK OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE.

A witness may not testify to a matter unless evidence is introduced sufficient to support a finding that he has personal knowledge of the matter. Evidence to prove personal knowledge may, but need not, consist of the testimony of the witness himself. This Section is subject to the provisions of Section 5-1307.2 through 5-1307.7, relating to opinion testimony by expert witnesses. (TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1306.3 OATH OR AFFIRMATION.

Before testifying, every witness shall be required to declare that he will testify truthfully, by oath or affirmation administered in a form calculated to awaken his conscience and impress his mind with his duty to do so. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.4 INTERPRETERS.

An interpreter is subject to the provisions of this Article F relating to qualification as an expert and the administration of an oath or affirmation that he will make a true translation. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.5 COMPETENCY OF JUDGE AS WITNESS.

The Judge presiding at the trial may not testify in that trial as a witness. No objection need be made in order to preserve the point. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.6 COMPETENCY OF JUROR AS WITNESS.

A. At the Trial. A member of the jury may not testify as a witness before that jury in the trial of the case in which he is sitting as a juror. If he is called to testify, the opposing party shall be afforded an opportunity to object out of presence of the jury.

B. Inquiry into Validity of Verdict or Indictment. Upon an inquiry into the validity of a verdict or indictment, a juror may not testify as to any matter or statement occurring during the course of the jury's deliberations or to the effect of anything upon his or any other juror's mind or emotions as influencing him to assent to or dissent from the verdict or concerning his mental processes in connection therewith, except that a juror may testify on the question whether extraneous prejudicial information was improperly brought to the jury's attention, whether the jury determined the verdict, amount of damages, sentence or other matter relevant to a determination of the issues in the case by flipping a coin or other method determined purely by chance, or whether any outside influence was improperly brought to bear upon any juror. Nor may his affidavit or evidence of any statement by him concerning a matter about which he would be precluded from testifying be received for these purposes.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.7 WHO MAY IMPEACH.

The credibility of a witness may be attacked by any party, including the party calling him.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.8 EVIDENCE OF CHARACTER AND CONDUCT OF WITNESS.

A. Opinion and Reputation Evidence of Character. The credibility of a witness may be attacked or supported by evidence in the form of opinion or reputation, but subject to these limitations:

1. the evidence may refer only to character for truthfulness or untruthfulness; and
2. evidence of truthful character is admissible only after the character of the witness for truthfulness has been attacked by opinion or reputation evidence or otherwise.

B. Specific Instances of Conduct. Specific instances of the conduct of a witness, for the purpose of attacking or supporting his credibility, other than conviction of crime as provided in Section 5-1306.9, may not be proved by extrinsic evidence. Specific instances of conduct may, however, in the discretion of the Court, if probative of truthfulness or untruthfulness, be inquired into on cross-examination of the witness:

1. concerning his character for truthfulness or untruthfulness; or
2. concerning the character for truthfulness or untruthfulness of another witness as to which character the witness being cross-examined has testified.

C. Special Rule for Criminal Cases. The giving of testimony, whether by an accused or by any other witness, does not operate as a waiver of his privilege against self-incrimination when examined with respect to matters which relate only to credibility. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 1306.9

IMPEACHMENT BY EVIDENCE OF CONVICTION OF CRIME.

A. General Rule. For the purpose of attacking the credibility of a witness, evidence that he has been convicted of a crime shall be admitted if elicited from him or established by public record during cross-examination but only if the crime:

1. was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of one (1) year under a federal or state law, under which he was convicted, and the Court determines that the probative value of admitting this evidence outweighs its prejudicial effect to the defendant (if it is the defendant in a criminal case whose credibility is being questioned);

2. involved dishonesty or false statement, regardless of the punishment or jurisdiction involved; or
3. was punishable by imprisonment for six (6) months or greater, or is otherwise classified as a serious offense under the laws of an Indian tribe in whose courts the conviction was obtained.

B. Time Limit. Evidence of a conviction under this Section is not admissible if a period of more than ten (10) years has lapsed since the date of the conviction or of the release of the witness from the confinement or other punishment imposed for that conviction, whichever is the later date, unless the Court determines, in the interests of justice, that the probative value of the conviction supported by specific facts and circumstances substantially outweighs its prejudicial effect. However, evidence of a conviction more than ten (10) years old as calculated herein, is not admissible unless the proponent gives to the adverse party sufficient advance written notice of intent to use such evidence to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to contest the use of such evidence. Subject to Subsection C of this Section and the discretion of the Court, such convictions are admissible if other admissible convictions not ten (10) years old as calculated herein have occurred since the conviction in question.

C. Effect of Pardon, Annulment, or Certificate of Rehabilitation. Evidence of a conviction is not admissible under this Section if:

1. the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, certificate of rehabilitation, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of the rehabilitation of the person convicted, and that person has not been convicted of a subsequent crime which would be admissible under subparagraph A above; or
2. the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of innocence.

D. Juvenile Adjudications. Evidence of juvenile adjudications is generally not admissible under this Section. The Court may, however, in a criminal case allow evidence of a juvenile adjudication of a witness, other than the accused, if conviction of the offense would be admissible to attack the credibility of an adult and the Court is satisfied that admission in evidence is necessary for a fair determination of the issue of guilt or innocence of the accused.

E. Pendency of Appeal. The pendency of an appeal therefrom does not render evidence of a conviction inadmissible. Evidence of the pendency of an appeal is admissible when evidence of the underlying convictions in the case has been introduced. (TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1306.10 RELIGIOUS BELIEFS OR OPINIONS.

Evidence of the beliefs or opinions of a witness on matters of religion is not admissible for the purpose of showing that by reasons of their nature his credibility is impaired or enhanced. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.11 MODE AND ORDER OF INTERROGATION AND PRESENTATION.

A. Control by Court. The Court shall exercise reasonable control over the mode and order of interrogating witnesses and presenting evidence so as to:

1. make the interrogation and presentation effective for the ascertainment of the truth;
2. avoid needless consumption of time; and
3. protect witnesses from unnecessary harassment and undue embarrassment.

B. Scope of Cross-examination. Cross-examination should be limited to the subject matter of the direct examination and matters affecting the credibility of the witness. The Court may, in the exercise of discretion, permit inquiry into additional matters as if on direct examination.

C. Leading Questions. A leading question is ordinarily a question which calls for a yes or no answer. Leading questions should not be used on the direct examination of a witness except as may be necessary to develop his testimony. Ordinarily leading questions should be permitted on cross-examination. When a party calls a Child of young age, or other person who may have significant trouble understanding questions due to age, infirmity, lack of understanding of the English language, or other cause, a hostile witness, an adverse party, or a witness identified with an adverse party, interrogation may be by leading questions at the Court's discretion.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

WRITING USED TO REFRESH MEMORY.

A. If a witness uses a writing to refresh his memory either while testifying or before testifying, an adverse party is entitled to have the writing produced at the hearing, to inspect it, to cross-examine the witness thereon, and to introduce in evidence those portions which relate to the testimony of the witness.

B. If it is claimed that the writing contains matters not related to the subject matter of the testimony, the Court shall examine the writing in camera, exercise any portions not so related and order delivery of the remainder to the party entitled thereto. Any portion withheld over objections shall be preserved and made available to the Appellate Court in the event of an appeal. If a writing is not produced or delivered pursuant to order of the Court under this Section, the Court shall make any order justice requires, except that in criminal cases when the prosecution elects not to comply, the Court may declare a mistrial.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1306.13

PRIOR STATEMENTS OF WITNESSES.

A. Examining Witness Concerning Prior Statements. In examining a witness concerning a prior statement made by him, whether written or not, the statement need not be shown nor its contents disclosed to him at that time, but on request the same shall be shown or disclosed to opposing counsel.

B. Extrinsic Evidence of Prior Inconsistent Statements of Witness. Extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement by a witness is not admissible unless the witness is afforded an opportunity to explain or deny the same and the opposing party is afforded an opportunity to interrogate him thereon, or the interests of justice otherwise require. This provision does not apply to admissions of a party opponent.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.14
BY

CALLING AND INTERROGATION OF WITNESSES
COURT.

Court and Procedures

A. Calling by Court. The Court may, on its own motion or at the suggestion of a party, call witnesses, and all parties are entitled to cross-examine witnesses thus called.

B. Interrogation by Court. The Court may interrogate witnesses, whether called by itself or by a party.

C. Objections. Objections to calling of witnesses by the Court or to interrogation by it may be made at the time or at the next available opportunity when the jury is not present. Ordinarily, the Court should exercise its authority to call or question witnesses with great restraint in a jury trial.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.15 EXCLUSION OF WITNESSES.

At the request of a party the Court shall order witnesses excluded so that they cannot hear the testimony of other witnesses, and it may make the order of its own motion. This request may be made by a party by requesting that the Court "invoke the rule" or words of similar import. This rule does not authorize exclusion of:

1. a party who is a natural person;
 2. an officer or employee of a party, designated as its representative by its attorney, when the party is not a natural person; or
 3. a person whose presence is shown by a party to be essential to the presentation of his cause.
- (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1306.16 PROCEDURES TO PROTECT THE RIGHTS OF WITNESSES.

A. The court shall employ usual court procedures to protect the rights of a witness, while ensuring the rights of a criminal defendant, the rights of the parties in a civil action, and the integrity of the judicial process.

B. The court, upon motion of counsel, shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the testimony of a witness shall be closed to the public. In making the decision, the court shall consider:

Court and Procedures

1. The nature and seriousness of the issues in the proceeding;
 2. The age of the witness;
 3. The relationship, if any, of the witness to the defendant;
 4. The extent to which the size of the community would preclude the anonymity of the witness;
 5. The likelihood of public disgrace of the witness;
 6. Whether there is an overriding public interest in having the testimony of the witness presented in open court;
 7. The substantial risk that the identity of the witness would be disclosed to the public during the proceeding;
 8. The substantial probability that the disclosure of the identity of the witness would cause serious harm to the witness;
 9. Whether the witness has disclosed information concerning the case to the public in a manner which would preclude anonymity of the witness; and
 10. Other factors the court may deem necessary to protect the interests of justice.
- C. If the court determines that the testimony of the witness is to be closed to the public, the court shall in its order accordingly and set forth the persons who can be present during the taking of testimony of the witness, which shall include:
1. The parties to the proceeding and their counsel;
 2. Any officer having custody of the witness;
 3. Court personnel as may be necessary to conduct the hearing and maintain order, including but not limited to the judge, the court clerk, the bailiff, and the court reporter;
 4. Jury members, if appropriate; and

Court and Procedures

5. The witness and a Support Person for the witness.

D. The testimony of the witness may be taken in the courtroom, in chambers, or in some other comfortable place. If the testimony of a witness is to be taken in a courtroom, the witness and Support Person shall be assembled in the court chambers prior to the taking of the testimony to meet for a reasonable period of time with the judge and counsel for the parties. At this meeting court procedures shall be explained to the witness, and counsel shall be given an opportunity to establish a rapport with the witness to facilitate taking the testimony of the witness at a later time. The facts involved in the proceeding shall not be discussed with the witness during this meeting.

E. A witness shall have the right to be accompanied by a Support Person while giving testimony in the proceeding, but the Support Person shall not discuss the testimony of the witness with any other witnesses or attempt to prompt or influence the testimony of the witness in any way. In lieu of a Support Person, a witness shall be afforded the opportunity to have a certified therapeutic dog accompanied by the handler of the certified therapeutic dog pursuant to the provisions set forth in Section 5-1312.9.

F. For purposes of this Section, "Support Person" means a parent, other relative, or a next friend chosen by the witness to accompany the witness to court proceedings.

If scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education, may testify thereto in the form of an opinion or otherwise.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

The facts or data in the particular case upon which an expert bases an opinion or inference may be those perceived by or made known to him at or before the hearing. If of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the particular field in forming opinions or inferences upon the subject, the facts or data need not be admissible in evidence.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

OPINION ON ULTIMATE ISSUE.

Testimony in the form of an opinion or inference otherwise admissible is not objectionable because it embraces an ultimate issue to be decided by the trier of fact.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

EXPERT

OPINION.

The expert may testify in terms of opinion or inference and give his reasons therefore without prior disclosure of the underlying facts or data, unless the Court requires otherwise. The expert may in any event be required to disclose the underlying facts or data on cross-examination.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

COURT APPOINTED EXPERTS.

A. Appointment. The Court may on its own motion or on the motion of any party enter an order to show cause why expert witnesses should not be appointed, and may request the parties to submit nominations. The Court may appoint any expert witnesses agreed upon by the parties, and may appoint expert witnesses of its own selection. An expert witness shall not be appointed by the Court unless he consents to act. A witness so appointed shall be informed of his duties by the Court in writing, a copy of which shall be filed with the clerk, or at a conference in which the parties shall have opportunity to participate. A witness so appointed shall advise the parties of his findings, if any, his deposition may be taken by any party, and he may be called to testify by the Court or any party. He shall be subject to cross-examination by each party, including a party calling him as a witness.

B. Compensation. Expert witnesses so appointed are entitled to reasonable compensation in whatever sum the Court may allow. The compensation thus fixed is payable from the court fund, said fund to be reimbursed by the parties in such proportion and at such time as the Court directs, and thereafter charged in like manner as other costs.

C. Disclosure of Appointment. In the exercise of its discretion, the Court may authorize disclosure to the jury of the fact that the Court appointed the expert witness.

D. Parties' Experts of Own Selection. Nothing in this Section limits the parties in calling expert witnesses of their own selection.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

EXPERT TESTIMONY; ADMISSIBILITY.

In an action in a court of this Nation, if a party offers evidence of domestic abuse, testimony of an expert witness concerning the effects of such domestic abuse on the beliefs, behavior and perception of the person being abused shall be admissible as evidence. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

- a. the Statement is offered as evidence of a material fact;
- b. the Statement is more probative on the point for which it is offered than any other evidence which the proponent can procure through reasonable efforts; and
- c. the general purposes of this Chapter and the interests of justice will best be served by admission of the Statement into evidence.

B. A proponent of the admission of a statement pursuant to this Section must

(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

UNAVAILABLE.

HEARSAY EXCEPTIONS; DECLARANT

A. Definition of Unavailability. "Unavailability as a Witness" includes situations in which the Declarant:

1. is exempted by ruling of the Court on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the subject matter of his Statement;
2. persists in refusing to testify concerning the subject matter of his Statement despite an order of the Court to do so;
3. testifies to a lack of memory of the subject matter of his Statement;
4. is unable to be present or to testify at the hearing because of death or then existing physical or mental illness or infirmity; or
5. is absent from the hearing and the proponent of his Statement has been unable to procure his attendance (or in the case of a Hearsay exception under Paragraphs B.2, B.3 or B.4 below, his attendance or testimony) by process or other reasonable means.

A Declarant is not unavailable as a witness if his exemption, refusal, claim of lack of memory, inability, or absence is due to the procurement or wrongdoing of the proponent of his statement for the purpose of preventing the witness from attending or testifying.

B. Hearsay Exceptions. The following are not excluded by the Hearsay rule if the Declarant is unavailable as a witness:

1. Former Testimony. Testimony given as a witness at another hearing of the same or a different proceeding, or in a deposition taken in compliance with law in the course of the same or another proceeding, if the party against whom the testimony is now offered, or, in a civil action or proceeding, a predecessor in interest, had an opportunity and similar motive to develop the testimony by direct, cross, or redirect examination.

2. Statement Under Belief of Impending Death. In a prosecution for homicide or in a civil action or proceeding, a Statement made by a Declarant while believing that his death was imminent, concerning the cause or circumstances of what he believed to be his impending death.

3. Statement Against Interest. A Statement which was at the time of its making so far contrary to the declarant's pecuniary or proprietary interest, or so far tended to subject him to civil or criminal liability, or to render invalid a claim by him against another, that a reasonable man in his position would not have made the statement unless he believed it to be true. A Statement tending to expose the declarant to criminal liability and offered to exculpate the accused is not admissible unless corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the Statement.

4. Statement of Personal or Family History.

a. Statement concerning the declarant's own birth, adoption, marriage, divorce, legitimacy, relationship by blood, adoption, or marriage, ancestry, or other similar fact of personal or family history, even though Declarant had no means of acquiring personal knowledge of the matter stated; or

b. a Statement concerning the foregoing matters, and death also, of another person, if the declarant was related to the other by blood, adoption, or marriage or was so intimately associated with the other's family as to be likely to have accurate information concerning the matter declared.

5. Other exceptions. A Statement not specifically covered by any of the foregoing exceptions but having equivalent circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness, if the Court determines that:

a. the Statement is offered as evidence of a material fact;

b. the Statement is more probative on the point for which it is

Court and Procedures

offered than any other evidence which the proponent can procure through reasonable efforts; and

c. the general purpose of this Article H and the interest of justice will best be served by admission of the statement into evidence. However, a Statement may not be admitted under this exception unless the proponent of it makes known to the adverse party in writing sufficiently in advance of the trial or hearing to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to prepare to meet it, his intention to offer the Statement and the particulars of it, including the name and address of the Declarant.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

HEARSAY WITHIN HEARSAY.

Hearsay included within Hearsay is not excluded under the Hearsay rule if each part of the combined Statements conforms with an exception to the Hearsay rule provided in this Article H. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1308.6

ATTACKING AND SUPPORTING CREDIBILITY OF DECLARANT.

When a Hearsay Statement, or a Statement defined in Section 5-1308.1.4.b.iii, iv or v has been admitted in evidence, the credibility of the Declarant may be attacked, and if attacked may be supported, by any evidence which would be admissible for those purposes if Declarant had testified as a witness. Evidence of a Statement or conduct by the Declarant at any time, inconsistent with his Hearsay statement, is not subject to any requirement that he be afforded an opportunity to deny or explain. If the party against whom a Hearsay Statement has been admitted calls the Declarant as a witness, the party is entitled to examine him on the Statement as if under cross-examination.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

HEARSAY EXCEPTION; STATEMENT OF CHILD VICTIM.

A. Unless the source of information or the method or circumstances by which the statement is reported indicates a lack of trustworthiness, an out-of-court statement made by a child victim under the age of sixteen (16) or a person under the age of eighteen (18) with a physical, mental, emotional, or developmental age of sixteen (16) or less describing any act of child abuse or neglect, any act of sexual abuse against a child, the offense of child abuse, the offense of child neglect, any offense involving child pornography or other obscenity, or any offense involving an unlawful sexual act, contact, intrusion, or penetration performed in the presence of, with, by, or on the declarant child, not otherwise admissible, is admissible in evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding if:

1. The court finds in a hearing conducted outside the presence of the jury that the time, content, and circumstances of the statement provide sufficient safeguards of reliability. In making its determination, the Court may consider the mental and physical age and maturity of the child, the nature and duration of the abuse or offense, the relationship of the child to the offender, the reliability of the assertion, the reliability of the child victim, and any other factor deemed appropriate; and

2. The child either:

a. Testifies or is available to testify pursuant to Article L in this Chapter; or

b. Is unavailable as a witness, provided there is other corroborative evidence of the abuse or offense. Unavailability shall include a finding by the court that the child's participation in the trial or proceeding would result in a substantial likelihood of severe emotional or mental harm.

B. In a criminal action, the Defendant shall be notified at least ten (10) days before trial that a statement which qualifies as a hearsay exception pursuant to this Section will be offered as evidence at trial. The notice shall include a written statement of the content of the child's statement, when the statement was made, the circumstances surrounding the statement which indicate its reliability, and such other relevant information as necessary to provide full disclosure of the statement and its context.

C. The court shall make specific findings of fact, on the record, as to the basis for its ruling under this subsection.

Section 5-1309.3 Subscribing Witness' Testimony Unnecessary.

SECTION 5-1309.1 REQUIREMENT OF AUTHENTICATION OR IDENTIFICATION.

A. General Provision. The requirement of authentication or identification as a condition precedent to admissibility is satisfied by evidence sufficient to support a finding that the matter in question is what its proponent claims.

1. Testimony of witness with knowledge. Testimony that a matter is what it is claimed to be.

7. Public records or reports. Evidence that a writing authorized by law to be recorded or filed and in fact recorded or filed in a public office, or a purported public record, report, statement, or data compilation, in any form, is from the public office where items of this nature are kept.

9. Methods provided by statute. Any method of authentication or identification provided by applicable law of the Chickasaw Nation.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR16-025, 8/23/99)

Court and Procedures

2. Domestic public documents not under seal. A document purporting to bear the signature in his official capacity of an officer or employee of any entity included in Paragraph 1 hereof, having no seal, if a public officer having a seal and having official

b. of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position related to the execution or attestation or is a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the execution or attestation.

A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul, general consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official or the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of official documents, the Court may, for good cause shown, order that they be treated as presumptively authentic without final certification or permit them to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without final certification.

4. Certified copies of public records. A copy of an official record or report or entry therein, or of a document authorized by law to be recorded or filed and actually recorded or filed in a public office, including data compilations in any form, certified as correct by the custodian or other person authorized to make the certification, by certificate complying with Paragraph 1, 2 or 3 of this Section or complying with any act of the Chickasaw Legislature or rule prescribed by the courts of the Chickasaw Nation pursuant to statutory authority.

Section 5-1310.8	Functions of Court and Jury.

SECTION 5-1310.1 DEFINITIONS.

For the purpose of this Article J, the following definitions are applicable:

1. Writings and Recordings. "Writings" and "Recordings" consist of letters, words, or numbers or their equivalent, set down by handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, magnetic impulse, mechanical or electronic recording, or other form of data compilation.

2. Photographs. "Photographs" include still photographs, X-rays, films, video tapes, and motion pictures.

3. Original. An "Original" of a writing or recording is the writing or recording itself or any counterpart intended to have the same effect by a person executing or issuing it. An Original of a photograph includes the negative or any print therefrom. If data are stored in a computer or similar device, any printout or other output readable by sight, shown to reflect the data accurately, is an Original.

4. Duplicate. A "Duplicate" is a counterpart produced by the same impression as the Original, or from the same matrix, or by means of photography, including enlargements and miniatures, or by mechanical or electronic re-recording, or by chemical reproduction, or by other equivalent techniques which accurately reproduces the original.

(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1310.2 REQUIREMENT OF ORIGINAL.

The Original Writing, Recording, or Photograph is required to provide proof of content of such Writing, Recording, or Photograph, except as otherwise provided in this Chapter 13 or other applicable law of the Chickasaw Nation. (TL14-002, 4/18/97; PR15-030, 9/23/98)

SECTION 5-1310.3

ADMISSIBILITY OF DUPLICATES.

A Duplicate is admissible to the same extent as an Original unless:

1. a genuine question is raised as to the authenticity of the Original; or
2. in the circumstances it would be unfair to admit the Duplicate in lieu of the Original.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

CONTENTS.

ADMISSIBILITY OF OTHER EVIDENCE OF

The Original is not required, and other evidence of the contents of a Writing, Recording, or Photograph is admissible if:

1. Originals lost or destroyed. All Originals are lost or have been destroyed, unless the proponent lost or destroyed them in bad faith;
2. Original not obtainable. No Original can be obtained by any available judicial process or procedure;
3. Original in possession of opponent. At a time when an Original was under the control of the party against whom offered, he was put on notice, by the pleadings or otherwise, that the contents would be a subject of proof at the hearing, and he does not produce the Original at the hearing; or
4. Collateral matters. The Writings, Recording, or Photograph is not closely related to a controlling issue.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

PUBLIC RECORDS.

The contents of an official record, or of a document authorized to be recorded or filed and actually recorded or filed, including data compilation in any form, if otherwise admissible, may be proved by copy, certified as correct in accordance with Section 5-1309.2, or testified to be correct by a witness who has compared it with the Original. If a copy which complies with the foregoing cannot be obtained by the exercise of reasonable diligence, then other evidence of the contents may be given. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1310.6

SUMMARIES.

The contents of voluminous Writings, Recordings, or Photographs which cannot conveniently be examined in court may be presented in the form of a chart, summary, or calculation. The Originals, or Duplicates, shall be made available for examination or copying, or both, by other parties at a reasonable time and place. The Court may order that they be produced in court.
(TL14-002, 4/18/97)

PARTY.

TESTIMONY OR WRITTEN ADMISSION OF

Contents of Writings, Recordings, or Photographs may be proved by the testimony or deposition of the party against whom offered or by his written admission, without accounting for the nonproduction of the Original. (TL14-002, 4/18/97)

SECTION 5-1310.8

FUNCTIONS OF COURT AND JURY.

When the admissibility of other evidence of contents of Writings, Recordings, or Photographs under this Article J depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the question whether the condition has been fulfilled is ordinarily for the Court to determine in accordance with the provisions of Section 5-1310.4. However, when an issue is raised:

1. whether the asserted writing ever existed;
2. whether another Writing, Recording, or Photograph produced at the trial is the original; or

Court and Procedures

3. whether other evidence of contents correctly reflects the contents;
the issue is for the trier of fact to determine as in the case of other issues of fact.

- c. allowing all of the parties to be present, to participate, and to view and be viewed by the child.

2. "Child Witness" means an individual under the age of thirteen (13) who has been or will be called to testify in a proceeding.

3. "Criminal Proceeding" means a trial or hearing before a court in a prosecution of a person charged with violating a criminal law of the Chickasaw Nation or a juvenile delinquency proceeding involving conduct that if engaged in by an adult would constitute a violation of the criminal law of the Chickasaw Nation.

4. "Noncriminal Proceeding" means a trial or hearing before a court or an administrative agency of the Chickasaw Nation having judicial or quasi-judicial powers, other than a Criminal Proceeding.

SECTION 5-1312.2 APPLICABILITY.

This Article governs the testimony of Child Witnesses in all Criminal and Noncriminal Proceedings. However, in a Noncriminal Proceeding, this Article does not preclude other procedures permitted by law for presentation of the testimony of a Child Witness.

SECTION 5-1312.3 HEARING WHETHER TO ALLOW TESTIMONY
BY ALTERNATIVE METHOD.

A. The presiding officer of a Criminal or Noncriminal Proceeding may order a hearing to determine whether to allow presentation of the testimony of a Child Witness by an Alternative Method. The presiding officer, for good cause shown, shall order the hearing upon motion of a party, a Child Witness, or an individual determined by the presiding officer to have sufficient standing to act on behalf of the child.

B. A hearing to determine whether to allow presentation of the testimony of a Child Witness by an Alternative Method must be conducted on the record after reasonable notice to all parties, any nonparty movant, and any other person the presiding officer specifies. The child's presence is not required at the hearing unless ordered by the presiding officer. In conducting the hearing, the presiding officer is not bound by rules of evidence, except for the rules of privilege.

SECTION 5-1312.4 STANDARDS FOR DETERMINING WHETHER A CHILD WITNESS'S TESTIMONY MAY BE PRESENTED BY ALTERNATIVE METHOD.

A. In a Criminal Proceeding, the presiding officer may order the presentation of the testimony of a Child Witness by an Alternative Method only in the following situations:

1. A Child Witness's testimony may be taken other than in an open forum in the presence and full view of the finder of fact if the presiding officer finds by clear and convincing evidence that the child would suffer serious emotional trauma that would substantially impair the child's ability to communicate with the finder of fact if required to testify in the open forum.

2. A Child Witness's testimony may be taken other than in a face-to-face confrontation between the child and a defendant if the presiding officer finds by clear and convincing evidence that the child would suffer serious emotional trauma that would substantially impair the child's ability to communicate with the finder of fact if required to be confronted face-to-face by the defendant.

B. In a Criminal Proceeding, the Child Witness may have an advocate appointed by the court to monitor the potential for emotional trauma. The advocate shall be a professional social worker, psychologist, or psychiatrist.

C. In a Noncriminal Proceeding, the presiding officer may order the presentation of the testimony of a Child Witness by an Alternative Method if the presiding officer finds by a preponderance of the evidence that presenting the testimony of the child by an Alternative Method is necessary to serve the best interests of the child or enable the child to communicate with the finder of fact. In making this finding, the presiding officer shall consider:

1. the nature of the proceeding;
2. the age and maturity of the child;
3. the relationship of the child to the parties in the proceeding;
4. the nature and degree of emotional trauma that the child may suffer in testifying; and
5. any other relevant factor.

FACTORS FOR DETERMINING WHETHER TO PERMIT ALTERNATIVE METHOD.

If the presiding officer determines that a standard hereunder has been met, the presiding officer shall determine whether to allow the presentation of the testimony of a Child Witness by an Alternative Method and in doing so shall consider:

1. Alternative Methods reasonably available;
2. available means for protecting the interests of or reducing emotional trauma to the child without resorting to an Alternative Method;

3. the nature of the case;
4. the relative rights of the parties;
5. the importance of the proposed testimony of the child;
6. the nature and degree of emotional trauma that the child may suffer if an Alternative Method is not used; and
7. any other relevant factor.

SECTION 5-1312.6

ORDER REGARDING TESTIMONY BY ALTERNATIVE METHOD.

A. An order allowing or disallowing the presentation of the testimony of a Child Witness by an Alternative Method must state the findings of fact and conclusions of law that support the presiding officer's determination.

B. An order allowing the presentation of the testimony of a Child Witness by an Alternative Method must state:

1. the method by which the testimony is to be presented;
2. a list, individually or by category, of the persons either allowed to be present or required to be excluded during the taking of the testimony of the child;
3. any special conditions necessary to facilitate a party's right to examine or cross-examine the child;
4. any condition or limitation upon the participation of persons present during the taking of the testimony of the child; and
5. any other condition necessary for taking or presenting the testimony.

C. The Alternative Method ordered by the presiding officer must be no more restrictive of the rights of the parties than is necessary under the circumstances to serve the purposes of the order.

SECTION 5-1312.7

RIGHT OF PARTIES TO EXAMINE A CHILD WITNESS.

An Alternative Method ordered by the presiding officer must permit a full and fair opportunity for examination and cross-examination of the Child Witness.

SECTION 5-1312.8

USE OF TESTIMONY BY ALTERNATIVE METHODS IN DEPOSITIONS.

If a deposition of any Child Witness is requested in a civil proceeding, either party, the Child Witness's guardian ad litem, or the parent of a Child Witness may motion to the court that the Child Witness's testimony be taken using the provisions for Noncriminal Proceedings under this Article.

SECTION 5-1312.9

SUPPORT OF A CHILD WITNESS.

A. This section recognizes the special circumstances and needs of a Child Witness during criminal court proceedings, and to protect the Child Witness from any unnecessary emotional discomfort or anguish.

Any person to an action in the District Court may request that the Court refer the case to the Peacemaking Court by filing a written Motion for Referral. The Motion for Referral must comply with the requirements of the District Court and Section 5-1401.7 above.

After a party files a Motion for Referral to Peacemaking Court, any other party may object to the Motion or may consent to the Motion by filing a written objection or consent with the Court within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the Motion. A failure to respond by a party to a Motion for Referral to Peacemaking Court shall be considered an objection to the motion.

C. The District Court shall grant a Joint Motion for Referral to Peacemaking Court filed by all parties to the dispute indicating that all parties consent to the referral of their dispute to Peacemaking Court.

D. The District Court may also, upon its own motion, refer an action to Peacemaking Court if the Court finds that the action, in light of the totality of circumstances concerning the action known then by the Court, is the type of action that may be resolved through peacemaking and all parties consent to the referral of their dispute to the Peacemaking Court.

E. Once a matter is referred to Peacemaking Court, a party may not request the matter be removed from Peacemaking Court back to the District Court unless such request is pursuant to a Motion for a Protective Order.

If the appointment is declined, the District Court shall select another Peacemaker and the foregoing procedure shall again be followed.

B. The Peacemaker shall meet with the parties to resolve the dispute at a time and place agreed to by the Peacemaker. The Peacemaker will present a copy of the agreement and a proposed dismissal order to the District Court. The District Court shall review the agreement and proposed order to insure that those documents meet the requirements of the Court. If the agreement and proposed order are sufficient, the Court shall endorse the order and file the agreement and order in the case as a final, non-appealable, order. The District Court shall send a copy of the entered agreement and order to each of the parties and to the Peacemaker.

E. If the agreement and/or order does not meet the requirements of the District Court, the Court shall send the agreement and/or order back to the Peacemaker with suggested revisions. If the parties sign another agreement incorporating the suggested revisions, the Peacemaker shall then present the new agreement to the District Court and the procedure described in Subsection D above shall be followed.

F. If the parties cannot reach an agreement to resolve their disputes, the Peacemaker shall certify in writing to the District Court that such is the case. The Court may then refer the matter to another Peacemaker or enter an order referring the matter back to the District Court for further proceedings.

G. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter 14, the Peacemaker or District Court may enter an order referring any matter in Peacemaking Court back to the District Court if the parties have not reached an agreement resolving the matter after sixty (60) days from the date of the order from the District Court referring the matter to Peacemaking Court.

H. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter 14, no matter may be referred to Peacemaking Court more than one (1) time by the District Court unless all of the parties to the matter consent.

1. the court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the agreement;
2. all parties have voluntarily signed the agreement and consented to

Court and Procedures

the proposed order;

An order entered pursuant to this Chapter shall be enforceable in the same manner as other orders of the Chickasaw District Court.

SECTION 5-1401.13 ADMISSIBILITY OF STATEMENTS MADE IN PEACEMAKING COURT.

6. the assertion of any right guaranteed by tribal or federal law but not recognized by the Peacemaker.

B. A Motion for a Protective Order shall be made in writing to the District Court. Upon receipt of such a Motion, the District Court shall conduct a hearing on the Motion. The Court may grant or deny the Motion in whole or in part. The Court may order any remedy it finds reasonably appropriate, even if such remedy was not requested by the party or witness filing the Motion.

SECTION 5-1401.16 METHOD; BASIC RIGHTS.
